THE PSALMS of DAVID,
IN METRE.

PSALM I. T. S.

THE man is blest that hath not lent to wicked men his ear :
Nor led his life as sinners do, nor sat in scorners chair.
a But in the law of God the Lord doth set his whole delight :
And in the same doth exercise himself both day and night.

- 3 He shall be like a tree that is planted the rivers nigh :
Which in due season bringeth forth its fruit abundantly,
4 Whose leaf shall never fade nor fall, but flourishing shall stand :
Ev'n to all things shall prosper well that this man takes in hand.
5 As for ungodly men, with them it shall be nothing so :
But as the chaff which by the wind is driven to and fro.
6 Therefore the wicked men shall not in judgement stand upright :
Nor in th' assembly of the just shall sinners come in fight.
7 For why ? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known :
Whereas the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

PSAL. II. T. S.

WHY did the Gentiles tumults raise ? what rage was in their brain ?
Why do the people still contrive a thing that is but vain ?

- 2 The kings and rulers of the earth conspire, and are all bent
Against the Lord, and Christ his son, whom he among us sent.
3 Shall we be bound to them ? say they, let all their bonds be broke :
And of their doctrine and their law let us reject the yoke.
4 But he that in the heav'n doth dwell, their doings will deride :
And make them all as mocking-stocks, thro'out the world so wide.
5 For in his wrath he shall reprove their pride and scornful way,
And in his fury trouble them, and unto them shall say ;
6 I have anointed him my King upon my holy hill :
I will therefore, Lord, preach thy law according to thy will.
7 The law whereof the Lord himself hath thus said unto me,
Thou art my only Son, this day have I begotten thee.
8 All people I will give to thee, as heirs at thy request :
The ends and coasts of all the earth by thee shall be possess'd.
9 Thou shalt them bruise, ev'n like to those that under foot are trod ;
And as a potter's vessel break them with an iron rod.
10 Now ye, O kings and rulers all, be wise therefore and learn'd :
By whom the matters of the world are judged and discern'd.
11 See that ye serve the Lord above, in trembling and in fear :
See that with reverence ye rejoice when ye to him draw near.
12 See that ye do embrace and kiss his Son without delay :
Lest in his wrath ye suddenly perish from the right way.

PSALM III, IV, V.

13 If once his wrath (but little shall) be kindled in his breast :
Then only they that trust in him, shall happy be and blest.

PSAL. III. T. S.

O Lord, how are my foes increas'd, who vex me more and more!
They break my heart when as they say, God can him not restore.
2 But thou, O Lord, art my defence when I am hard bestead :
My worship and my honour both, and thou hold'st up my head.
3 Then with my voice unto the Lord I did both call and cry :
And he out of his holy hill did hear me speedily.
4 I laid me down, and quietly I slept, and rose again :
For why? I knew assuredly, the Lord did me sustain.
5 If thousands up against me rise, I will not be afraid ;
For thou art still my Lord and God, my Saviour and my aid.
6 Rise up therefore, save me, my God, to thee I make my pray'r ;
For thou hast broke the cheeks and teeth of all that wicked are.
7 Salvation only doth belong to thee, O Lord, above ;
Who on thy people dost bestow thy blessings and thy love.

PSAL. IV. T. S.

O God, thou art my righteousness ; Lord, hear me when I call :
Thou hast set me at Liberty, when I was bound in thrall.
2 Have mercy, Lord, therefore on me, and grant me my request :
For unto thee incessantly to cry I will not rest.
3 O mortal men, how long will ye my glory thus despise ?
Why wander ye in vanity, and follow after lies ?
4 Know ye, that good and godly men the Lord doth take and chuse ;
And when to him I make complaint, he doth me not refuse.
5 Sin not, but stand in awe therefore, examine well your heart ;
And in your chamber quietly see ye yourselves convert.
6 Offer to God the sacrifice of righteousness and praise ;
And look that in the living Lord ye put your trust always.
7 The greater sort crave worldly goods, and riches do embrace :
But, Lord, grant us thy countenance, thy favour, and thy grace.
8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart more joyful and more glad,
Than they that of their corn and wine full great increase have had.
9 In peace therefore lie down will I, taking my rest and sleep :
For thou only dost me, O Lord, preserve and safely keep.

PSAL. V. T. S.

I Ncline thine ears, O Lord, and let my words have free access
To thee, who art my God and King, from whom I seek redress,
2 Hear me betime, Lord, tarry not, for I will have respect,
My supplication in the morn, to thee for to direct.
3 And I will patiently still trust in thee my God alone ;
Thou art not pleas'd with wickedness, and ill with thee dwells none.
4 Such as be foolish shall not stand in sight of thee, O Lord ;
Vain workers of iniquity thou hast always abhor'd.
5 The liars and base flatterers shall be destroy'd by thee ;
Blood thirsty and deceitful men likewise shall hated be.

6 Therefore

P S A L M V, VI, VII.

6 Therefore will I come to thy house, trusting upon thy grace ;
 And rev'rently will worship thee towards thy holy place.
 7 Lord, lead me in thy righteousness, for to confound my foes ;
 Also the way that I should walk, before my face disclose.
 8 For in their mouths there is no truth, their inward filth is great ;
 Their throat an open sepulchre, and tongue full of deceit.
 9 Destroy their false conspiracies, that they may come to nought ;
 Subvert them in their heaps of sin, who have rebellion wrought.
 10 But those that put their trust in thee, let them be glad always ;
 And render thanks for thy defence, and give thy Name the praise.
 11 For thou with favour wilt increase the just and righteous still ;
 And with thy grace, as with a shield, defend him from all ill.

P S A L. VI. T. S.

LORD, in thy wrath reprove me not, tho' I deserve thine ire ;
 Nor yet correct me in thy rage, O Lord, I thee desire.
 2 For I am weak, therefore, O Lord, of mercy me forbear, (fear.
 And heal me, Lord, for why ? thou know'st my bones do quake for 3 My soul is troubled very sore, and vex'd exceedingly :
 But Lord, how long wilt thou delay to cure my misery ?
 4 Lord, turn thee to thy wonted grace, some pity on me take :
 O save me, not for my deserts, but for thy mercies sake.
 5 For why ? no man among the dead rememb'reth thee at all :
 Or who shall worship thee, O Lord, that in the pit doth fall ?
 6 So grievous is my plaint and mone, that I grow wond'rous faint ;
 All the night long I wash my bed with tears of my complaint.
 7 My sight is dim, and waxeth old, with anguish of my heart,
 For fear of them that be my foes, and would my soul subvert.
 8 But now depart from me, all ye that work iniquity ;
 Because the Lord hath heard the voice of my complaint and cry.
 9 He heard not only the request and pray'r of my sad heart :
 But it received at my hands, and took it in good part.
 10 And now my foes that vexed me, the Lord will soon defame,
 And suddenly confound them all, with great rebuke and shame,

P S A L. VII. T. S.

O Lord my God, I put my trust and confidence in thee :
 Save me from them that me pursue, and still deliver me.
 2 Lest like a lion he me tear, and rend in pieces small,
 While there is none to succour me, and rid me out of thrall.
 3 O Lord my God, if I have done the thing that is not right :
 Or else if I be found in fault, or guilty in thy sight :
 4 Or to my friend rewarded ill, or left him in distress,
 Who me pursu'd most cruelly, and hated me causeless ;
 5 Then let my foe pursue my soul, let him my life down thrust
 Unto the earth, and also lay my honour in the dust.
 6 Stand up, O Lord, in wrath, because my foes do rage so fast ;
 Awake for me to the judgement which thou commanded hast.
 7 Then shall great nations come to thee, and know thee by this
 If thou declare for love of them, thyself as Lord and King. (thing,

P S A L M VII, VIII, IX.

3 And as thou art of all men judge, O Lord, now judge thou me
According to my righteousness, and my integrity.

The Second Part.

9 Lord, cease the hate of wicked men, and be the just man's guide :
By whom the secrets of all hearts are searched and descry'd.

10 I take my help to come of God in all my pain and smart :
Who doth preserve all those that be of pure and perfect heart.

11 The just man and the wicked both God judgeth by his pow'r ;
So that he feels his mighty hand e'en ev'ry day and hour.

12 Except he change his mind, I die : for e'en as he thinks fit,
He whets his sword, he bends his bow, aiming where he may hit.

13 And doth prepare his mortal darts, his arrows keen and sharp,
For them that do me persecute, and do on mischief harp.

14 But lo, tho' he in travail be of his dev'lish forecast ;
And of his mischief once conceiv'd, yet brings forth nought at last.

15 He digs a ditch, and makes it deep, in hope to hurt his brother ;
But he shall fall into the pit that he digg'd up for other.

16 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt of him in whom it bred :
And all the mischief that he wrought, shall fall on his own head.

17 I will give thanks to God therefore, that judgeth righteously ;
And with my song will praise the Name of him that is most high.

P S A L M VIII. T. S.

O God our Lord, how wonderful are thy works ev'ry where !
Thy fame surmounts in dignity the highest heav'ns that are.

2 E'en by the mouth of sucking babes thou wilt confound thy foes ;
For in those babes thy might is seen, thy graces they disclose.

3 And when I see the heav'ns above, the works of thine own hand ;
The sun, the moon, and all the stars, in order as they stand ;

4 Lord ! what is man, that thou of him tak'st such abundant care ?
Or what the son of man, whom thou to visit dost not spare ?

5 For thou hast made him little less than angels in degree ;
And thou hast also crown'd him with glorious dignity.

6 Thou hast preferr'd him to be Lord of all thy works, and thou
Hast in subjection unto him put all things here below.

7 As sheep, and neat, and all beast else that in the fields do feed.
Fowls of the air, fish in the sea, and all that therein breed.

8 O God our Lord, how excellent is thy most glorious Name
In all the earth ! Therefore we do praise and adore the same.

P S A L M IX. T. S.

WITH heart and mouth to thee, O Lord, will I sing laud and praise ;
And speak of all thy wond'rous works, and them declare always.

2 I will be glad, and much rejoice in thee, O God most high,
And make my songs extol thy Name above the starry sky.

3 Because my foes are driven back, and turned unto flight ;
They do fall down, and are destroy'd by thy great pow'r and might.

4 Thou hast avenged all my wrong, my grief, and all my grudge ;
Thou dost with justice hear my cause most like a righteous judge.

5. Thou

P S A L M IX, X.

5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folk, and wicked so confound;
 That afterward the memory of them cannot be found:
 6 Destructions to an end are come, and cities overthrown;
 With them likewise is perished their fame and great renown.
 7 Know thou that he who is above, for evermore shall reign,
 And in the seat of equity true judgement will maintain.
 8 With justice he will keep and guide the world and ev'ry wight;
 And so will yield with equity to every man his right.
 9 He is protector of the poor, what time they be oppress'd;
 He is in all adversity their refuge and their rest.
 10 And they that know thy holy Name, therefore shall trust in thee;
 For thou forsake'st not their suit in their necessity.

The Second Part.

11 Sing psalms therefore unto the Lord, who dwells on Sion hill:
 Among the people all declare his noble acts and will.
 12 For he is mindful of the blood of them that be oppress'd,
 Forgetting not the humble man that seeks to him for rest.
 13 Have mercy, Lord, on me, because my foes do yet remain;
 Who from the gates of death are wont to raise me up again:
 14 In Sion, that I may set forth thy praise with heart and voice;
 And that in thy salvation great, my soul may still rejoice.
 15 The heathen stick fast in the pit, which they themselves prepar'd;
 And in the net that they did hide, their own feet are ensnar'd.
 16 By judgements great the Lord is known, whilst wicked men are taught
 And fast entangled in the work which their own hands have wrought.
 17 The wicked and deceitful men go down to hell below:
 And all the people of the world, that God refuse to know.
 18 Be sure the Lord will not forget the poor man's grief and pain:
 The patient people never look for help of him in vain.
 19 O Lord, arise, lest men prevail that be of worldly might;
 And let the heathen folk receive their judgement in thy sight.
 20 Lord, strike such terror, fear, and dread, into their hearts, and there
 They will be forced to confess themselves to be but men.

P S A L M X. T. S.

WHAT is the cause that thou, O Lord, so far off now dost stand?
 Why hidest thou thy face in time when trouble is at hand?
 2 The poor doth perish by the proud, and wicked mens desire;
 Let them be taken in the craft which they themselves conspire.
 3 For in the lust of his own heart th' ungodly doth delight;
 So doth the wicked praise himself, and doth the Lord despite.
 4 He is so proud, that right and wrong he setteth all apart:
 Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he, for thus he thinks in heart.
 5 Because his ways do prosper still, he doth thy laws neglect:
 And with a blast doth puff against such as would him correct.
 6 Tush, tush, saith he, I have no dread, lest my estate should change;
 And why? for all adversity to him is very strange.
 7 His mouth is full of cursedness, of fraud, deceit, and guile;
 Under his tongue there nothing is but what is base and vile.

8 He

P S A L M. X, XI, XII.

- 8 He lieth hid in ways and holes, to slay the innocent :
 Against the poor that pass by him, his cruel eyes are bent.
 9 And like a lion privily lies lurking in his den :
 That he may snare them in his net, and spoil poor harmless men.
 10 With cunning craft and subtilty he croucheth down alway :
 So are great heape of poor men made by his strong pow'r a prey.

The Second Part.

- 11 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he, therefore I may be bold :
 His countenance is cast aside, he doth it not behold.
 12 Arise, O Lord our God, in whom the poor man's hope doth rest ;
 Lift up thy hand, do not forget the poor that be opprest.
 13 Why should the proud and wicked man blaspheme God's holy Name ?
 Whilst in his heart he crieth, Tush, God cares not for the same.
 14 But thou seest all their wickedness, and well dost understand,
 That friendless and poor fatherless are left into thy hand.
 15 Of wicked and malicious men, then break the pow'r alway :
 That they with their iniquity may perish and decay.
 16 The Lord shall reign for evermore as King and God alone ;
 And he will chase out of the land the heathen folk each one.
 17 Thou hearest, Lord, the poor's complaint, their pray'r and their request ;
 Their hearts thou wilt confirm, until thine ears to hear be prest.
 18 To judge the poor and fatherless, and help them to their right ;
 That they may be no more opprest by men of worldly might.

P S A L. XI. T. S.

- IN God the Lord I put my trust, why say ye to my soul,
 Unto the mountain swiftly fly, as doth the winged fowl ?
 2 Behold the wicked bend their bows, their arrows they prepare ;
 To shoot in secret at those who sincere and upright are.
 3 Of worldly hope all stays were shrunk, and clearly brought to nought :
 Alas ! the just and upright man, what evil hath he wrought ?
 4 But he that in his temple is most holy and most high :
 And in the highest heav'ns doth sit in royal Majesty,
 5 The poor and simple man's estate considers in his mind ;
 And searches out full narrowly the manners of mankind ;
 6 And with a chearful countenance the righteous man will use ;
 But in his heart he doth abhor all such as mischief use.
 7 And on the sinners casteth snares as thick as hail or rain :
 Brimstone and fire, and whirlwinds great appointed for their pain .
 8 Ye see then how a righteous God doth righteousness embrace ;
 And unto just and upright men shews forth his pleasant face.

P S A L. XII. T. S.

- HELP, Lord, for good and godly men do perish and decay ;
 And faith and truth from worldly men is parted clean away.
 2 Whoso doth with his neighbour talk, 'tis all but vanity ;
 For ev'ry man bethinketh how to speak deceitfully.
 3 But flatt'ring and deceitful lips, and tongues that be so stout (out.
 To speak proud words, and make great brags, the Lord soon cuts them
 4 For they say still, We will prevail, our lips shall us extol ;
 Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak, what lord shall us controul ?
 5 But

P S A L M XII, XIII, XIV, XV.

5 But for the great complaint and cry of those that are oppress'd,
I will arise, now saith the Lord, and them restore to rest.
6 God's word is like to silver pure, that from the dross is try'd,
Which hath not less than sev'n times in the fire been purify'd.
7 Now since thy promise is to help, Lord, keep thy promise then;
And save us now and evermore from this ill kind of men.
8 For now the wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold,
Whilst vanity with worldly men so highly is extoll'd.

P S A L. XIII. T. S.

HOW long wilt thou forget me, Lord? shall it for ever be?
How long dost thou intend to hide thy face away from me?
1 In heart and mind how long shall I with care tormented be?
And how long shall my deadly foe thus triumph over me?
3 Behold me now, O Lord my God, and hear me sore oppress'd;
Lighten my eyes, lest I do sleep as one by death possess'd;
4 Lest that my enemy do say, Behold I do prevail;
Lest they also that hate my soul, rejoice to see me fail.
5 But from thy mercy and goodness my hope shall not depart:
In thy relief and saving health right glad shall be my heart.
6 I will give thanks unto the Lord, and praises to him sing;
Because he hath heard my request for ev'ry needful thing.

P S A L. XIV. T. S.

THERE is no God, do foolish men affirm in their mad mood;
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain, not one of them doth good.
2 The Lord beheld from heav'n most high, the whole race of mankind:
And saw not one that sought indeed the living God to find.
3 They went all wide, and were corrupt, and truly there was none,
That in the world did any good, no not so much as one.
4 Is all their judgement so far lost, that all work mischief still?
Eating my people e'en as bread, not one to seek God's will?
5 When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall;
For God doth love the righteous men, and will preserve them all.
6 Ye mock the doings of the poor, to their reproach and shame;
Because they put their trust in God, and call upon his Name.
7 But who shall give thy people health? and when wilt thou fulfil
Thy promise made to Israel, from out of Sion hill?
8 For when thou shalt restore again such as were captive led,
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice, and Israel be glad.

P S A L. XV. T. S.

WITHIN thy tabernacle, Lord, who shall inhabit still?
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell in thy most holy hill?
2 The man whose life is uncorrupt, whose works are just and straight;
Whose heart doth think the very truth, and tongue speaks no deceit.
3 That to his neighbour doth no ill, in body, goods, or name;
Nor willingly doth slanders raise, which might impair the same.
4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:
But those that love and fear the Lord, he maketh much of them.
5 His oath and all his promises that keepeth faithfully;
Altho' he makes his cov'nant so, that he doth lose thereby.

6 That

P S A L M XV, XVI, XVII.

6 That putteth not to usury his money and his coin ;
Nor for to hurt the innocent doth bribe, or else purloin.
7 Whoſo doth theſe things faithfully, and turneth not therefrom,
Shall never periſh in this world, nor that which is to come.

P S A L. XVI. T. S.

LORD, keep me, for I truſt in thee, and do confeſs indeed,
Thou art my God, and of my goods thou haſt not any need.
2 Therefore I give them to the ſaints, that in the world do dwell :
Namely, unto the faithful flock in virtue that excel.
3 Their ſorrows ſhall be multiply'd, who run ſo haſtily,
To offer to the idol gods, that are but vanity.
4 As for their bloody ſacrifice, and off'rings of that ſort,
I will not touch, neither thereof ſhall my lips make report.
5 For why? the Lord the portion is of my inheritance ;
And he it is that doth preſerve my lot from all miſchance.
6 The place wherein my lot is fall'n, in beauty doth excel :
My heritage aſſign'd to me, doth pleaſe me wond'rous well.
7 I thank the Lord that cauſed me to underſtand the right ;
For by his means my ſecret thoughts do teach me in the night.
8 I ſet the Lord ſtill in my ſight, and truſt him over all :
For he doth ſtand on my right hand, therefore I ſhall not fall.
9 Wherefore my heart and tongue alſo rejoice exceedingly ;
My fleſh likewiſe doth reſt in hope to riſe again, for why?
10 Thou wilt not leave my ſoul in hell, becauſe thou loveſt me,
Nor yet wilt give thy holy one corruption for to ſee.

O Lord, give ear to my juſt cauſe, attend unto my cry ;
And hear the pray'r I offer up to thee unfeignedly ;
2 And let the judgement of my cauſe proceed always from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and clear truth and ſimplicity.
3 Thou haſt well try'd me in the night, and yet could'ſt nothing find,
That I have ſpoken with my tongue that was not in my mind.
4 As for the works of wicked men, and paths perverſe and ill:
For love of thy moſt holy Name, I have refrained ſtill.
5 Then in thy paths that be moſt pure, guide me, Lord, and preſerve:
That from the way wherein I walk, my ſteps may never ſwerve.
6 For I do call to thee, O Lord, ſurely thou wilt me aid:
Then hear my pray'r, and weigh right well the words that I have ſaid.
7 O thou the Saviour of all them that put their truſt in thee:
Declare thy ſtrength on them that ſpurn againſt thy Majeſty.
8 O keep me as thou wouldeſt keep the apple of thine eye:
And under covert of thy wings defend me ſecretly.

P S A L M XVII, XVIII.

- 10 Who wallow in their worldly wealth, and are so full and fat,
That in their pride they do not spare to speak they care not what.
- 11 They lie in wait where I should pass, with craft me to confound ;
And musing mischief in their minds, to cast me to the ground.
- 12 Much like a lion greedily, that would his prey embrace ;
Or lurking like a lion's whelp, within some secret place.
- 13 Up, Lord, in haste, prevent my foe, and cast him at my feet :
Save thou my soul from the ill man, and with thy sword him smite.
- 14 Deliver me, Lord, by thy pow'r, out of these tyrants hands,
Who now so long time reigned have, and kept us in their bands.
- 15 I mean from worldly men, who do in worldly goods abound :
That have no hope or joy, but what in this life can be found.
- 16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill'st, with pleasure to their mind ;
Their children have enough, and leave the rest to theirs behind.
- 17 But as for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness ;
And shall be satisfy'd when I awake with thy likeness.

P S A L XVIII. T. S.

- O God, my strength and fortitude, of force I must love thee ;
Thou art my castle and defence in my necessity.
- 2 My God, my rock, in whom I trust, the worker of my wealth ;
My refuge, buckler, and my shield, the horn of all my health.
- 3 When I sing laud unto the Lord most worthy to be serv'd ;
Then from my foes I am right sure, that I shall be preserv'd.
- 4 The pangs of death did compass me, and bound me ev'ry where ;
The flowing waves of wickedness did put me in great fear.
- 5 The sly and subtil snares of hell were round about me set ;
And for my life there was prepar'd a deadly trapping net.
- 6 I thus beset with pain and grief, did pray to God for grace ;
And he forthwith heard my complaint out of his holy place.
- 7 Such is his pow'r, that in his wrath he made the earth to quake,
Yea, the foundation of the mount of Basan for to shake.
- 8 And from his nostrils went a smoke, when kindled was his ire ;
And from his mouth went burning coals of hot consuming fire.
- 9 The Lord descended from above, and bow'd the heav'ns most high ;
And underneath his feet he cast the darkness of the sky.
- 10 On cherubs and on cherubims full royally he rode,
And on the wings of mighty winds came flying all abroad.

The Second Part.

- 11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place ;
With waters black, and airy clouds, encompassed he was.
- 12 At his bright presence did thick clouds in haste away retire ;
And in the stead thereof did come hail-stones and coals of fire.
- 13 The fiery darts, and thunder-bolts, disperse them here and there,
And with his frequent lightnings he doth put them in great fear.
- 14 When thou, O Lord, with great rebuke thy anger dost declare,
The springs and the foundations of the world discover'd are.
- 15 And from above the Lord sent down to fetch me from below :
And pluckt me out of waters great, that would me overflow ;

16 And

P S A L M XVIII.

16 And me deliver'd from my foes, that sought me to enthrall;
Yea, from such foes as were too strong for me to deal withal.

17 They did prevent me evermore in time of my great grief:
But yet the Lord is my defence, my succour, and relief.

18 He brought me forth in open place, that so I might be free;
And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.

19 According to my innocence, so did he me regard;
And to the cleanness of my hands he gave me my reward;

20 For that I walked in his ways, and in his paths have trod;
And not departed wickedly from him that is my God.

The Third Part.

21 But evermore I have respect to his law and decree:
His statutes and commandments I cast not away from me.

22 But pure, and clean, and uncorrupt, appear'd before his face;
And did refrain from wickedness and sin, in ev'ry case.

23 The Lord will therefore me reward, as I have done aright;
And to the cleanness of my hands appearing in his sight.

24 For, Lord, with him that holy is, wilt thou be holy too;
And with the good and virtuous man thou wilt uprightly do.

25 And for the loving and elect thy favour wilt reserve;
And thou wilt use the wicked men as wicked men deserve.

26 For thou dost save the simple folk in trouble when they lie;
And dost bring down the countenance of them that look full high.

27 The Lord will light my candle so, that it shall shine full bright;
The Lord my God will make also my darkness to be light.

28 For by thy help an host of men discomfit, Lord, I shall;
By thee I scale and over-leap the strength of any wall.

29 Unspotted are the ways of God, his word is purely try'd;
He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.

30 For who is God, except the Lord? for other there is none;
Or else who is omnipotent, saving our God alone?

The Fourth Part.

31 The God that girdeth me with strength, is he that I do mean;
That all the ways wherein I walk, did evermore keep clean.

32 That made my feet like to the hart's, in swiftness of my peace,
And for my safety brought me forth into an open place.

33 He did in order put my hands in battle for to fight;
To break in sunder bars of brass, he gave my arms the might.

34 Thou teacheest me thy saving health, thy right hand is my tow'r;
Thy love and gentleness also doth still increase my pow'r.

35 And under me thou makest plain the way where I should go;
So that my feet shall never slip, nor wander to and fro.

36 And fiercely I pursue and take my foes that me annoy'd,
And from the field do not return till they be all destroy'd.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes, that they can rise no more;
For underneath my feet they fall, I wound them all so sore.

38 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle, and
Thou wilt throw down my enemies that do against me stand.

39 Lord, thou hast given me the necks of all my enemies;
That so I might destroy all those that up against me rise.

P S A L M XVIII, XIX.

40 They call'd for help, but none gave ear, nor came to their relief;
Yea, to the Lord they call'd for aid, yet heard he not their grief.

The Fifth Part.

41 And still like dust before the wind, I drive them under feet;
And sweep them out like filthy dirt that lieth in the street.
42 Thou keep'st me from seditious folk, that still in strife are led;
And thou dost of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.
43 A people strange, to me unknown, and yet they shall me serve;
And at the first obey my word, whereas mine own will swerve.
44 I shall be irksome to my own, they will not see my light;
But wander wide out of the way, and hide them out of sight.
45 But blessed be the living Lord, most worthy of all praise;
He is my rock and saving health, praised be he always.
46 For it is he that gave me pow'r, revenged for to be;
And with his holy word subdu'd the people unto me;
47 And from my foe deliver'd me, and set me over those,
That cruel and ungodly were, and up against me rose.
48 And for this cause, O Lord my God, to give thee thanks I shall;
And sing out praises to thy Name among the Gentiles all.
49 Deliv'rance great thou giv'st the king, and dost reserve in store
Mercy for thy anointed, and his seed for evermore.

P S A L. XIX. T. S.

THE heav'ns and firmament on high do wond'rously declare
God's glory and omnipotence, his works, and what they are.
1 The wond'rous works of God appear by ev'ry days success:
The nights likewise, which their race run, the self-same thing express.
2 There is no language, tongue, nor speech where their sound is not heard;
In all the earth and coasts thereof their knowledge is conferr'd.
3 In them the Lord made for the sun a place of great renown;
Who like a bridegroom ready trimm'd comes from his chamber down.
4 And as a valiant champion, who would to honour rise,
With joy doth haste to take in hand some noble enterprise.
5 And all the sky from end to end he compasseth about;
Nothing can hide it from his heat, but he will find it out.
6 How perfect is the law of God! his covenant is sure;
Converting souls, and making wise the simple and obscure.
7 The Lord's commands are righteous, and rejoice the heart likewise;
His precepts are most pure, and do give light unto the eyes.
8 The fear of God is excellent, and ever doth endure;
The judgements of the Lord also most righteous are and pure.
9 And more to be desir'd are than much fine gold alway;
The honey and the honey-comb are not so sweet as they.
10 By them thy servant is forewarn'd to have God in regard;
And in performance of the same there shall be great reward.
11 But, Lord! what earthly man doth know the errors of his life?
Then cleanse me from my secret sins, which are in me most rife.
12 And keep me, that presumptuous sins prevail not over me;
And so shall I be innocent, and great offences flee.

And so receive most graciously thy offerings each one.

Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.

And with thy chearful countenance wilt comfort him alway.

Therefore his goodness and his grace to save him will not fail.
8 Thy enemies shall feel thy force, and those that thee withstand;
Find out thy foes, and let them feel the pow'r of thy right hand.
9 And like an oven burn them, Lord, in fiery flame and fume:
Thy anger shall destroy them all, and fire shall them consume.
10 And thou shalt root out of the earth their fruit that should increase;
And from the number of thy folk their seed shall end and cease.
11 For they much mischief did contrive against thy holy Name;
Yet did they fail, and had no pow'r for to perform the same.
12 But as a mark thou shalt them set in a most open place;
And charge thy bow-strings readily against their very face.

So shall we sing right solemnly, praising thy might and pow'r.

 And for the faith they had in thee, they were not put to shame:

 An out-cast, whom the people scorn with all the spite they can.
 6 All men despise as they behold me walking on the way;
 They grin, make mouths, and nod their heads, and on this wise do say,
 7 This man did glory in the Lord, his favour, and his love;
 Let him redeem and help him now, his pow'r if he will prove.
 8 But from the prison of the womb I was by thee releas'd:
 Thou didst preserve me still in hope, whilst I did suck the breast.

 Whilst they do look and stare at me when they do me behold.
 17 My garments they divided have in parts among them all;
 And for my coat they did cast lots, to whom it should befall.
 18 Therefore, I pray thee, be not far from me at my great need;
 But rather, since thou art my strength, to help me, Lord, make speed.

2 Prove me, my God, I thee desire, my ways to search and try;
As men do prove their gold with fire, my heart and reins espy.
3 Thy loving kindness in my sight I do behold always;
I ever walked in thy truth, and will do all my days.
4 I do not love to haunt or use with men whose deeds are vain;
To come in house I do refuse with the deceitful train.
5 I much abhor the wicked sort, their deeds I do despise:
I do not once to them resort, that hurtful things devise.
6 My hands I wash, and do proceed in works to walk upright;
Then to thy altar I make speed, to offer there in fight.
7 That I may speak and preach the praise that doth belong to thee,
And so declare how wond'rous ways thou hast been good to me.
8 O God, thy house I love most dear, to me it doth excel:
My chief delight is to be near the place where thou dost dwell.
9 O shut not up my soul with them in sin that take their fill;
Nor yet my life among those men, that seek much blood to spill:
10 For in their hands much mischief is, their lives therewith abound;
And nothing else in their right hand but bribes are to be found.
11 But I resolve in righteousness my time and days to spend:
Therefore that I may not transgress, let thy grace me defend.
12 My foot is stay'd for all assays, it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I give praise in all the peoples sight.

P S A L. XXVII. J. H.

THE Lord is both my health and light; shall man make me dismay'd?
Since God doth give me strength and might, why should I be (afraid?)
2 While that my foes, with all their strength, began with me to brawl,
Thinking to eat me up, at length themselves have caught the fall.
3 Tho' they in camp against me lie, my heart is not afraid;
And if in battle they will try, I trust in God for aid.
4 One thing of God I do require, that he will not deny:
For which I pray, and will desire, till he to me apply;
5 That I within his holy place my life throughout may dwell;
To see the beauty of his face, and view his temple well.
6 In time of dread he shall me hide within his place most pure;
And keep me secret by his side, as on a rock most sure.
7 At length I know the Lord's good grace shall make me strong and
My foes to foil and clean deface, that compass me about, (stout;
3 There-

P S A L M XXVII, XXVIII, XXIX.

3 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise ;
With psalms and songs I will apply to laud the Lord always.

The Second Part.

- 9 Lord, hear the voice of my request, for which to thee I cry ;
Have mercy, Lord, on me oppress'd, and help me speedily.
10 My heart confesseth unto thee, I sue to have thy grace ;
Then seek my face, saidst thou to me ; Lord, I will seek thy face.
11 In wrath turn not thy face away, nor suffer me to slide :
My help thou hast been to this day, be still my God and guide.
12 When both my parents me forsake, and cast me off at large ;
E'en then the Lord himself doth take of me the care and charge.
13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee, and lead me on forth right ;
For fear of such as watch for me, to trap me if they might.
14 O leave me not unto the will of them that be my foes ;
For they furmise against me still false witness to depose.
15 I utterly should faint, but that this hope supporteth me,
That in the land wherein I live, God's goodness I shall see.
16 Trust still in God, whose whole thou art, his will abide thou must ;
He will support and ease thy heart, if thou in him do trust.

P S A L. XXVIII. T. S.

THOU art, O Lord, my strength and stay, the succour which I crave ;
Neglect me not, lest I be like them that are laid in grave.

- 2 My voice and supplications hear when unto thee I cry,
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy ark most high.
3 Repute me not among those men in sin that take their fill ;
That speak right fair unto their friends, but think in heart full ill.
4 According to those wicked deeds, which they did most regard :
And after their inventions, Lord, let them receive reward.
5 Because they never mind the works of God, he will therefore,
Instead of building of them up, destroy them evermore.
6 To render thanks unto the Lord, how great a cause have I,
My voice, my pray'r, and my complaint, that heard so willingly ?
7 He is my shield and fortitude, my buckler in distress :
My heart rejoiced greatly, and my song shall him confess.
8 He is our strength and our defence, our foes for to resist ;
The health and the salvation of his own elect by Christ.
9 Thy people and thy heritage, Lord, bless, guide, and preserve ;
Increase them, Lord, and rule their hearts, that they may never swerve.

P S A L. XXIX. T. S.

GIVE to the Lord, ye potentates, give ye with one accord,
All praise and honour, might and strength unto the living Lord,

- 2 Give glory to his holy Name, and honour him alone :
Give worship to his Majesty within his holy throne.
3 His voice doth rule his waters all, as he himself doth please :
He doth prepare the thunder-claps, and governs all the seas.
4 The voice of God is of great force, and wond'rous excellent :
It is most mighty in effect, and most magnificent,

P S A L M XXX, XXXI.

- 5 The voice of God doth rend and break the cedar trees so long;
 The cedar trees of Lebanon, which are both high and strong.
 6 And make them leap like as a calf, or as the unicorn:
 Not only trees, but mountains great, whereon the trees are born.
 7 His voice divides the flames of fire, and shakes the wilderness:
 It makes the desert quake for fear, that Cades called is.
 8 It makes the hinds for fear to calve, and coverts plain appear:
 And in his temple ev'ry man speaks of his glory there.
 9 The Lord doth sit upon the floods their fury to restrain:
 And he likewise as Lord and King, for evermore shall reign.
 10 The Lord will give his people strength, whereby they shall increase:
 And he will bless his chosen flock with everlasting peace.

P S A L. XXX. J. H.

- ALL laud and praise with heart and voice, O Lord, I give to thee,
 Who didst not make my foes rejoice, but hast exalted me.
 2 O Lord my God, to thee I cry'd in all my pain and grief:
 Thou gav'st an ear, and didst provide, to ease me with relief.
 3 Thou, Lord, hast brought my soul from hell, and thou the same didst
 From them that in the pit do dwell, and kept'st me from the ^{(save} grave.
 4 Sing praise, ye saints, that prove and see the goodness of the Lord:
 In honour of his Majesty rejoice with one accord.
 5 For why? his anger but a space doth last, ceasing again:
 But in his favour and his grace always doth life remain.
 6 Tho' heaviness and pangs full sore abide with us all night,
 The Lord to joy shall us restore before the day be light.
 7 When I enjoy'd the world at will, thus would I boast and say,
 Tush, I am sure to feel no ill, my wealth shall not decay.
 8 For thou, O Lord, of thy good grace didst send me strength and aid:
 But when thou turn'dst away thy face, my mind was sore dismay'd,
 9 Wherefore again then did I cry to thee, O Lord of might;
 And my complaints did multiply, praying both day and night?
 10 What gain is in my blood, said I, if death destroy my days?
 Can dust declare thy Majesty, or give thy truth its praise?
 11 Wherefore, my God, some pity take, O Lord, I thee desire;
 Do not, O Lord, my soul forsake, of thee help I require.
 12 Then didst thou turn my grief and wo into a cheerful voice;
 My sackcloth didst take off also, and mad'st me to rejoice.
 13 Wherefore my soul incessantly shall sing unto thy praise:
 My Lord, my God, to thee will I give laud and thanks always,

P S A L. XXXI. J. H.

- O Lord, I put my trust in thee, let nothing work me shame:
 As thou art just, deliver me, and set me free from blame.
 2 Hear me, O Lord, and that anon, to help me make good speed:
 Be thou my rock and house of stone, my fence in time of need.
 3 For why? as stones thy strength is try'd, thou art my fort and tow'r:
 For thy Name's sake be thou my guide, and lead me in thy pow'r.
 4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare, which they for me have laid:
 Thou art my strength, and all my care is for thy mighty aid.

P S A L M XXXI, XXXII.

5 Into thy hands, Lord, I commit my soul, which is thy due;
 Because thou hast redeemed it, O Lord my God most true.
 6 I hate such folk as will not part from things to-be abhorr'd;
 When they on trifles set their heart, my trust is in the Lord.
 7 For I will in thy mercy joy, I see it doth excel: (well.
 Thou seest when ought would me annoy, and know'st my soul full
 8 Thou hast not left me in their hand, that would me overcharge;
 But thou hast set me out of band, to walk abroad at large.

The Second Part.

9 Great grief, O Lord, doth me assail, some pity on me take;
 My eyes wax dim, my sight doth fail, my heart with fear doth ake.
 10 My life is worn with grief and pain, my years in woe are past;
 My strength is gone, and through disdain my bones corrupt and waste.
 11 Among my foes I am a scorn, my friends are all dismay'd;
 My neighbours and my kinsmen born, to see me are afraid.
 12 As men once dead are out of mind, so am I now forgot:
 As little use of me they find, as of a broken pot.
 13 I heard the brags of all the rout, their threats my mind did fray;
 How they conspir'd and went about to take my life away.
 14 But, Lord, I trust in thee for aid, not to be over-trod;
 For I confesse and still have said, thou art the Lord my God.
 15 The length of all my life and age, O Lord, is in thy hand;
 Defend me from the wrath and rage of them that me withstand.
 16 To me thy servant, Lord, express, and shew thy joyful face;
 And save me, Lord, for thy goodness, thy mercy, and thy grace.

The Third Part.

17 Lord, let me not be put to shame, because on thee I call;
 But let the wicked bear the blame, and into the grave fall.
 18 O Lord, make dumb their lips outright, who given are to lies;
 And cruelly with pride and spite against the just devise.
 19 How plentiful thy mercies be laid up for thy children,
 That fear and put their trust in thee before the sons of men! (wrongs;
 20 Thy presence shall them fence and guide from all proud brags and Within thy place thou shalt them hide from all the strife of tongues.
 21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd on me his grace so far,
 Me to defend with watch and ward, as in a town of war.
 22 Thus did I say both day and night, when I was sore oppress'd,
 Lo, I am clean cast out of sight, yet heard'st thou my request.
 23 Ye saints, love ye the Lord alway, the faithful he doth guide:
 And to the proud he doth repay, according to their pride.
 24 Be of good courage, all ye just, on God your strength depend:
 For those in him that put their trust, he ever will defend.

P S A L. XXXII. T. S.

THE man is blest, whose wickedness the Lord forgiven hath;
 And he whose sin is likewise hid, and cover'd from his wrath.
 2 And blest is he to whom the Lord imputeth not his sin;
 Who in his heart hath hid no guile, nor fraud is found therein.
 3 For whilst that I kept close my sin in silence and constraint,
 My bones did wear and waste away with daily mone and plaint.

P S A L M XXXII, XXXIII.

- 4 Both night and day thy hand on me so grievous was and smart,
My moisture, like the summer's heat, to dryness did convert.
5 I did therefore confess my faults, and all my sins reveal:
Then thou, Lord, didst me forgive, and all my sins conceal:
6 The humble man shall pray therefore, and seek thee in due time;
So that the floods of waters great shall have no pow'r on him.
7 When trouble and adversity do compass me about,
Thou art my refuge and my joy, and thou dost rid me out.
8 Come hither, and I will thee teach how thou shalt walk aright;
I thee will guide, as I myself have learn'd by proof and sight.
9 Be not so rude and ignorant as is the horse and mule;
Whose mouth without a rein or bit, from harm thou canst not rule.
10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and grief sustain:
But unto him that trusts in God, his goodness shall remain.
11 Be merry therefore in the Lord, ye just, lift up your voice;
And ye of pure and perfect heart, with chearfulness rejoice.

P S A L. XXXIII. J. H.

- VE righteous in the Lord rejoice, it is a seemly sight, (might.
That upright men with thankful voice should praise the Lord of 2 Praise ye the Lord with harp, and sing to him with psaltery;
With ten-string'd instrument sounding, praise ye the Lord most high,
3 Sing to the Lord a song most new, with courage give him praise:
For why? his word is ever true, his works, and all his ways.
4 Both judgement, equity and right, he ever lov'd and will;
And with his gifts he doth delight the earth throughout to fill.
5 For by the word of God alone the heav'ns above were wrought;
Their hosts and pow'rs every one, his breath to pass hath brought.
6 The waters great gather'd hath he on heaps within the shore,
And hid them in the depth to be, as in a house of store.
7 Let all the earth then fear the Lord, and keep his righteous law;
And all the world with one accord, dread him and stand in awe.
8 What he commanded, wrought it was at once with utmost speed:
What he doth will, is brought to pass with full effect indeed.
9 The counsels of the nations rude the Lord doth bring to nought;
He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.
10 But his decrees continue still, they never slack nor swage:
The motions of his mind and will take place in ev'ry age.

The Second Part.

- 11 Blessed are they to whom the Lord as God and guide is known:
Whom he doth chuse of meer accord, to take them as his own.
12 The Lord from heav'n did cast his sight on men mortal by birth,
Beholding from his seat of might the dwellers on the earth.
13 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought man's heart, and doth
(it frame;
'Tis he alone doth know the thought and working of the same.
14 A king that trusteth in his host, shall nought prevail at length:
The man that of his might doth boast, shall fall for all his strength.
15 The troops of horsemen all shall fail, their sturdy steeds shall
The strength of horse shall not prevail the rider to preserve. (swerve;
16 But

P S A L M XXXIII, XXXIV.

16 But lo, the eyes of God attend and watch to aid the just,
 With such as fear him to offend, and on his goodness trust.
 17 That he of death and great distress may set their souls from dread;
 And if that dearth their land oppress, in hunger them to feed.
 18 Wherefore our soul doth whole depend on God our strength and
 He is our shield us to defend, and drive all darts away. (stay;
 19 Our joyful souls always proclaim his power and his might:
 For why? in his most holy Name we hope and much delight.
 20 Therefore let thy goodness, O Lord, still present with us be:
 As we always with one accord do only trust in thee.

P S A L XXXIV. T. S.

I Will give laud and honour both unto the Lord always:
 My mouth also for evermore shall speak unto his praise.
 2 I do delight to laud the Lord in soul, in heart, and voice;
 That humble men may hear thereof, and heartily rejoice.
 3 Therefore see that ye magnify with me the living Lord:
 Let us exalt his holy Name always with one accord.
 4 For I myself besought the Lord, he answer'd me again,
 And me deliver'd speedily from all my fear and pain.
 5 Whoso they be that him behold, shall see his light most clear:
 Their countenance shall not be dash'd, they never need to fear.
 6 The poor distressed man for help unto the Lord doth call;
 Who doth him hear without delay, and rid him out of thrall.
 7 The angel of the Lord doth pitch his tents in ev'ry place,
 To save all such as do him fear, that nothing them deface.
 8 Taste and consider well therefore, that God is good and just:
 O happy man, that maketh him his only stay and trust.
 9 O fear the Lord, all ye his saints, who is a mighty King;
 For they that fear the living Lord, are sure to lack nothing.
 10 The lions shall be hunger-bit, and pin'd with famine much;
 But as for them that fear the Lord, no lack shall be to such.

The Second Part.

11 Come near to me, my children, and unto my words give ear:
 I will you teach the perfect way, how ye the Lord shall fear.
 12 Who is the man that would live long, and lead a happy life?
 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips from all deceit and strife.
 13 Turn back thy face from doing ill, and do the godly deed:
 Enquire for peace and quietness, and follow it with speed.
 14 For why? the eyes of God above upon the just are bent;
 His ears likewise to hear the cry of the poor innocent.
 15 But he doth frown, and bend his brows, upon the wicked train;
 And cuts away the memory that should of them remain.
 16 But when the just do call and cry, the Lord doth hear them so,
 That out of pain and misery forthwith he lets them go.
 17 The Lord is ever nigh to them that broken-hearted are;
 And for the contrite spirit he salvation doth prepare.
 18 Full many be the miseries that righteous men endure:
 But of deliv'rance from them all the Lord doth them secure.

PSALM XXXIV, XXXV.

19 The Lord doth so preserve and keep their very bones away,
That not so much as one of them doth perish or decay. (wrought:
20 The sin shall slay the wicked man, which he himself hath
And such as hate the righteous man, shall soon be brought to nought.
21 But they that fear the living Lord, are ever safe and sound:
And as for those that trust in him, nothing shall them confound.

PSAL. XXXV. J. H.

LORD, plead my cause against my foes, confound their force and (might:
And take my part against all those that seek with me to fight.
1 Lay hold upon the spear and shield, thyself in armour dress;
Stand up with me to fight the field, and help me from distress.
2 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way, my enemies withstand;
That thou unto my soul may'st say, I am thy help at hand.
3 Confound them with rebuke and blame, that seek my soul to spill;
Let them turn back and flee with shame, that think to work me ill.
4 Let them disperse and flee abroad, as wind doth drive the dust;
That so the angel of our God their might away may thrust.
5 Let all their ways be void of light, and slipp'ry like to fall;
And send thy angel with thy might, to persecute them all.
6 For why? without my fault have they in secret set their gin,
And digg'd a pit in my path-way, to take my soul therein.
7 When they think least, and have no care, O Lord, destroy them all;
Let them be caught in their own snare, and in their mischief fall.
8 But let my soul, my heart and voice, in God have joy and wealth,
That in the Lord I may rejoice, and in his saving health.
9 Then all my bones shall speak and say (my parts shall all agree)
O thou great God of heav'n and earth, what man is like to thee?

The Second Part.

(strong;
11 Thou dost defend the weak from them, that are both stout and
And rid the poor from wicked men, that spoil and do them wrong.
12 My cruel foes against me rise, to witness things untrue;
And to accuse me they devise, of things I never knew.
13 Where I to them did shew good will, they quit me with disdain:
That they should pay my good within, my soul doth sore complain.
14 When they were sick I mourn'd therefore, myself in sackcloth clad;
With fasting I did faint full sore, and pray'd with heart most sad.
15 As they had been my brethren dear, I did myself behave;
As one that mourneth heavily about his mother's grave.
16 But they in my adversity did gather in a rout:
Yea, abject slaves reproachfully at him did mock and flout.
17 The belly-gods and flatt'ring train, that all good things deride,
At me did grin with great disdain, turning their mouths aside.
18 Lord, when wilt thou for me appear? why dost thou stay and pause?
O rid my soul, my darling dear, out of these lions claws.
19 And then will I give thanks to thee before the church always;
And where most of the people be, there will I shew thy praise.
20 Let not my foes prevail on me, which hate me for no fault;
Neither let them wink with their eyes, that causeless me assault.

P S A L M XXXV, XXXVI, XXXVII.

The Third Part.

- 21 Of peace no word they think or say, their talk is all untrue ;
They still consult how to betray all those that peace pursue.
- 22 With open mouth they run at me, their fury is like fire :
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see the thing that we desire.
- 23 But, Lord, thou see'st, what ways they take, and what they do
Be not far off, nor me forsake, but speedy help me send. (intend :
- 24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad, defend me in my right :
Revenge my cause, O Lord my God, and aid me with thy might.
- 25 According to thy righteousness, O Lord God, set me free ;
And let them not their pride express, nor triumph over me.
- 26 Let not their hearts rejoice, nor cry, E'en so we would it have :
Nor give them cause to say on high, He's sunk into the grave.
- 27 Confound them all that do rejoice, when they my trouble see :
Let them be clothed with rebuke, that boast with scorn at me.
- 28 But let them heartily rejoice, who love my upright way :
Let them all times with heart and voice still praise the Lord, and say,
- 29 Great is the Lord, and doth excel, and he doth much delight
To see his servants prosper well, it is his pleasant sight.
- 30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply thy righteousness to praise :
To thee the Lord, my God, will I give laud and thanks always.

P S A L. XXXVI. J. H.

- THE wicked by his works unjust doth thus persuade my heart,
That in the Lord he hath no trust, his fear is set apart.
- 1 Yet doth he joy in his estate to walk as he began,
So long 'till he deserves the hate of God as well as man.
 - 2 His words are wicked, vile, and nought, his tongue no truth doth
Yet at no hand will he be taught, which way he may do well. (tell :
 - 3 When he should sleep, then doth he muse his mischiefs to fulfil :
No wicked way he doth refuse, nor any thing that's ill.
 - 4 But, Lord, thy goodness doth ascend above the heav'ns most high,
So doth thy truth itself extend unto the cloudy sky.
 - 5 Much more than hills both high and steep, thy justice is express :
Thy judgements like to seas most deep, thou sav'st both man and beast.
 - 6 Thy mercy is above all things, O God, it doth excel :
In trust whereof, as in thy wings, the sons of men shall dwell.
 - 7 Within thy house they shall be fed with plenty at their will ;
Of all delights they shall be sped, and take thereof their fill.
 - 8 Because the well of life most pure doth ever flow from thee ;
And in thy light we are full sure eternal light to see.
 - 9 From such as thee desire to know, let not thy grace depart ;
Thy righteousness declare and show to men of upright heart.
 - 10 Let not the proud on me prevail, O Lord, of thy good grace ;
Nor let the wicked me assail, to throw me out of place.
 - 11 But they in their device shall fall, that wicked works maintain ;
They shall be certainly cast down, and never rise again.

P S A L. XXXVII. W. W.

- GRUDGE not to see the wicked men in wealth to flourish still ;
Nor envy such as ill to do have bent and set their will.

P S A L M XXXVII. 1 A 2 1

So ſhall their great poſterity ſoon paſs and fade away.
- 3 Truſt thou therefore in God alone, to do well give thy mind;
So ſhalt thou have the land as thine, and there ſure food ſhalt find.
- 4 In God ſet all thy hearts delight, and look what thou woult'ſt have,
Or elſe canſt wiſh in all the world, thou need'ſt it not to crave.

And then thou ſhalt with patience ſee th' effect both ſure and juſt.

So that the ſun, e'en at noon-day, ſhall not ſhine half ſo bright.

Not ſhrinking for the proſp'rous ſtate of lewd and wicked men.
- 8 Shake off deſpite, envy, and hate; let not thy anger riſe;
That thou may'ſt not be drawn into ſome ſinful enterpriſe.

But ſuch as truſt in him, are ſure the land for to enjoy.
- 10 Wait but a while, and thou ſhalt ſee no more the wicked train;
No, not ſo much as houſe or place where once he did remain.

The Second Part.

- 11 But merciful and humble men enjoy ſhall ſea and land;
In reſt and peace they ſhall rejoice, for nought ſhall them withſtand.
- 12 The lewd men and malicious do againſt the juſt conſpire;
They gnaſh their teeth at him, as men who do his bane deſire.
- 13 But while ungodly men thus think, the Lord laughs them to ſcorn;
For he doth ſee the time approach, when they ſhall ſigh and mourn.
- 14 The wicked have their ſword out drawn, their bow is alſo bent,
To overthrow and kill the poor, whoſe life is innocent.

Than all the lewd and wicked man's rich pomp and heaped ſtore.

Where contrary he doth preſerve the humble men and low.
- 18 He ſees by his great providence the godly's upright way;
And will give them inheritance, which never ſhall decay.
- 19 Discouraged they ſhall not be, when ſome are hard beſtead;
When others ſhall be hunger-bit, they ſhall be clad and fed;
- 20 For whoſoever wicked is, and enemy to God,
Shall like the fat of lambs conſume, or ſmoke that flies abroad.

The Third Part.

- 21 Behold, the wicked borrows much, and payeſt not again;
Whereas the juſt by lib'ral gifts the needy doth ſuſtain.
- 22 For they whom God doth bleſs, ſhall have the land for heritage;
And they whom he doth curſe, likewise ſhall periſh in his rage.

P S A L M XXXVII, XXXVIII.

- 25 I have been young, and now am old, but never yet saw I
The just man left, neither his seed reduc'd to beggary.
26 He gives always most lib'rally, and lends where there is need ;
By which he doth from God secure a blessing to his seed.
27 Therefore flee vice and wickedness, and virtue do embrace ;
So God shall grant thee long to have on earth a dwelling-place.
28 For God so loveth equity, and shews to his such grace,
That he preserveth them, but doth cut off the wicked race.
29 Whereas the good and godly men inherit shall the land ;
Having as lords all things therein, in their own pow'r and hand.
30 The just man's mouth doth ever speak of matters wise and high ;
His tongue doth talk of judgement and of truth and equity.
31 For in his heart the law of God, doth evermore abide ;
So that where-ever he doth go, his foot shall never slide.
32 The wicked like a greedy wolf the just man doth beset,
By all means seeking him to kill, and take him in his net.

The Fourth Part.

- 33 But tho' he fall into his hands, God will him succour send ;
Tho' men against him sentence give, yet God will him defend.
34 Wait thou on God, and keep his way, he shall preserve thee then
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroy'd these wicked men.
35 The wicked have I seen most strong, and plac'd in high degree ;
Spreading himself and flourishing, as doth the laurel tree.
36 But suddenly he pass'd away, and lo he was quite gone ;
Then I him sought, but could not find the place where dwelt such one.
37 Mark and behold the upright man, how God doth him increase ;
For the just man shall have at length great joy, with rest and peace.
38 As for transgressors, woe to them, destroy'd they all shall be ;
God will cut off their budding race, and rich posterity.
39 But the salvation of the just doth come from God above,
Who in their trouble sends them aid of his meer grace and love.
40 God evermore delivers them from lewd men and unjust ;
And still will save them, whilst that they in him do put their trust.

P S A L. XXXVIII. J. H.

- PUT me not to rebuke, O Lord, in thy provoked ire ;
And in thy wrath correct me not, I humbly thee desire.
2 Thy arrows do stick fast in me, thy hand doth press me sore ;
And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more.
3 And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in ;
Nor any rest is in my bones by reason of my sin.
4 For lo, my wicked doings, Lord, above my head are gone ;
A greater load than I can bear, they lie me sore upon.
5 My wounds do stink and are corrupt, and lothsome are to see ;
Which all through mine own foolishness doth happen unto me.
6 And I in careful wise am brought into such great distress ;
That I go wailing all the day in doleful heaviness.
7 My loins are fill'd with sore disease, my flesh hath no whole part ;
I feeble am, and broken sore, and rore for grief of heart.
8 Thou know'st, Lord, my desire, my groans are open in thy sight ;
My heart doth pant, my strength doth fail, my eyes have lost their light.
9 My

P S A L M XXXVIII, XXXIX.

9 My lovers and my wonted friends stand looking on my woe;
My kinsmen they do far away from me depart also.
10 They that do seek my life lay snares, and they that go the way
To do me hurt, speak lies, and think on mischief all the day.

The Second Part.

11 But as a deaf man I became, that cannot hear at all;
And as one dumb, that opens not his mouth to speak withal.
12 For all my confidence, O Lord, I wholly place in thee;
Therefore, O Lord, who art my God, do thou give ear to me.
13 This do I crave, that they my foes triumph not over me;
For when my foot doth slip, then they rejoice my fall to see.
14 And I am ready for to halt, I cannot stand upright;
Also my grievous heaviness is ever in my sight.
15 For while that I my wickedness in humble wise confess,
And while I for my sinful deeds my sorrows do express;
16 My foes do still remain alive, and mighty are I know;
And they that hate me wrongfully in numbers largely grow.
17 They stand against me that my good with evil do repay;
Because that good and honest things I do pursue alway.
18 Forake me not, O Lord my God, be thou not far away:
Make haste to help me, O my God, my safety and my stay.

P S A L. XXXIX. J. H.

I Said, I will look to my ways, for fear I should go wrong;
I will take heed all times, that I offend not with my tongue.
2 As with a bit I will keep fast my mouth with force and might,
Not once to whisper all the while the wicked are in fight.
3 I held my tongue, and spake no word, but kept me close and still;
Yea, from good talk I did refrain, but fore against my will (doubt,
4 My heart grew hot within my breast with musing thought, and
Which did increase and stir the fire; at last these words burst out;
5 Lord, number out my life and days, which yet I have not past,
So that I may be certify'd how long my life shall last.
6 For thou hast pointed out my life in length much like a span;
My age is nothing unto thee, so vain is ev'ry man.
7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth in vain himself annoy
In getting goods, and cannot tell who shall the same enjoy.
8 Therefore, O Lord, what wait I for? what help do I desire?
Truly my hope is e'en in thee, I nothing else require.

The Second Part.

9 From all the sins that I have done, Lord, quit me out of hand;
And make me not a scorn to fools, that nothing understand.
10 I was so dumb, that to complain no trouble could me move;
Because I knew it was thy work, my patience for to prove.
11 Lord, take from me thy scourge and plague, I cannot them with-
I faint and pine away for fear of thy most heavy hand. (stand;
12 When thou for sin dost man rebuke, he waxeth pale and wan;
As doth a cloth that moths have fret, so vain a thing is man.
13 Lord, hear my suit, and give good heed, regard my tears that fall;
I sojourn like a stranger here, as did my fathers all.

PSALM XL.

14 O spare a little, give me space my strength for to restore;
Before I go away from hence, and shall be seen no more.

PSAL. XL. J. H.

I Waited long, and sought the Lord, and patiently did bear;
At length to me he did accord, my voice and cry to hear.
2 He brought me from the dreadful pit, out of the mire and clay;
Upon a rock he set my feet, and he did guide my way.
3 To me he taught a psalm of praise, which I must shew abroad;
And sing new songs of thanks always unto the Lord our God.
4 When all the folk these things shall see, as people much afraid,
Then they unto the Lord will flee, and trust upon his aid.
5 Blessed is he whose hope and heart doth in the Lord remain;
That with the proud doth take no part, nor such as lies maintain.
6 For, Lord, my God, thy wond'rous deeds in greatness far do pass;
Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.
7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to show,
To such a reck'ning they do rise, thereof no end I know.
8 Burnt-off'rings thou delight'st not in, I know thy whole desire;
With sacrifice to purge his sin, thou dost no man require.
9 Meat-offerings and sacrifice thou would'st not have at all;
But thou, O Lord, hast open made my ears to hear withal.
10 But then said I, Behold and look, I come with heart most free;
For in the volume of the book thus it is said of me;
11 That I, O God, should do thy mind, which thing doth please me
For in my heart thy law I find fast placed there to dwell. (well;
12 Thy righteousness and justice I in great assemblies tell;
Behold my tongue no time doth cease, O Lord, thou knowest well.

The Second Part.

13 I have not hid within my breast thy goodness as by stealth;
But I declare, and have exprest thy truth and saving health.
14 I kept not close thy loving mind, that no man should it know;
The trust that in thy truth I find, to all the church I show.
15 Thy tender mercy, Lord, from me withdraw thou not away;
But let thy love and verity preserve me night and day.
16 For I with many troubles am encompassed about;
My sins so greatly do increase, I cannot spy them out.
17 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head;
My heart doth faint for very fear, that I am almost dead.
18 With speed send help, and set me free, O Lord, I thee require;
Make haste with aid to succour me, O Lord at my desire.
19 Confound them with rebuke and shame that seek my soul to spill;
Drive back my foes, and them defame that wish me any ill.
20 For their ill feats do them decry, that would deface my name;
Always at me they rail and cry, Fie on him, fie for shame.
21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth, that seek to thee always;
That those that love thy saving health may say, To God be praise.
22 But as for me, I am but poor, oppress'd, and brought full low;
Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health full well I know.
23 For why? thou art my hope and trust, my refuge, help, and stay;
Wherefore, my God, as thou art just, with me no time delay.

PSALM XLI, XLII.

PSAL. XLII. T. S.

THE man is blest that doth provide for such as needy be;
 For in the season perilous the Lord will set him free.
 2 And he will keep him safe, and make him happy in the land;
 And not deliver him into his enemies strong hand.
 3 And from his bed of languishing the Lord will him restore:
 For thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health his sickness and his sore.
 4 Then in my sickness thus said I, Have mercy, Lord, on me;
 And heal my soul which grieved is, that I offended thee.
 5 My foes did wish me ill in heart, and thus of me did say,
 When shall he die, that so his name may perish quite away?
 6 And when they come to visit me, they ask if I do well;
 But in their hearts they mischief hatch, and then abroad it tell.
 7 All they that hate me do conspire against me craftily;
 And still devise how to procure my hurt and misery.
 8 Some grievous sin hath brought him to this sickness, say they plain;
 He is so low, that without doubt he cannot rise again.
 9 The man also that I did trust, with me did use deceit;
 Who at my table did eat bread, the same for me laid wait.
 10 Have mercy, Lord, on me therefore, and let me be preserv'd;
 That I may render unto them the things they have deserv'd.
 11 By this I know assuredly to be belov'd of thee;
 Because my foes no power have to triumph over me.
 12 But in my right thou hast me kept, and it maintained well;
 And in thy presence, place assign'd, where I shall ever dwell.
 13 The Lord, the God of Israel, be praised evermore:
 E'en so be it, Lord, will I say, praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. XLII. J. H.

LIKE as the hart doth pant and bray the well-springs to obtain;
 So doth my soul desire alway with thee, Lord, to remain,
 2 My soul doth thirst, and would draw near the living God of might;
 Oh when shall I come and appear in presence of his sight?
 3 The tears all times are my repast, which from my eyes do slide;
 Whilst wicked men cry out so fast, Where now is God thy guide?
 4 Alas, what grief is it to think the freedom once I had!
 Therefore my soul, as at pit's brink, most heavy is and sad.
 5 For I did march in good array, with joyful company;
 Unto the temple was our way, to praise the Lord most High.
 6 My soul, why art thou sad always, and frett'st thus in my breast?
 Trust still in God, for him to praise I hold it ever best.
 7 By him I succour have at need against all pain and grief;
 He is my God, who with all speed doth haste to send relief.
 8 My soul is vexed in me, and therefore, O Lord, I will Remember thee from Jordan's land, and Hermon's little hill.

The Second Part.

9 One grief another in doth call, as clouds burst out their voice;
 The floods of evil that do fall, run over me with noise.
 10 Yet I by day felt his goodness, and help at all essays;
 Likewise at night I did not cease the living God to praise.

P S A L M XLII, XLIII, XLIV.

- 11 I am persuaded thus to say to him with reverence,
 O Lord, thou art my guide and stay, my rock and sure defence.
 12 Why do I then in pensiveness hanging the head, thus walk,
 While that my enemies oppress and vex me with their talk?
 13 For why? they pierce my inward parts with pains to be abhorr'd;
 When they cry out with stubborn hearts, Where now is God thy Lord?
 14 So soon, my soul, why dost thou faint, with pain and grief oppress'd?
 Why do sad thoughts, without restraint, thus rage within my breast?
 15 Trust in the Lord thy God always, and thou the time shalt see,
 To give him thanks with laud and praise for health restor'd to thee.

P S A L XLIII. T. S.

- JUDGE and defend my cause, O Lord, 'gainst them that evil be;
 From wicked and deceitful men, O Lord, deliver me.
 2 For of my strength thou art this God, why am I put from thee?
 Why walk I heavily, whilst that my foe oppresseth me?
 3 O Lord, send out thy light and truth, and lead me with thy grace;
 Which may conduct me to thy hill, and to thy dwelling-place.
 4 Then shall I to thy altar go, with joy to worship there;
 And on my harp give thanks to thee, O God, my God most dear.
 5 Why art thou then so sad my soul, and frett'st thus in my breast?
 Still trust in God, for him to praise I hold it always best.
 6 By him I have deliverance from all my pain and grief;
 He is my God who doth alway at need send me relief.

P S A L XLIV. T. S.

- OUR ears have heard our fathers tell, and rev'rently record
 The wond'rous works that thou hast done in ancient time, O
 (Lord.
 2 How thou didst drive the heathen out with a most pow'rful hand;
 Planting our fathers in their place, and gav'st to them their land.
 3 They conquer'd not by their own sword the land wherein they dwell;
 But by thy hand, thy arm, and grace, because thou lov'st them well.
 4 Thou art my King, O God, who sav'st Jacob in sundry wife;
 Led with thy pow'r, we threw down such as did against us rise.
 5 I trusted not in bow nor sword, they could not save me found;
 Thou kept'st us from our foes great rage, and didst them all confound.
 6 And still we boast of thee our God, and praise thy holy Name;
 Yet now thou go'st not with our host, but leavest us to shame.
 7 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes, so were we over-trod;
 They did us rob, and spoil our goods, we were dispers'd abroad.
 8 Thou hast us given to our foes, as sheep for to be slain;
 Amongst the heathen ev'ry where scatter'd we do remain.
 9 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves, and as a thing of nought;
 For profit none thou hast thereby, no gain at all was sought.
 10 And to our neighbours thou hast made of us a laughing-stock;
 And those that round about us dwell, at us do grin and mock.

The Second Part.

- 11 Thus we serve for no other use, but for a common talk;
 They mock, they scorn, and shake their heads, wherever they do walk.

- 12 With shame and great confusion I afflicted am full fore;
Yea, so I blush, that all my face with red is cover'd o'er.
13 For why? we hear such stand'rous words, such false reports and lies;
That death it is to see their wrongs, their threat'nings, and their cries.
14 For all this we forgot not thee, nor yet thy cov'nant break;
We turn'd not back our hearts from thee, nor did thy paths forsake.
15 Yet thou hast trod us down to dust, where dens of dragons be;
And cover'd us with shade of death, and great adversity.
16 If we God's Name forgotten have, and help of idols sought,
Shall he not search and find it out? for he doth know our thought.
17 But 'tis for thy Names sake, O Lord, we always are slain thus;
As sheep unto the shambles sent, e'en so they deal with us.
18 Up, Lord, why sleepest thou? awake, for ever leave us not;
Why hidest thou thy countenance? our thrall thou hast forgot.
19 E'en to the dust our soul is brought, our troubles so increase;
Our belly cleaveth to the ground, our grief no time doth cease.
20 Rise up therefore for our defence, and help us, Lord, at need;
We thee beseech for thy goodness so rescue us with speed.

- MY heart doth take in hand some godly song to sing;
The praise that I shall shew thereon pertaineth to the King.
2 My tongue shall be as quick his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe, that useth fast to write.
3 O fairest of all men, thy lips with grace are pure;
For God hath blessed thee with gifts for ever to endure.
4 About thee gird thy sword, O Prince of might elect;
With honour, glory, and renown, thou art most richly deckt.
5 Go forth with godly speed, with meekness, truth, and right;
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in works of dreadful might.
6 Thy arrows sharp and keen, their hearts so sore shall sting,
That they shall crouch and kneel to thee, yea, all thy foes, O King.
7 Thy royal seat, O Lord, for ever shall remain;
Because the sceptre of thy realm doth righteousness maintain.
8 Because thou lov'st the right, and didst the ill detest;
Therefore hath God anointed thee with joy above the rest.
9 With myrrh and savours sweet thy clothes are all bespread;
When thou dost from the palace pass, thereby to make thee glad.
10 Kings daughters do attend in fine and rich array;
At thy right hand the queen doth stand in gold and garments gay,

The Second Part.

- 11 O daughter, take good heed, incline and give good ear;
Thou must forget thy kindred all, and father's house most dear.
12 Then shall the king desire thy beauty more and more;
He is the Lord thy God, whom thou must worship and adore.
13 The daughters then of Tyre, with gifts full rich to see;
And all the wealthy of the land shall make their suit to thee.
14 The daughter of the King is glorious to behold;
Within her closet she doth sit all deck'd in beaten gold.

P S A L M XLV, XLVI, XLVII.

- 15 In robes with needle wrought, and every pleasant thing ;
With virgins fair on her to wait, she cometh to the King.
- 16 Thus are they brought with joy and mirth on ev'ry side,
Into the palace of the King, and there they do abide.
- 17 Instead of fathers, thou shalt children multiply ;
Whom thou may'st princes make to rule all lands successfully.
- 18 Wherefore thy holy Name all ages shall record ;
The people shall give thanks to thee for evermore, O Lord.

P S A L XLVI. J. H.

- THE Lord is our defence and aid, the strength whereby we stand ;
When we with wo are much dismay'd, he is our help at hand.
- 1 Tho' the earth move, we will not fear, tho' mountains high and steep,
Be thrust and hurled here and there within the sea so deep.
 - 3 No, tho' the sea do rage so fore, that all the banks it spills ;
And tho' it overflow the shore, and beat down mighty hills.
 - 4 For one fair flood doth send abroad his pleasant streams apace,
To glad the city of our God, and wash his holy place.
 - 5 In th' midst of her the Lord doth dwell, she never can decay ;
All things against her that rebel, the Lord will surely slay.
 - 6 The heathen folk and kingdoms fear, the people make a noise ;
The earth doth melt and disappear, when God puts forth his voice.
 - 7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part, to us he hath an eye ;
Our hope of health with all our heart, on Jacob's God doth lie.
 - 8 Come here and see with mind and thought, the working of our God ;
What wonders he himself hath wrought in all the world abroad.
 - 9 By him all wars are hush'd and gone, tho' countries did conspire ;
Their bows and spears he brake each one, their chariots burn'd with fire.
 - 10 Be still therefore, and know that I am God, and therefore will,
Among the heathen people be highly exalted still.
 - 11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend, he is our strength and tow'r ;
On Jacob's God we do depend, and on his mighty pow'r.

P S A L XLVII. J. H.

- YE people all, with one accord, clap hands, shout, and rejoice ;
Be glad and sing unto the Lord, with sweet and pleasant voice.
- 2 For high the Lord and dreadful is, his wonders manifold ;
A mighty King he is likewise, in all the earth extoll'd.
 - 3 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall ;
And underneath our feet shall he the nations make to fall.
 - 4 For us the heritage he chose, which we possess alone ;
The excellency of Jacob, his well-beloved one.
 - 5 Our God ascended up on high with joy and pleasant noise ;
The Lord goes up above the sky with trumpet's royal voice.
 - 6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise, sing praises to our King ;
For God is King of all the earth, all skilful praises sing.
 - 7 God on the heathen reigns, and sits upon his holy throne ;
The princes of the people have them joined every one.
 - 8 To Abraham's people ; for our God, who is exalted high,
As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

PSALM XLVIII, XLIX.

PSAL. XLVIII. J. H.

GREAT is the Lord, and with great praise to be advanced still,
 Within the city of our God, upon his holy hill.
 2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place, it gladdeth all the land;
 The city of the mighty King on her north side doth stand.
 3 Within the palaces thereof God is a refuge known;
 For lo, the kings are gather'd, and together they are gone.
 4 But when they did behold it so, they wonder'd, and they were
 Astonish'd much, and suddenly were driven back with fear.
 5 Great terror there on them did fall, for grief of heart they cry,
 As doth a woman when she shall go travail speedily.
 6 As thou with eastern winds the ships upon the sea dost break,
 They were destroy'd, and e'en as we have heard our fathers speak,
 7 So in the city of the Lord we saw as it was told;
 Yea, in the city which our God for ever will uphold.
 8 O Lord, we wait and do depend on thy good help and grace;
 For which we do all times attend within thy holy place.
 9 O Lord, according to thy Name, for ever is thy praise;
 And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness always.
 10 For thy judgements let Sion mount be filled full with joys;
 Also of Judah grant, O Lord, the daughters to rejoice.
 11 Go walk about all Sion hill, yea, round about her go,
 And tell the towers that thereon are builded on a row.
 12 And mark ye well her bulwarks all, behold her towers there,
 That ye may tell thereof to them that after shall be here.
 13 For this most mighty God, our God for evermore is he;
 And unto death we are resolv'd our guide he still shall be.

PSAL. XLIX. J. H.

ALL people hearken and give ear to that which I shall tell;
 Both high and low, both rich and poor, that in the world do dwell.
 2 For why? my mouth shall make discourse of many things most wise;
 In understanding shall my heart its study exercise.
 3 I will incline mine ear to know the parable so dark;
 And open all my doubtful speech in metre on my harp.
 4 Wherefore should I affliction fear, or any careful toil?
 Or else my foes, which at my heels do press my life to spoil?
 5 For as for such as riches have, wherein their trust is most;
 And they who of their treasures great proudly do brag and boast;
 6 There is not one of them that can his brother's life redeem,
 Or give a ransom unto God, sufficient in esteem.
 7 It is too great a price to pay, none can thereto attain;
 So that he might his life prolong, or not in grave remain.
 8 They see wise men as well as fools, are subject to death's bands;
 And being dead, strangers possess their houses, goods, and lands.
 9 Their care is to build houses fair, and so determine sure,
 To make their names upon the earth for ever to endure.
 10 Yet shall no man always enjoy high honour, wealth, and rest;
 But must at length submit to death, as well as the brute beast.

The Second Part.

11 And tho' they find their foolish thoughts to be most lewd and vain;
 Their children yet approve their talk, and in like sin remain.
 12 As sheep into the fold are brought, they shall be laid in grave;
 Death shall them eat, and in that day the just shall lordship have.
 13 Their beauty and their royal port shall fade and quite decay,
 When from their house unto the pit with wo they pass away.
 14 But God will surely me preserve from death and endless pain;
 Because he will of his good grace my soul receive again.
 15 If any man grow wond'rous-rich, be not afraid therefore;
 Altho' the glory of his house increaseth more and more.
 16 For when he dies, of all these things nothing shall he receive;
 His glory will not follow him, his pomp will take its leave.
 17 Yet in this life he counts himself the happiest under sun;
 And others likewise flatter him, saying, All is well done.
 18 But yet if he should live as long as did his fathers old;
 Yet must he needs at length give place, and be brought to death's fold.
 19 Man that in honour lives, and doth not understand, may be Compar'd unto the very beasts, that perish utterly.

P S A L. L. W. W.

THE mighty God, th' Eternal hath thus spoke;
 And all the world he will call and provoke;
 E'en from the east, and so forth to the west,
 Out of Sion, which place he liketh best,
 God will appear in beauty excellent,
 Our God will come before long time be spent.
 2 Devouring fire shall go before his face;
 A great tempest shall round about him trace.
 Then shall he call the earth and heav'ns bright,
 To judge his folk with equity and right:
 Saying, Go to, and now my faints assemble;
 My pact that keep, their gifts do not dissemble.
 3 The heav'ns they shall declare his righteousness;
 For God is judge of all things more and less.
 Hear, my people, for I will now reveal;
 Lift' Israel, I'll from thee nought conceal.
 Thy God, thy God, am I, and will not blame thee,
 For not giving all sorts of off'rings to me.
 4 I have no need to take of thee at all
 Goats of thy fold, or calves out of thy stall;
 For all the beasts are mine within the woods,
 On thousand hills, cattle are mine own goods:
 I know for mine all birds, that are on mountains,
 All beasts mine are, which haunt the fields and fountains.
 5 Were I hungry, I would not thee it tell;
 For all is mine that in the world doth dwell.
 Eat I the flesh of great bulls or bullocks?
 Or drink the blood of goats, or of the flocks?
 Offer to God praise and hearty thanksgiving,
 And pay thy vows unto God everliving.

PSALM. L.

6 Call upon me when troubled thou shalt be;
Then will I help, and thou shalt honour me.
To the wicked thus saith th' eternal God,
Why dost thou preach my words and laws abroad,
Seeing thou hast them with thy mouth abused,
And hat'st to be by discipline reduced?

7 My words I say, thou dost reject and hate;
If that thou see'st a thief, as with thy mate,
Thou run'st with him, and so your prey seek out;
And art all one with the adulterous rout.
Thou giv'st thyself to backbite and to slander;
And how thy tongue deceiveth, is a wonder.

8 Thou sitt'st musing thy brother how to blame,
And how to put thy mother's son to shame.
These things thou didst, and while I held my tongue,
Thou didst me judge, because I stay'd so long,
Like to thyself, yet tho' I keep long silence,
Once shalt thou feel of thy wrongs just recompence.

9 Consider this, ye that forget the Lord,
And fear not when he threatneth with his word,
Left without help I spoil you as a prey,
But he that thanks offers, praiseth alway,
Saith the Lord God; and he that walks this trace,
I will him teach God's saving health to embrace.

Another of the same by J. H.

THE God of gods, the Lord, hath call'd the earth by name,
From whence the sun doth rise unto the setting of the same.

2 From Sion his fair place, his glory bright and clear,
The perfect beauty of his grace, from thence it did appear.

3 Our God shall come in haste, to speak aloud, no doubt;
Before him shall the fire waste, and tempest round about.

4 The heav'ns which are so high, the earth below likewise,
He will call forth, that he may try the people that are his.

5 Bring forth my saints, saith he, my faithful flock most dear,
Who are in band and league with me, my law to love and fear.

6 And when these things are try'd, then shall the heav'ns record,
That God is just, and all must bide the judgement of the Lord.

7 My people, now give heed, Isr'el, to thee I cry:
I am thy God, thy help at need, thou can'st it not deny.

8 I do not say to thee, Thy sacrifice is slack;
Thou offer'st daily unto me much more than I do lack.

9 Think'st thou that I do need thy cattle young or old?
Or else so much desire to feed on goats out of thy fold?

10 Nay, all the beasts are mine in woods that eat their fills;
And thousands more of neat and kine, that run wild on the hills.

The Second Part.

11 The birds that build on high, on hills and out of sight,
And beasts that in the fields do lie, are subject to my might.

12 Then tho' I hungred sore, what need I ought of thine?
Since that the earth with her great store, and all therein, is mine.

P S A L M L, LI.

13 To bulls flesh have I mind to eat it, dost thou think?
 Or such a sweetness do I find the blood of goats to drink?
 14 Give to the Lord his praise, with thanks to him apply;
 And see thou pay thy vows always unto the God most high.
 15 Then seek and call to me, when ought would work thee blame;
 And I will sure deliver thee, that thou may'st praise my Name.
 16 But to the wicked train, who talk of God each day;
 And yet their works are foul and vain, to them the Lord will say:
 17 With what face darest thou my word once speak or name?
 Why doth thy words my law allow, thy deeds deny the same?
 18 Whereas for to amend thy life thou art so slack:
 My word the which thou dost pretend, is cast behind thy back.

The Third Part.

19 When thou a thief dost see by theft to live in wealth,
 With him thou runn'st, and dost agree likewise to thrive by stealth.
 20 When thou dost them behold, that wives and maids defile,
 Thou lik'st it well, and waxest bold to use that life most vile.
 21 Thy lips thou dost apply to slander and defame;
 Thy tongue doth teach to cheat and lie, and still doth use the same.
 22 Thou study'st to revile thy friends to thee most near;
 With slander basely dost defile thy mother's son most dear.
 23 Hereat while I do wink, as tho' I did not see,
 Thou go'st on still, and so dost think that I am like to thee.
 24 But sure I will not let to strike, when I begin:
 Thy faults in order I will set, and open all thy sin.
 25 Mark this, I you require, who have not God in mind,
 Lest when I plague you in mine ire, your help be far to find.
 26 He that doth give to me the sacrifice of praise,
 Doth please me well, and he shall see to walk in godly ways.

P S A L. LI. W. W.

O Lord, consider my distress, and now with speed some pity take;
 My sins forgive, my faults redress, good Lord, for thy great (mercy's sake,
 2 Wash me, O Lord, and make me clean from this unjust and sinful act;
 And purify me once again from this foul crime and filthy fact.
 3 Remorse and sorrow do constrain me to acknowledge my excess;
 Because my sin doth still remain before my face without release.
 4 Against thee only have I sinn'd, and done this evil in thy sight;
 And if I should no mercy find, yet were thy judgements just and right.
 5 It is too manifest, alas! that first I was conceiv'd in sin;
 Yea, of my mother so born was, and yet vile wretch, remain therein.
 6 Also behold, Lord, thou dost love the inward truth of a pure heart;
 Therefore thy wisdom from above thou hast reveal'd me to convert.
 7 If thou with hyssop purge this blot, I shall be cleaner than the glass;
 And if thou wash away my spot, the snow in whiteness I shall pass.
 8 Therefore, O Lord, such joy me send, that I may praise thee with (my voice,
 And that my strength may now amend, and broken bones also rejoice.

PSALM LI.

9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire, for I have felt enough thine (hand ;
And purge my sins I thee desire, which do in number pass the sand.
10 Make new my heart within my breast, and frame it to thy holy will,
And let thy spirit in me rest, which may my soul with comfort fill.

The Second Part.

11 Cast me not, Lord, out from thy sight, but speedily my torments end ;
Take not from me thy Holy Sp'rit, which may from dangers me defend.
12 Restore me to those joys again, which I was wont in thee to find ;
Let me thy free Spirit retain, which unto thee may draw my mind.
13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know, I shall instruct others therein ;
And men that are likewise brought low, by my example shall flee sin.
14 O God, that of my health art Lord, forgive me this my bloody vice ;
My heart and tongue shall then accord, to sing thy mercy and justice.
15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue unty, O Lord, I do thee humbly (pray ;
And then my mouth shall testify thy praise and wond'rous works al-(way.
16 And as for outward sacrifice, I would have offer'd many one ;
But thou esteem'st them of no price, and therein pleasure takest none.
17 The heavy heart, and mind oppress'd, O Lord, thou never dost reject ;
This sacrifice indeed is best, and that thou chiefly dost expect.
18 Lord, unto Sion turn thy face, pour out thy mercies on thy hill ;
And on Jerusalem thy grace, build up the walls, and love it still.
19 Thou shalt accept then our off'rings of peace and righteousness al-
Yea, calves, and many other things upon thy altar we will lay. (way ;

Another of the same, by J. H.

HAVE mercy on me, Lord, after thy great abounding grace ;
After thy mercies multitude, do thou my sins deface.
2 Yea, wash me clean from my offence, and my iniquity ;
For I do own my faults, and still my sin is in mine eye.
3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case ;
And evil have I done before the presence of thy face.
4 That in the things that thou hast done, upright thou may'st appear ;
And when thou judgest, all may see, that thou art very clear.
5 In wickedness I formed was, when I began to be ;
My mother at the very first in sin conceived me.
6 But, lo, truth in the inwards parts is pleasant unto thee ;
And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealed hast to me.
7 With hyssop, Lord, besprinkle me, I shall be cleansed so ;
Yea, wash thou me, and then I shall be whiter than the snow.
8 Of joy and gladness make thou me to hear the pleasant voice,
That to the bones, which thou, O Lord, hast broken, may rejoice.
9 From the beholding of my sins, Lord, turn away thy face ;
And all my deeds of wickedness do utterly deface.
10 O God, create in me a heart unspotted in thy sight ;
Within my bowels, Lord, renew a firm and stable sprite.
11 Cast me not from thy sight, nor take thy Spirit quite away ;
The comfort of thy saving health give me again, I pray.

12 With

P S A L M LI, LII, LIII.

12 With thy free Spirit me support, then shall transgressors be,
By my instruction and advice, converted unto thee.

The Second Part.

13 O God, that art God of my health, from blood deliver me;
That praises of thy righteousness my tongue may sing to thee.

14 My lips that yet fast closed be, do thou, O Lord, unloose;
The praises of thy Majesty my mouth shall then disclose.

15 I would have offer'd sacrifice, if that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt-offerings I know thou wilt not be.

16 A spirit griev'd is sacrifice, delightful in thine eyes;
A broken and a contrite heart, Lord, thou wilt not despise.

17 In thy good will deal gently, Lord, with Sion, and withal
Grant that of thy Jerusalem uprear'd may be the wall.

18 Burnt-off'rings, gifts, and sacrifice of justice in that day
Thou shalt accept, and calves they shall upon thy altar lay.

P S A L. LII. J. H.

WHY dost thou tyrant boast abroad, thy wicked works to praise?
Dost thou not know there is a God, whose mercies last always?

2 Why doth thy mind yet still devise such wicked wiles to warp?
Thy tongue untrue in forging lies, is like a razor sharp.

3 On mischief why sett'st thou thy mind, and wilt not walk upright?
Thou lovest more false tales to find, than bring the truth to light.

4 Thou dost delight in fraud and guile, in mischief, blood, and wrong:
Thy lips have learn'd the flatt'ring stile, O false deceitful tongue!

5 Therefore the Lord shall thee confound, and pluck thee from thy Thy seed root out from off the ground, and utterly deface. (place,

6 The just, when they behold thy fall, with fear will praise the Lord,
And in reproach of thee withal, cry out with one accord,

7 Behold the man that did refuse the Lord for his defence;
But in his riches great did place his trust and confidence.

8 But I as olive fresh and green, shall spring and spread abroad;
Because my trust all times hath been upon the living God.

9 For this therefore will I give praise to thee with heart and voice;
I will advance thy Name always, wherein thy saints rejoice.

P S A L. LIII. T. S.

THE foolish man within his heart blasphemously hath said,
There is not any God at all, why should we be afraid?

2 They are corrupt, and they also a heinous work have wrought;
Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.

3 The Lord look'd down from heav'n upon the sons of men below,
To see if any were that sought the living God to know.

4 Out of the way they all are gone, they all corrupted are;
There is not any that doth good, not one for God doth care.

5 Do not all wicked workers know, that they do feed upon
My people, as they feed on bread? the Lord they call not on.

6 E'en there they were afraid, and stood with trembling, all dismay'd,
When as there was no cause at all, why they should be afraid.

7 For God his bones that thee besieg'd, hath scatter'd all abroad;
He hath confounded them, for they rejected are of God.

8 O Lord,

P S A L M LIII, LIV, LV.

1 O Lord, give to thy people health; and thou, O Lord, fulfil
Thy promise made to Israel, from out of Sion hill.

2 When God his people shall restore, that once were captive led,
Then Jacob shall rejoice therein, and Israel be glad.

P S A L. LIV. J. H.

GOD, save me for thy holy Name, and for thy goodness sake;
Unto the strength, Lord, of the same, I do my cause betake.

1 Regard, O Lord, and give an ear to me when I do pray:
Bow down thyself to me, and hear the words that I do say.

3 For strangers up against me rise, and tyrants vex me still,
Who have not God before their eyes, they seek my soul to spill.

4 But lo, my God doth give me aid, the Lord is nigh at hand:
With them by whom my soul is stay'd, the Lord doth ever stand.

5 With plagues repay again all those for me that lie in wait;
And in thy truth destroy my foes with their own snare and bait.

6 An off'ring of free heart and will then I to thee shall make,
And praise thy Name, for therein still great comfort I do take.

7 Thou, Lord, at length hast set me free from them that craft conspire;
And now my eye with joy doth see on them my hearts desire.

P S A L. LV. J. H.

O God, give ear, and speedily hear me when I do pray;
And when to thee I call and cry, hide not thyself away.

1 Take heed to me, grant my request, and answer me again;
With grief I pray full sore oppress, sorrow doth me constrain.

3 Because my foes with threats and cries oppress me thro' despite;
And so the wicked sort likewise to vex me take delight.

4 For they in council do conspire to charge me with some ill;
And in their hasty wrath and ire they do pursue me still.

5 My heart doth faint for want of breath, it panteth in my breast;
With terror and the dread of death my soul is much oppress.

6 Such dreadful fear on me doth fall, that I therewith do quake;
Such horror overwhelmeth me, that I no shift can make.

7 O that I had wings like a dove, then would I swiftly flee
Away from hence unto a place, where I at rest should be.

8 Lo, then I would go far away, to fly I would not cease;
And I would hide myself, and stay in some great wilderness.

9 I would be gone with speed and haste, and not abide behind,
Till I had safely overpast these blasts of boist'rous wind.

10 Divide them, Lord, and from them pull their false and double
For I have 'spy'd their city full of rapine, strife, and wrong. (tongue;

11 Both day and night they go about within the city wall;
In th' midst of her is mischief wrought, and sorrow great withal.

12 Her inward parts are wicked plain, her deeds they are most vile;
And in her streets there doth remain nothing but fraud and guile.

The Second Part.

13 If that my foes did seek thy shame, I might it well abide;
Because from all their check and blame somewhere I could me hide.

14 But thou it was, my fellow dear, who friendship didst pretend,
And didst my secret counsel hear, as a familiar friend.

P S A L M LV, LVI.

15 With whom I had delight to talk in secret and abroad;
 And we together oft did walk unto the house of God.
 16 Let death in haste upon them fall, and send them quick to hell;
 For mischief doth abide in all the places where they dwell.
 17 But I unto my God will cry, to him for aid I flee;
 The Lord will help me speedily, and he will succour me.
 18 At morning, noon, and evening-tide, unto the Lord I pray:
 When I so constantly have cry'd, he did not say me nay.
 19 To peace he shall restore me yet, tho' war be now at hand;
 Altho' the number be full great that do against me stand.
 20 The Lord that first and last doth reign both now and evermore,
 Will hear when I to him complain, and punish them full sore.
 21 For sure there is no hope, that they to turn will once accord;
 For why? they will not God obey, nor fear the living Lord.
 22 Upon their friends they laid their hands, who were in cov'nant knit:
 Of friendship to neglect the bands they do not care one whit.
 23 While they have war within their hearts, as butter are their words;
 And tho' they were as soft as oil, they cut as sharp as swords.
 24 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee:
 For in no wise he will accord the just in thrall to see.
 25 But God shall cast them deep in pit, who thirst for blood always:
 He will no guileful man permit to live out half his days.
 26 Tho' such be quite destroy'd and gone, on him is all my stay:
 I will depend his grace upon, with all my heart away.

P S A L. LVI. J. H.

HAVE mercy, Lord, on me, I pray, for man would me devour:
 He fighteth with me day by day, and troubleth me each hour.
 2 My foes do daily enterprize to swallow me outright:
 To fight against me many rise, O thou most high of might.
 3 When they would make me fore afraid, with boasts and brags of
 I trust in thee alone for aid, by thee I will abide. (pride)
 4 God's promise I do mind and praise, O Lord, I stick to thee;
 I do not care at all essays what flesh can do to me.
 5 What things I either did or spake, they wrest them at their will;
 And all the counsel that they take is how to work me ill.
 6 They all consent themselves to hide, close watch for me to lay;
 They spy my paths, and snares have try'd to take my life away.
 7 Shall they escape, on mischief set? thou, God, on them wilt frown;
 For in thy wrath thou dost not let to throw whole kingdoms down.
 8 Thou seest how oft they made me flee, and on my tears dost look;
 Reserve them in a glass by thee, and write them in thy book.
 9 When I do call upon thy Name, my foes away do start:
 I will perceive it by the same, that God doth take my part.
 10 I glory in the word of God, to praise it I accord;
 With joy I will declare abroad the promise of the Lord.
 11 I trust in God the Lord, and say, as I before began,
 The Lord he is my help and stay, I do not care for man.
 12 I will perform with heart most free my vows to God always;
 And I, O Lord, all times to thee will offer thanks and praise.

P S A L M LVII, LVIII.

1 My soul from death thou dost defend, and keep'st my feet upright,
That I before thee may ascend, with such as live in light.

P S A L. LVII. J. H.

TAKE pity for thy promise sake, have mercy, Lord, on me;
Because my soul doth her betake unto the help of thee.
2 Within the shadow of thy wings I set myself full fast,
Till mischief, malice, and like things, be gone and overpast.
3 I call unto the God most high, to whom I stick and stand;
I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.
4 For he from heav'n hath sent his aid, to save me from their spite,
That to devour me have assay'd, e'en mercy, truth, and might.
5 I lead my life with lions fell, all set on wrath and ire;
And with such wicked men I dwell, who fret like flames of fire:
6 Their teeth are spears and arrows long, as sharp as I have seen; (keen.
They wound and cut with their quick tongue, like swords and weapons
7 Set up and shew thyself, O God, above the heav'ns most bright,
Exalt thy praise on earth abroad, thy majesty and might.
8 They laid their net, and did prepare a privy cave and pit,
Wherein they thought my soul to snare, but are fall'n into it.
9 My heart is set to laud the Lord, in him to joy always:
My heart doth ever well accord to sing his laud and praise.
10 Awake my joy, awake, I say, my lute, my harp, my string;
And I myself, before the day, will rise, rejoice, and sing.
11 Among the people I will tell the goodness of my God;
And shew his praise that doth excel, in heathen lands abroad.
12 His mercy doth extend as far, as th' heavens all are high;
His truth as high as any star that shineth in the sky.
13 Set forth and shew thyself, O God, above the heav'ns most bright;
Exalt thyself on earth abroad, thy majesty and might.

P S A L. LVIII. J. H.

YE rulers, that are put in trust to judge of wrong and right,
Are all your judgements true and just, regarding no man's might?
2 Nay, in your hearts ye daily muse in mischief to consent;
And where ye should true justice use, your hands to bribes are bent.
3 The wicked sort from their birth-day have erred on this wise;
And from their mother's womb alway have used craft and lies.
4 In them the poison and the breath of serpents doth appear:
Yea, like the adder that is deaf, and fast doth stop her ear.
5 Because she will not hear the voice of one that charmeth well;
No, tho' he were the chief of choice, and therein did excel.
6 The teeth, O Lord, which fast are set in their mouth round about;
The lions teeth, that are so great, do thou, O Lord, break out.
7 Let them consume away and waste, as water runs forth right:
The shafts that they do shoot in haste, let them be broke in flight.
8 As snails do waste within the shell, and unto slime do run;
As one before his time that fell, and never saw the sun.
9 Before the thorns that now are young to bushes big shall grow,
The storms of anger waxing strong shall take them e'er they know.
10 The just shall joy, it doth them good, that God doth vengeance take,
And they shall wash their feet in blood of them that him forsake.

11 Then

P S A L M LIX, LX.

1 Then shall the world shew forth and tell that good men have reward;
And that a God on earth doth dwell, that justice doth regard.

P S A L. LIX. J. H.

SEND aid, and save me from my foes, O Lord, I pray to thee;
Defend and keep me from all those that rise and strive with me.
2 O Lord, preserve me from those men whose doings are not good;
And set me sure and safe from them that thirst still after blood.
3 For lo they wait my soul to take, they rage against me still;
Yea, for no fault that I did make, I never did them ill.
4 They run and do themselves prepare, when I no whit offend;
Arise, and save me from their snare, and see what they intend.
5 Arise, O God of Israel, smite ev'ry heathen land;
And pity none that do rebel, and in their mischief stand.
6 At night they run and seek about, like dogs they howl also,
And all the city quite throughout from place to place they go.
7 They speak of me with mouth alway, but in their lips are swords;
They have contriv'd my death, and say, there's none doth hear our

8 But, Lord, thou hast their ways espy'd, and thou shalt them disgrace;
The heathen folk thou dost deride, and mock them to their face.
9 The strength that does our foes withstand, O Lord, doth come from Thou art, O God, my help at hand, a fort and fence to me. (thee;
10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace in great abundance still,
That I may see my foes in case, such as my heart doth will.

The Second Part.

11 Destroy them not at once, O Lord, lest it from mind do fall;
But with thy strength drive them abroad, and so consume them all.
12 For their ill words and lying tongue confound them in their pride;
Their wicked oaths with lies and wrong let all the world deride.
13 Consume them in thy wrath, O Lord, that nought of them remain;
That men may know thro' out the world that Jacob's God doth reign.
14 At ev'ning they return apace, as dogs they grin and cry:
Throughout the streets in ev'ry place, they run about and spy.
15 They seek about for meat alway, but let them not be fed,
Nor find a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.
16 But I will shew thy strength abroad, thy goodness I will praise;
For thou art my defence and God in time of need always.
17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me staid, O Lord, I sing to thee;
Thou art my fort, my fence, and aid, a loving God to me.

P S A L. LX. J. H.

O Lord, thou didst us clean forsake, and scatter us abroad;
Such great displeasure thou didst take, return to us, O God.
2 Thy might did move the land so sore, that it in sunder brake:
The health thereof, O Lord, restore, for it doth bow and quake.
3 With heavy things thou plaguest thus the people that are thine;
And thou hast given unto us a drink of deadly wine.
4 But yet to such as fear thy Name a banner thou dost shew,
That they may triumph in the same, because thy word is true.
5 So that thy might may keep and save the folk that serveth thee,
That they thy help at hand may have, O Lord, grant this to me.

P S A L M LX, LXI, LXII.

6 The Lord did speak from his own place, this was his joyful sound,
 I will divide Sichem by pace, and mete our Succoth's ground.
 7 Gilead is given to my hand, Manasseh's mine beside,
 Ephraim the strength of all my land, my law doth Judah guide.
 8 In Moab I will wash my feet, o'er Edom cast my shoe;
 And thou, Philistia, ought'st to seek to me for favour too.
 9 But who will bring me at this tide unto the city strong?
 Or who to Edom will me guide, so that I go not wrong?
 10 Lord, wilt not thou, who didst forsake thy folk, their land and (coasts?)
 Our wars in hand thou would'st not take, nor go forth with our hosts.
 11 Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve from them that us disdain;
 The help that hosts of men can give is all but weak and vain.
 12 But thro' our God we shall have might to take great things in hand;
 He will tread down, and put to flight all those that us withstand.

P S A L LXI. J. H.

Regard, O Lord, for I complain, and make my suit to thee;
 Let not my words return in vain, but give an ear to me.
 2 From out the coasts and utmost parts of all the earth, I cry,
 In grief and anguish of my heart, to thee, O God, most high.
 3 I on the rock of thy great pow'r my woeful mind repose:
 Thou art my hope, my fort, and tow'r, my fence against my foes.
 4 Within thy tent I long to dwell, there ever to abide;
 Under thy wings I know right well, I shall me safely hide.
 5 The Lord doth my desire regard, and doth fulfil the same;
 With riches great will he reward all those that fear his Name:
 6 The king shall lie in health maintain, and so prolong his days,
 That he from age to age may reign with honour great always.
 7 That he may have a dwelling-place before the Lord alway;
 O let thy mercy, truth, and grace, defend him from decay.
 8 And then, O Lord, I ever will sing praise unto thy Name;
 That all my vows I may fulfil, and daily pay the same.

P S A L LXII. J. H.

My soul to God shall give good heed, and him alone attend;
 Because my health and hope to speed doth whole on him depend.
 2 For he alone is my defence, my rock, my health, and aid;
 He is my stay, and no pretence shall make me much dismay'd.
 3 O wicked folk! how long will ye use craft? sure ye must fall;
 For as a rotten hedge ye be, and like a tott'ring wall.
 4 Whom God doth love, ye seek always to put him to the worse:
 Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise, and yet your heart doth curse.
 5 Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God my chief desire;
 From all ill seats me to defend none but him I require.
 6 He is my rock, my fort and tow'r, my health is of his grace;
 He doth support me, that no pow'r can move me out of place.
 7 My glory and salvation doth on him alone depend:
 He is my strength, my stay, my wealth, and still doth me defend.
 8 O put your trust in him alway, ye folk, with one accord;
 Pour out your hearts to him and say, our trust is in the Lord.

P S A L M LXII, LXIII, LXIV.

- 9 The sons of men deceitful are, on balance but a sleight;
 With things most vain do them compare, for they can hold no weight.
 10 Trust not in wrong and robbery, let vain delights be gone;
 Tho' riches flow in suddenly, set not your hearts thereon.
 11 The Lord long since one thing did tell which here to mind I call,
 He spake it oft, I heard it well, that he alone doth all.
 12 And that thou, Lord, art good and kind, thy mercy doth exceed;
 So that all sorts with thee shall find according to their deed.

P S A L. LXIII. T. S.

- O God, my God, I early seek to come to thee in haste:
 For why? my soul and body both do thirst of thee to taste,
 2 And in this barren wilderness, where waters there are none;
 My flesh is parch'd for thought of thee, for thee I wish alone.
 3 That I might see yet once again thy glory, strength, and might,
 As I was wont it to behold within thy temple bright.
 4 For why? thy mercies far surmount this life and wretched days;
 My lips therefore shall give to thee due honour, laud, and praise.
 5 And whilst I live, I will not fail to worship thee always:
 And in thy Name I will lift up my hands when I do pray.
 6 My soul is as with marrow fill'd, which is both fat and sweet;
 My mouth therefore shall sing such songs as are for thee most meet.
 7 When in my bed I think of thee, and in the awful night;
 I under covert of thy wings rejoice with great delight.
 8 My soul doth closely seek to thee, thy right-hand is my pow'r;
 And those that seek my soul to slay, death shall them soon devour.
 9 The sword shall them devour each one, their carcases shall feed
 The hungry foxes, which do run their prey to seek at need.
 10 The king and all men shall rejoice, that do profess God's word;
 For liars mouths shall then be stopp'd, and all their ways abhorr'd.

P S A L. LXIV. J. H.

- O Lord, unto my voice give ear, when I complain and pray,
 And rid my life and soul from fear of foes that threat to slay.
 2 Defend me from that sort of men who in deceit do lurk;
 And from the frowning face of them who all ill feats do work.
 3 Who whet their tongues, as we have seen men whet and sharp their swords;
 And shoot abroad their arrows keen, I mean most bitter words.
 4 They privily do shoot their shaft, the upright man to hit:
 The innocent to strike by craft, they care or fear no whit.
 5 A wicked work they have decreed, in council thus they cry,
 To use deceit let us not dread, for none can it espy.
 6 Which way to hurt they talk and muse all times within their heart:
 They all consult what feats to use, each doth invent his part.
 7 But yet all this shall not prevail, wherf they think least thereon;
 God with his dart shall sure assail, and wound them ev'ry one.
 8 Their crafts and their ill tongues withal shall work themselves such (blame,
 That they who then behold their fall, shall wonder at the same.

9 And

P S A L M LXIV, LXV, LXVI.

And praise his wond'rous works, and tell what he to pass hath brought.
10 Yet shall the just in God rejoice, still trusting in his might ;
So shall they joy with mind and voice, whose hearts are pure and right.

P S A L. LXV. J. H.

TH Y praise alone, O Lord, doth reign in Sion, thine own hill ;
Their vows to thee they do maintain, and promises fulfil.
2 For that thou dost their pray'rs still hear, and dost thereto agree ;
The people all both far and near, with trust shall come to thee,
3 Our wicked life so far exceeds, that we shall fall therein ;
But, Lord, forgive our great misdeeds, and purge us from our sin.
4 The man is blest whom thou dost chuse, within thy courts to dwell ;
Thy house and temple he shall use with pleasures that excel.
5 Of thy great justice hear, O God, our health of thee doth rise,
The hope of all the earth abroad, and the sea-coasts likewise ;
6 With strength thou art beset about, and compass'd with thy pow'r ;
Thou mak'st the mountain strong and stout to stand in ev'ry shew'r.
7 The swelling seas thou dost assuage, making them very still ;
Thou dost restrain the people's rage, and rule them at thy will 8 The folk that dwell thro'out the earth shall dread thy signs to see ;
Morning and ev'ning with great mirth send praises up to thee.
9 When that the earth was chapt and dry, and thirsteth more and (more,
Then with thy drops thou dost supply, and much increase her store.
10 The flood of God doth overflow, and so doth cause to spring
The seed and corn which men do sow, for he doth guide the thing.
11 With rain thou dost her furrows fill, whereby her clods do fall ;
Thy drops on her thou dost distil, and blest her fruit withal.
12 Thou deck'st the earth of thy good grace with fair and pleasant
Thy clouds distil their dew apace, great plenty they do drop. (crop ;
13 Whereby the desert shall begin full great increase to bring :
The little hills shall joy therein, much fruit in them shall spring.
14 In places plain the flocks shall feed, and cover all the earth :
The vales with corn shall so exceed, that they shall sing with mirth.

P S A L. LXVI. T. S.

YE men on earth, in God rejoice, with praise set forth his Name ;
Extol his might with heart and voice, give glory to the same.
2 How wonderful, O Lord, say ye, in all thy works thou art !
Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee full sore against their heart.
3 All men that dwell in earth thro'out, shall praise the Name of God ;
The laud whereof the world about is shew'd and set abroad.
4 All folk come forth, behold and see what things the Lord has (wrought ;
Mark well the wond'rous works that he for men to pass hath brought.
5 He laid the sea like heaps on high, therein a way they had
On foot to pass, both fair and dry, whereof their hearts were glad.
6 His might doth rule the world alway, his eyes all things behold ;
All such as will him disobey, by him shall be controul'd.

P S A L M LXVI, LXVII, LXVIII.

- 7 Ye people, give unto our God due laud and thanks always;
 With joyful voice declare abroad, and sing unto his praise.
 8 Who doth endue our soul with life, and it preserve withal:
 He stays our feet, so that no strife can make us slip or fall.
 9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with fire, whether they will abide,
 As workmen do, when they desire to have their metals try'd.
 10 Altho' thou dost us suffer long in prison to be cast,
 And there with chains and fetters strong to lie in bondage fast.

The Second Part.

- 11 Altho', I say, thou suffer men on us to ride and reign;
 Tho' we thro' fire and water run with very grief and pain.
 12 Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace dispose it to the best;
 Bringing us out into a place to live in wealth and rest.
 13 Unto thy house resort will I to offer and to pray;
 And there I will myself apply my vows to thee to pay.
 14 The vows that with my mouth I spake in all my grief and smart,
 The vows, I say, which I did make in anguish of my heart.
 15 Burnt-off rings I will give to thee of oxen fat, and rams;
 Yea, this my sacrifice shall be of bullocks, goats, and lambs.
 16 Come forth, and hearken here full soon, all ye that fear the Lord,
 What he for my poor soul hath done, to you I will record.
 17 Full oft I call to mind his grace, this mouth to him doth cry;
 And thou, my tongue, make speedy pace to praise him joyfully.
 18 But if I feel my heart within in wicked works rejoice;
 Or if I have delight in sin, God will not hear my voice.
 19 But surely God my voice hath heard, and what I do require:
 My pray'r also he doth regard, and granteth my desire.
 20 All praise to him that hath not put, nor cast me out of mind;
 Nor yet his mercy from me shut, which I do ever find.

P S A L. LXVII. J. H.

- HAVE mercy on us, Lord, and grant to us thy grace;
 To shew to us do thou accord the brightness of thy face.
 2 That all the earth may know the way to godly wealth;
 And all the nations here below may see thy saving health.
 3 Let all the world, O God, give praise unto thy Name;
 And let the people all abroad extol and laud the same.
 4 Throughout the world so wide let all rejoice with mirth,
 For thou with truth and right dost guide the nations of the earth.
 5 Let all the world, O God, give praise unto thy Name;
 And let the people all abroad extol and laud the same.
 6 Then shall the earth increase, great store of fruit shall fall;
 And then our God, the God of peace, shall ever bless us all.
 7 God shall us greatly bless, and then both far and near,
 The folk which all the earth possess, of him shall stand in fear.

P S A L. LXVIII. T. S.

- LET God arise, and then his foes will turn themselves to flight;
 His enemies for fear shall run, and scatter out of sight.
 2 And as wax melts before the fire, and winds blow smoke away;
 So in the presence of the Lord the wicked shall decay.

P S A L M LXVIII.

- 3 But righteous men before the Lord shall heartily rejoice;
 They shall be glad and merry all, and chearful in their voice.
 4 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord, who rideth on the sky;
 Extol the great Jehovah's Name, and him still magnify.
 5 The same is he that is above within his holy place:
 That father is of fatherless, and judge of widows case.
 6 Houses and issue both he gives unto the comfortless;
 He bringeth bondmen out of thrall, and rebels to distress.
 7 When thou didst march before thy folk, th' Egyptians from among,
 And brought'st them thro' the wilderness, which was both wide and (long:
 8 The earth did shake, the heav'ns did drop, great thunder-claps were Mount Sinai also moved was, when Isr'els God appear'd. (heard;
 9 Thy heritage with drops of rain abundantly was wash'd;
 And if so be it barren was, by thee it was refresh'd.
 10 Thy chosen flock doth there remain, thou hast prepar'd that place;
 And for the poor thou dost provide of thy especial grace.

The Second Part.

- 11 God will give women causes just to magnify his Name;
 When as his people triumphs make, and purchase mighty fame.
 12 Puissant kings, for all their pow'r, shall flee and take the foil;
 And women which remain at home, shall help to part the spoil.
 13 And tho' ye were as black as pots, your hue shall pass the dove,
 Whose wings and feathers seem to have silver and gold above.
 14 When in this land God shall triumph o'er kings both high and low;
 Then shall it be like Salmon hill, as white as is the snow.
 15 Tho' Basan be a fruitful hill, and in height others pass;
 Yet Sion, God's most holy hill, doth far excel in grace.
 16 Why leap ye thus, ye hills most high, and thus in pride do swell?
 The hill of Sion God doth love, and there will ever dwell.
 17 God's army twenty thousand is of angels great and strong:
 The Lord also in Sinai is present them among.
 18 Thou didst, O Lord, ascend on high, and captive led'st them all,
 Who in times past thy chosen flock in bondage did enthral.
 19 Thou hast received gifts for men, e'en for thy enemies:
 Unto the end that God the Lord might dwell with them likewise.
 20 Now praised be the Lord, for that he pours on us such grace:
 From day to day he is the God both of our health and peace.

The Third Part.

- 21 He is the God from whom alone salvation we obtain;
 He is the God by whom we 'scape all dangers, death, and pain.
 22 And he shall wound the head of all his enemies, also
 The hairy scalp of such as on in wickedness still go.
 23 From Basan will I bring, said he, my people and my sheep:
 And all my own, as I have done, from dangers of the deep.
 24 And make them dip their feet in blood of those that hate my Name;
 The tongues of dogs they shall be red with licking of the same.
 25 Thy goings they have seen, O God, unto their own disgrace;
 How thou, my God and King, dost go within thy holy place.

P S A L M LXVIII, LXIX.

26 The fingers go before with joy, the minstrels make no stay;
And in the midst the damsels do with timbrels sweetly play.
27 Now in the congregations thou, O Isr'el, praise the Lord:
And Jacob's whole posterity, give thanks with one accord.
28 Their chief was little Benjamin, but Judah made their host:
With Zabulon and Nephthalim, who dwelt about their coast.
29 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee, O God, make firm and
The thing that thou hast wrought in us for ever to endure. (sure
30 Then in thy temple gifts will we offer to thee, O Lord:
And in thy own Jerusalem praise thee with one accord.

The Fourth Part.

31 Yea, and strange kings, by us subdu'd, shall do like in those days;
For unto thee they shall present their gifts of laud and praise.
32 He shall destroy the spearmens ranks; the calves and bulls of might;
And make them tribute pay, and daunt all such as love to fight.
33 Then shall the lords of Egypt come, and presents with them bring;
The Moors also stretch out their hands to God, their Lord and King.
34 Therefore, ye kingdoms of the earth, give praise unto the Lord;
Sing psalms to God with one consent, thereto let all accord.
35 For he doth ride and ever did, above the heav'ns most bright;
And by his fearful thunder-claps men may well know his might.
36 Therefore the strength of Israel ascribe to God on high;
Whose might and pow'r doth far extend above the cloudy sky.
37 O God, thy holiness and pow'r is dreadful evermore:
The God of Isr'el gives us strength, therefore his Name adore.

P S A L. LXIX. J. H.

SAVE me, O God, and that with speed, because the waters do
So very nigh my soul proceed, and enter thereinto.
1 I sink full deep in mire and clay, where I can feel no ground;
And in deep waters, where I may most suddenly be drown'd.
2 With crying I am weary, lo, my throat is hoarse and dry;
My sight doth fail, looking also for help to God on high.
3 My foes that guiltless do oppress my soul, with hate are led;
In number sure they are no less than hairs upon my head.
4 Tho' for no cause they vex me sore, they prosper and are glad;
They do compel me to restore the things I never had.
5 What I thro' my simplicity have done, Lord, thou canst tell,
And all my faults in privacy to thee are known full well.
6 O God of hosts, defend and stay all those that trust in thee:
Let no man doubt or shrink away, for ought that chanceth me.
7 It is for thee, and for thy sake, that I do bear this blame;
In spite to thee they would me make to hide my face for shame.
8 My mother's sons, my brethren all, reject me with disgrace;
And as a stranger they me call, they will not know my face.
9 Unto thy house such zeal I bear, that it doth vex me much:
Their checks and taunts at thee to hear my very heart doth touch.

The Second Part.

11 Tho' I do fast my flesh to tame, yea, if I weep and mone:
I am reproached for the same by scornors ev'ry one.

P S A L M LXIX.

12 If I for grief and pain of heart in sackcloth use to walk,
 Reproachfully they will pervert, thereof they jest and talk.
 13 Both high and low; and all the throng that sit within the gate;
 They have me ever in their tongue, of me they talk and prate.
 14 They that sit in the gate, with spite, against me all decree;
 The drunkards that in wine delight, do make their songs of me,
 15 But unto thee, O Lord, I pray, that when it pleaseth thee,
 For thy great truth thou wilt alway send down thy aid to me.
 16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire, from drowning do me keep;
 From such as owe me wrath and ire, and from the waters deep.
 17 Left with the waves I should be drown'd, and depth my soul devour;
 And lest the pit should me confound, and shut me in her pow'r.
 18 O Lord of hosts, to me give ear, as thou art good and kind;
 And as thy mercy is most dear, Lord, have me in thy mind.
 19 And do not from thy servant hide, nor turn thy face away;
 I am oppress'd on ev'ry side, in haste give ear, I pray.
 20 O Lord, unto my soul draw nigh, the same with aid repose;
 Because of their great tyranny, acquit me from my foes.

The Third Part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame, thou know'st, and thou canst tell;
 For those that seek and work the same, thou seest them all full well.
 22 When with reproach they break my heart, some help I fain would
 But find no friends to ease my smart, nor once to comfort me. (see,
 23 But in my meat they gave me gall, (too cruel for to think)
 And gave me in my thirst withal, strong vinegar to drink.
 24 Lord, turn their table to a snare, to take themselves therein;
 And when they think full well to fare, then trap them in their gin.
 25 And let their eyes be dark and blind, that they may nothing see;
 Bow down their backs, and let them find themselves in thrall to be.
 26 Pour out thy wrath as hot as fire, that it on them may fall;
 Let thy displeasure in thine ire take hold upon them all.
 27 As deserts dry, their house disgrace, their seed do thou expel;
 That none thereof possess their place, nor in their tents once dwell.
 28 If thou dost strike, the man to tame, on him they lay full sore;
 And if that thou do wound the same, they seek to hurt him more.
 29 Then let them heap up mischief still, since they are all pervert,
 That of thy favour and good-will they never have a part.
 30 And rase them clean out of thy book of life, of hope, and trust;
 That for their names they never look in number of the just.

The Fourth Part.

31 Tho' I, O Lord, with pain and grief have been full sore oppress'd;
 Thy help shall give me such relief, that all shall be redress'd.
 32 That I may give thy Name the praise that doth to thee belong;
 I will extol the same alway with a thanksgiving song.
 33 Which is more pleasant unto thee, such mind thy grace hath born;
 Than either ox or calf can be, that hath both hoof and horn.
 34 When simple folk do this behold, it shall rejoice them sure;
 All ye that seek the Lord, your life for ever shall endure.

P S A L M LXIX, LXX, LXXI.

35 For why? the Lord of hosts doth hear the poor when they complain:
 His pris'ners are to him full dear, he doth them not disdain.
 36 Wherefore the sky and earth below, the sea, with flood and stream:
 His praise they shall declare and show, with all that live in them.
 37 For sure our God will Sion save, and Judah's cities build:
 Much folk possession there shall have, her streets shall all be fill'd.
 38 His servants seed shall keep the same all ages out of mind;
 And there all they that love his Name, a dwelling-place shall find.

P S A L LXX. J. H.

O God, to me take heed, I help of thee enquire:
 O Lord of hosts, with haste and speed help me, I thee desire.
 2 With shame confound them all that seek my soul to spill:
 Let them be turned back and fall that think and wish me ill.
 3 Let them rewarded be with infamy and shame,
 Who when harm happens unto me, do triumph at the same.
 4 But let them joyful be in thee, with joy and wealth:
 Who only trust and seek to thee, and to thy saving health.
 5 That they may say always, in mirth and one accord:
 All glory, honour, laud, and praise be given to the Lord.
 6 But I am weak and poor; come, Lord, thy aid I lack:
 Thou art my stay and help, therefore make speed, and be not slack.

P S A L LXXI. J. H.

MY Lord, my God, in all distress, my hope is whole in thee;
 Then let no shame my soul oppress, nor once take hold on me.
 2 As thou art just, defend me, Lord, and rid me out of dread;
 Give ear, and to my suit accord, and send me help at need.
 3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may for aid all times resort:
 Thy promise is to help alway, thou art my fence and fort.
 4 Save me, my God, from wicked men, and from their strength and
 From folk unjust, and also them that cruelly devour. (pow'rs
 5 Thou art my stay whereon I rest, thou, Lord of hosts, art he;
 E'en from my youth I thought it best, still to depend on thee.
 6 Thou hast me kept e'en from my birth, and I thro' thee was born:
 Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth, both ev'ning and at morn.
 7 As to a monster seldom seen, much folk about me throng:
 But thou art now, and still hast been my fence, and aid most strong.
 8 Wherefore my mouth for ever shall be filled with thy praise:
 Also my tongue shall never fail to honour thee always.
 9 Refuse me not, O Lord, I pray, when age my limbs doth take:
 And when my strength doth waste away, do not my soul forsake.
 10 Among themselves my foes enquire to take me thro' deceit:
 And they against me do conspire that for my soul lay wait.

The Second Part.

11 Lay hands upon him now, they said, for God from him is gone:
 Dispatch him quite, for to his aid most sure there cometh none.
 12 Do not withdraw thyself away, O Lord, when need shall be;
 But that in time of grief I may have speedy help from thee.

P S A L M LXXI, LXXII.

13 With shame confound and overthrow all those that seek my life :
 Suppress them with rebuke also that vain would work me strife.
 14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all essays :
 Still more and more, each time and tide, I will set forth thy praise.
 15 My mouth thy justice shall record, that daily help doth send ;
 For thy great benefits, O Lord, no numbers have, nor end.
 16 Yet will I go and seek for one, with thy good help, O God,
 The saving health of thee alone to shew and set abroad.
 17 For of my youth thou took'st the care, and dost instruct me still ;
 Therefore thy wonders to declare I have great mind and will.
 18 And as in youth from wanton rage thou didst me keep and stay ;
 Forsake me not in my old age, and when my head is gray.

The Third Part.

19 That I thy strength and might may show to them that now are here ;
 And that our seed thy pow'r may know hereafter many year.
 20 O Lord, thy justice doth exceed, thy doings all may see ;
 Thy works are wonderful indeed, Oh ! who is like to thee ?
 21 Thou mad'st me feel affliction sore, and yet thou didst me save ;
 Yea, thou didst help and me restore, and took'st me from the grave.
 22 And thou my honour dost increase, my dignity maintain ;
 Yea, thou dost make all grief to cease, and comfort'st me again.
 23 Therefore thy faithfulness to praise I will with viol sing ;
 My harp shall sound thy laud always, O Israel's holy King.
 24 My mouth will joy with pleasant voice, when I shall sing to thee ;
 Also my soul shall much rejoice, for thou hast set me free.
 25 My tongue thy righteousness shall sound, I daily speak it will :
 For grief and shame do them confound, that seek to work me ill.

P S A L LXXII. J. H.

Lord, give thy judgements to the king, therein instruct him well ;
 And with his son, in every thing, Lord, let thy justice dwell ;
 2 That he may govern uprightly, and rule thy folk with right :
 And so defend with equity the poor that have no might.
 3 And let the mountains that are high unto thy folk give peace :
 Let little hills also apply, in justice to increase ;
 4 That he may help the weak and poor with aid, and make them strong ;
 And so destroy for evermore all those that do them wrong.
 5 And then from age to age shall they regard and fear thy might :
 So long as sun doth shine by day, or else the moon by night.
 6 Lord, make the king unto the just like rain to fields new mown :
 And like to drops that lay the dust, refreshing land new sown.
 7 The just shall flourish in his days, and all shall be at peace ;
 Until the moon shall cease always to change, waste, or increase.
 8 He shall be Lord, and have command from shore to shore throughout ;
 And from the floods within the land thro' all the earth about.
 9 The people that in deserts dwell, shall kneel to him full thick ;
 And all his foes that do rebel, the earth and dust shall lick.
 10 The lords of all the isles also great gifts to him shall bring ;
 Arabia and Saba's kings give many a costly thing.

The

P S A L M LXXII, LXXIII.

The Second Part.

- 11 All kings shall seek with one accord in his good grace to stand ;
 And all the people of the world obey at his command :
 12 For he the needy sort doth save, that unto him do call ;
 Also the simple folk that have no help of man at all.
 13 He taketh pity on the poor, that are with need oppress'd ;
 He doth preserve them evermore, and bring their souls to rest.
 14 He shall redeem their lives from dread, from fraud, from wrong,
 (and might ;
 Also their blood that shall be shed, is precious in his sight.
 15 But he shall live, and they shall bring to him of Saba's gold :
 He shall be honour'd as a king, and daily be extoll'd.
 16 The mighty mountains of his land of corn shall bear such throng,
 That it like cedar-trees shall stand in Libanus full long.
 17 Their cities also well shall speed, the fruits thereof surpass ;
 In plenty it shall so exceed, and spring as green as grass.
 18 For ever they shall praise his Name, while that the sun is light :
 And think them happy thro' the same, all folks shall bless his might.
 19 Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and sing to Isr'el's God each one ;
 For he doth ev'ry wond'rous thing, yea, he himself alone.
 20 And blessed be his holy Name all times eternally :
 Let all the earth still praise the same, Amen, Amen, say I.

P S A L. LXXIII. T. S.

- TRuly the Lord is very good and kind to Israel :
 And to all such as safely keep their conscience pure and well.
 2 But as for me, I almost slipt, my feet began to slide ;
 Before that I was well aware my steps did turn aside.
 3 For when I saw such foolish men, I grudg'd with great disdain
 That wicked men all things should have without turmoil and pain.
 4 They never suffer pains nor grief, as if death should them smite ;
 Their bodies are full stout and strong, and ever in good plight.
 5 Always free from adversity and ev'ry sad event ;
 With other men they take no part of plague or punishment.
 6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chain :
 They are e'en wrapt as in a robe, with rapine and disdain.
 7 They are so fed, that e'en with fat their eyes oft-times out-start ;
 And as for worldly goods they have more than can wish their heart.
 8 Their life is most licentious, and they boast much with their tongue,
 How they the poor and simple have oppress'd with great wrong.
 9 They set their mouth against the heav'ns, and do the Lord blaspheme ;
 They proudly boast of worldly things, no one they do esteem.
 10 God's people often do turn back to see their prosp'rous state ;
 And almost drink the self-same cup, and talk at the same rate.

The Second Part.

- 11 How can it be that God, say they, should know or understand
 These worldly things, since wicked men be lords of sea and land ?
 12 For we may see how wicked men in riches still increase ;
 Rewarded well with worldly goods, and live in rest and peace.

P S A L M LXXIII, LXXIV.

- 13 Then why do I so carefully from wickedness refrain ?
And wash my hands in innocence, and cleanse my heart in vain ?
14 And suffer scourges ev'ry day, as subject to all blame ;
And ev'ry morning from my youth sustain rebuke and shame ?
15 Now I had almost said as they, misliking my estate :
But then I should thy children judge as most unfortunate.
16 Then I bethought me how I might this matter understand ;
But yet the labour was too great for me to take in hand.
17 Until the time I went into thy holy place, and then
I understood right perfectly the end of all these men :
18 Namely, how that thou settest them upon a slipp'ry place ;
And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them soon deface.
19 Then all men muse at that strange sight to see how suddenly
They do consume, perish, and come to endless misery.
20 Much like a dream when one awakes, so shall their wealth decay ;
Their famous names in all mans sight shall fall and pass away.

The Third Part.

- 21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then, my mind was much oppress ;
So simple I, and ignorant, e'en as it were a beast.
22 Nevertheless, by my right hand, thou hold'st me always fast ;
And with thy counsel shalt me guide to glory at the last.
23 What thing is there that I can wish but thee in heav'n above ?
And in the earth there nothing is like thee that I can love.
24 My flesh and spirit both do fall, but God will me restore ;
For of my heart he is the strength and portion evermore.
25 But lo, all such as thee forsake thou shalt destroy each one ;
And those that trust in any thing, saving in thee alone.
26 Therefore will I draw near to God, and ever with him dwell ;
In God alone I put my trust, his wonders I will tell.

P S A L LXXIV. J. H.

- WHY art thou, Lord, so long from us in all this danger deep ?
Why doth thy anger kindle thus at thy own pasture sheep ?
2 Lord, call the people to thy thought, which have been thine so long ;
The which thou hast redeem'd and brought from bondage sore and strong.
3 Have mind therefore, and think upon, remember it full well,
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion, where thou wast wont to dwell.
4 Lift up thy feet, and come in haste, and all thy foes deface ;
Who now at pleasure rob and waste within thy holy place.
5 Amidst the congregations all thy foes do rore, O God :
They set as signs on ev'ry wall, banners display'd abroad.
6 As men with axes hew down trees that on the hills do grow,
So shine the bills and swords of these within thy temple now.
7 The ceiling fine and carved boards, with all the goodly stones,
With axes, hammers, bills, and swords, they beat them down at once,
8 Thy places they consume with flame, their rage doth so abound ;
The house appointed to thy Name, they rase e'en to the ground.
9 And thus they say within their heart, Dispatch them out of hand :
Then burn they up in ev'ry part God's houses thro' the land.

PSALM LXXIV, LXXV.

10 Yet thou no sign of help dost send ; our prophets all are gone
To tell when this our plague shall end, among us there is none.
11 How long, Lord, shall thy enemies thus boldly thee defame?
Shall they for evermore blaspheme thy great and holy Name?
12 Why dost thou thy right hand withdraw from us so long away?
Out of thy bosom pluck it forth, with speed thy foes to slay.

The Second Part.

13 O God, thou art our King and Lord, and evermore hast been ;
Yea, thy good grace thro'out the world for our great help is seen.
14 The seas, that are so deep and dead, thy might did make them dry ;
And thou didst break the serpent's head, that he therein did die.
15 Yea, thou didst break the heads so great of whales that are most fell ;
And gav'st them to the folk to eat that in the deserts dwell.
16 Thou mad'st a spring with streams to rise from rocks both hard and Thy mighty hand hath made likewise deep rivers to be dry. (high :
17 Both day and night also are thine, by thee they were begun ;
And thou likewise prepared hast the light of moon and sun.
18 Thou didst appoint the ends and coasts of all the earth about :
Both summer heats and winter frosts, thy hand hath found them out.
19 Think on, O Lord, no time forget thy foes that thee defame :
And how the foolish folk are set to rail upon thy Name.
20 Deliver not the soul, O Lord, of thy own turtle-dove
Into their hands, but help afford the poor, whom thou dost love.
21 Regard, O Lord, thy covenant, behold our misery :
All the dark places of the earth are full of cruelty.
22 Let not the simple man therefore be turned back with shame ;
But let the needy evermore give praise unto thy Name.
23 Arise, O Lord, and plead thy cause against thy enemies,
Who daily do reject thy laws, and them with scorn despise.
24 The voice forget not of thy foes, for the presumption high.
Is more and more increas'd of those that hate thee spitefully.

PSAL. LXXV. J. H.

TO thee, O God, will we give thanks, we will give thanks to thee ;
Since thy Name is so near, declare thy wond'rous works will we.
2 I will uprightly judge, when get convenient time I may :
The earth is weak, and all therein, but I her pillars stay.
3 I did to the mad people say, Deal not so furiously ;
And unto the ungodly ones, Lift not your horns so high.
4 I said unto them, Set not up your raised horns on high ;
And see that with stiff neck you do not speak presumptuously.
5 For neither from the eastern parts, nor from the west likewise,
Nor from forsaken wilderness, promotion doth arise ;
6 But God, who rules both heav'n and earth, the righteous Judge alone,
Is he that puts down one, and sets another on the throne.
7 For why ? a cup of mighty wine is in the hand of God :
And all the mixture of the same himself will pour abroad.
8 As for the lees and filthy drops, that do remain of it,
The wicked of the earth shall drink, and suck them ev'ry whit.

9 But

P S A L M LXXV, LXXVI, LXXVII.

9 But I will talk of God alway, and his great Name adore;
And will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore.
10 In sunder break the horns of all ungodly men will I;
But then the horns of righteous men shall be exalted high.

P S A L. LXXVI. J. H.

TO all that now in Judah dwell, the Lord is clearly known;
His Name is great in Israel, a people of his own.
2 At Salem he hath pitch'd his tent, to tarry there a space;
In Sion also he is bent to fix his dwelling-place.
3 And there he brake both shaft and bow, the sword, the spear, and
His enemies did overthrow, in battle in the field. (shield;
4 Thou art most worthy honour, Lord, more might in thee doth lie,
'Than in the strongest of the world, that rob on mountains high.
5 But now the proud are spoil'd thro' thee, and they are fall'n asleep;
'Thro' men of war no help can be, themselves they could not keep.
6 At thy rebuke, O Jacob's God, when thou didst them reprove,
As half asleep their chariots stood, no horsemen once did move.
7 For thou art dreadful, Lord, indeed, what man the courage hath
To 'bide thy sight, and doth not dread when thou art in thy wrath?
8 When thou dost make thy judgements heard from heav'n unto the (ground,
When all the earth, full fore afraid, in silence shall be found.
9 And that when thou, O God, dost stand in judgement for to speak,
To save th' afflicted of the land, that feeble are and weak.
10 The fury that in man doth reign shall turn unto thy praise:
Hereafter, Lord, do thou restrain their wrath and threats always.
11 Make vows, and pay them to our God, ye folk that nigh him be;
Bring gifts, all ye that dwell abroad; for dreadful sure is he:
12 For he doth take both life and might from princes great of birth;
And full of terror is his sight to all the kings on earth.

P S A L. LXXVII. J. H.

I With my voice to God did cry, who lent a gracious ear;
My voice I lifted up on high, and he my suit did hear.
2 In time of grief I sought to God, by night no rest I took:
But stretch'd my hand to him abroad, my soul comfort forsook.
3 When I to think on God intend, my trouble then is more:
I spake, but could not make an end, my breath was stopt so sore.
4 Thou dost my eyes so hold from rest, that I always awake:
With fear I am so sore oppress'd, my sleep doth me forsake.
5 The days of old in mind I cast, and oft do think upon
The times and ages that are past full many years ago.
6 By night my songs I call to mind, once made thy praise to show;
And with my heart much talk I find, my spirits search to know.
7 Will God, said I, at once for all, cast off his people thus,
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us?
8 What, is his goodness quite decay'd, and pass'd clean away?
Or is his promise now delay'd, and doth his truth decay?
9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?
Or shall his wrath increase so hot, his mercies to with-hold?

P S A L M LXXVII, LXXVIII.

10 At last, I said, This surely is mine own infirmity ;
But his right hand can help all this, and change it speedily.

The Second Part.

- 11 I will regard and think upon the working of the Lord :
And all his wonders past and gone I gladly will record.
12 Yea, all his words I will declare, and what he did devise ;
To tell his facts I will not spare, and all his counsel wise.
13 Thy works, O Lord, are all upright, and holy all abroad :
What one hath strength to match the might of thee, the Lord our God.
14 Thou art a God that dost forth show thy wonders ev'ry hour,
And so dost make the people know thy virtue and thy pow'r.
15 And thy own folk thou dost defend with an out-stretched arm,
Those that from Jacob did descend, and Joseph's seed from harm.
16 The waters, Lord, perceived thee, the waters saw thee well :
And they for fear away did flee, the depths on trembling fell.
17 The clouds that were both thick and black did rain full plenteously :
The thunder in the air did crack, thy shafts abroad did fly.
18 Thy thunder in the air was heard, the lightnings from above
With flashes great made men afraid, the earth did quake and move.
19 Thy ways within the sea do lie, thy paths in waters deep ;
Yet none can there thy steps espy, nor know thy paths to keep.
20 Thou ledd'st thy folk upon the land as sheep on ev'ry side ;
By Moses and by Aaron's hand thou didst them safely guide.

P S A L LXXVIII. J. H.

- Attend, my people, to my law, and to my words incline ;
My mouth shall speak strange parables, and sentences divine ;
2 Which we ourselves have heard and learn'd e'en of our fathers old ;
And which for our instruction them our fathers have us told.
3 Because we should not keep it close from them that after came,
Who should God's mighty pow'r declare, and wond'rous works pro-
4 To Jacob he commandment gave how Israel should live, (claim.
Willing our fathers should the same unto their children give.
5 That they and their posterity, that were not sprung up then,
Should have the knowledge of the law, and teach it their children.
6 That they might have the better hope in God that is above ;
And not forget to keep his laws, and his commands in love.
7 Not being as their fathers, who rebelled in God's sight ;
And would not frame their wicked hearts to know their God aright.
8 How went the Sons of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoil,
Shooting their darts in day of war, and yet receiv'd the foil ?
9 For why ? they did not keep with God the cov'nant that was made ;
Nor yet would walk or lead their lives according as he said.
10 But put into oblivion his counsel and his will ;
And all his works magnificent which he declared still.

The Second Part.

- 11 What wonders to our fore-fathers did he himself disclose ;
In Egypt's land, within the field that call'd is Thanees !

PSALM LXXVIII.

22 He did divide and part the sea, thro' which he made a way
For them to pass, and on an heap the waters made to stay.
23 He led them secret in a cloud by day, when it was bright;
And in the night, when it was dark, with fire he gave them light.
24 He clave the rocks in wilderness, and gave the people drink,
As plentiful as when the deeps do flow up to the brink.
25 He drew forth rivers out of rocks that were both dry and hard,
In such abundance, that no floods to them might be compar'd.
26 Yet, for all this, against the Lord their sin they did increase:
And did provoke the most Highest to wrath in wilderness.
27 And in their hearts they tempted God like people of mistrust,
Requiring such a kind of meat as served to their lust.
28 Yea, they against him spake, and thus their boldness did express:
Can God prepare a table in this barren wilderness?
29 Behold, he smote the stony rock, and floods forthwith did flow;
But can he now give to his folk both bread and flesh also?
30 When God heard this, he waxed wroth with Jacob and his seed;
His indignation also did 'gainst Israel proceed.

The Third Part.

31 Because they did not faithfully believe, and hope that he Could always help and succour them, in their necessity.
32 Wherefore he did command the clouds, forthwith they brake in
And rain'd down manna for to eat, a food of mighty wonder. (funder,
33 When earthly men with angels food did plentifully feast:
He made the east wind blow away, and brought in the south west,
34 He rais'd down flesh as thick as dust, and fowls as thick as sand;
Which he did cast amidst the place where all their tents did stand.
35 Then did they eat exceedingly, and all men had their fills;
Yet more and more they did desire to serve their lusts and wills.
36 But as the meat was in their mouths, his wrath upon them fell,
And slew the strength of all their youth and choice of Israel.
37 Yet fell they to their wonted sin, and still they did him grieve;
For all the wonders that he wrought, they would not him believe.
38 Their days therefore he short'ned, and did make their honour vain;
Their years did waste and pass away with terror and with pain.
39 But ever when he plagued them, they sought him speedily,
Rememb'ring that he was their strength, their help and God most high.
40 Tho' with their mouths they nothing did but flatter with the Lord:
And with their tongues, and in their hearts, dissembled ev'ry word.

The Fourth Part.

41 For why? their hearts were nothing bent to him, nor what he said;
Nor yet to keep or to perform the covenant he made.
42 Yet was he still so merciful, when they deserv'd to die,
That he forgave them, and would not them utterly destroy.
43 Yea, many times he stay'd his wrath, and did not them surprise,
And would not suffer that his whole displeasure should arise.
44 Considering they were but flesh, or like to wind and rain,
Passing away, and never doth return and come again.

PSALM LXXVIII.

35 How often in the wilderness did they the Lord provoke?
 How did they move and stir him up to plague them with his stroke!
 36 Yet did they turn again to sin, and tempt him very soon,
 Prescribing to the mighty God what things they would have done.
 37 Not thinking of his mighty hand, nor of the day when he
 Deliver'd them out of the hand of the fierce enemy.
 38 Nor how he wrought his miracles (as they themselves beheld)
 In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field:
 39 Nor how he turned by his pow'r their waters into blood;
 That no man might receive his drink at river or at flood:
 40 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies, which did them sore annoy;
 And fill'd their country full of frogs, which did their land destroy:
 41 Nor how he did their fruits unto the caterpillar give;
 And of the labour of their hands locusts did them deprive.
 42 With hail-stones he destroy'd their vines, so that they all were lost;
 And likewise all their sycamores he did consume with frost.
 43 With hail-stones also once again the Lord their cattle smote;
 And all their flocks and herds likewise with thunder-bolts full hot.
 44 He cast upon them his fierce wrath, and indignation sore;
 Amongst them evil angels sent, which troubled them yet more.
 45 Then to his wrath he made a way, and spared not the least;
 But gave unto the pestilence the man as well as beast.
 46 He smote also all the first-born that up in Egypt came,
 And all the chief of men and beasts within the tents of Ham.
 47 But as for his own people, he did them preserve and keep;
 And carried them thro' wilderness, e'en like a flock of sheep.
 48 Without all fear, both safe and sound, he brought them out of Whereas their foes, with rage of seas, were overwhelmed all. (thrall;
 49 And brought them out into the coasts of his own holy land,
 E'en to the mount which he had got, by his strong arm and hand.
 50 And there cast out the heathen folk, and did their land divide,
 And in their tents he set the tribes of Is'el to abide.
 51 Yet, for all this, the God most high they mov'd and tempted still;
 And would not keep his testament, nor yet obey his will.
 52 But as their fathers turned back, e'en so they went astray:
 Much like a bow that would not bend, but slip and start away.

The Sixth Part.

53 And griev'd him with their hill-altars, with offerings and fire;
 And with their idols grievously provoked him to ire.
 54 For which his wrath began again to kindle in his breast:
 The wickedness of Israel he did so much detest.
 55 The tabernacle he forsook of Silo, where he was Right conversant with earthly men, e'en as his dwelling-place.
 56 Then suffer'd he his might and pow'r in bondage for to be,
 And gave the honour of his ark unto the enemy.
 57 And did commit them to the sword, wroth with his heritage:
 Their young men were consum'd with fire, maids had no marriage,
 58 And with the sword the priests also did perish every one,
 And not a widow left alive their deaths for to bemoane.

59 Then

P S A L M LXXVIII, LXXIX.

- 59 Then did the Lord awake, as one whom sleep could not confine;
And like a mighty giant that refreshed is with wine.
60 With em'rods in the hinder parts his enemies he smote,
And put them into such a shame as should not be forgot.
61 The tent and tabernacle he of Joseph did refuse;
Also the tribe of Ephraim he would in no wise chuse.
62 But he the tribe of Judah chose, that he therein might dwell;
E'en the most noble mount Sion, which he did love so well.
63 And there he did his temple build, both sumptuously and sure;
Like as the earth, which he hath made for ever to endure.
64 Then chose he David him to serve, his people for to keep;
Whom he took up and brought away, e'en from the folds of sheep.
65 From following the ewes with young the Lord did him advance,
To feed his people Israel, and his inheritance.
66 Thus David with a faithful heart his flock and charge did feed,
And prudently with all his pow'r did govern them indeed.

P S A L LXXIX. J. H.

- O God, the Gentiles do invade thy heritage to spoil;
Jerusalem an heap is made, thy temple they defile.
2 The bodies of thy saints most dear abroad to birds they cast;
The flesh of them that do thee fear, the beasts devour and waste.
3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem as waters spilt they have,
So that there is not one of them to lay their dead in grave.
4 Thus are we made a laughing-stock almost the world throughout;
The enemies at us do mock, who dwell our coasts about.
5 How long, O Lord, wilt thou retain thy anger and thy rage?
And shall thy wrath and jealousy not any more assuage?
6 Upon those people pour the same, who did thee never know;
The realms which call not on thy Name consume and overthrow.
7 For they have got the upper hand, and Jacob's seed destroy'd;
His habitation and his land they have laid waste and void.
8 Bear not in mind our former faults, with speed some pity show;
And aid us, Lord, in our assaults, for we are weak and low.

The Second Part.

- 9 O God, that giv'st all health and grace, on us declare the same:
Weigh not our works, our sins deface, for honour of thy Name.
10 Why should the wicked thus alway, to us as people dumb,
In thy reproach rejoice and say, Where is their God become?
11 Require, O Lord, as thou see'st good, before our eyes in sight,
Of all these folk thy servants blood, which they spilt in despite.
12 Receive into thy sight in haste the clamours, grief, and wrong
Of such as are in prison cast, and bound in irons strong.
13 Thy force and strength to celebrate, Lord, set them out of band,
Who unto death are destinate, and in their foes strong hand.
14 The nations which have been so bold as to blaspheme thy Name,
Into their laps do thou sev'n-fold repay again the same.
15 So we thy flock and pasture sheep will praise thee evermore,
And teach all ages how to keep for thee like praise in store.

THOU shepherd, that dost Isr'el keep, give ear, and take good heed;
Who ledest Joseph like a sheep, and dost him watch and feed;
1 And thou, O Lord, whose seat is set on cherubims most bright,
Shew forth thyself, and do not let, send down thy beams of light.

2 Before Ephr'im and Benjamin, Manasses in likewise,
To shew thy pow'r do thou begin: come help us, Lord, arise.

3 Direct our hearts by thy good grace, convert us unto thee:
Shew us the brightness of thy face, and then full safe are we.

4 Lord God of hosts of Israel, how long wilt thou delay:
And 'gainst thy folk in anger swell, and wilt not hear them pray?

5 Thou dost them feed with sorrows deep, their bread with grief they
And drink the tears that they do weep, in measure full and great. (eat;

6 Thou hast us made a very strife to those that dwell about;
Which much doth please our enemies; they laugh and jest it out.

7 O take us, Lord, unto thy grace, convert our hearts to thee;
Shew forth to us thy joyful face, and we full safe shall be.

8 From Egypt, where it grew not well, thou brought'st a vine full
The heathen folk thou didst expel, and thou didst plant it there. (dear;

9 Thou didst prepare for it a place, and set its roots so fast,
That it did grow and spring apace, and fill'd the land at last.

The Second Part.

10 The hills were cover'd round about with shade that from it came:
Also the cedars strong and stout, with branches of the same.

11 Why then didst thou her walls destroy? her hedge pluck'd up thou
That all the folk that pass thereby, the same do spoil and waste. (hast,

12 The boar out of the wood so wild, doth dig and root it out:
The furious beasts out of the field devour it all about.

13 O Lord of hosts, return again, from heav'n do thou look down;
Behold, and with thy help sustain thy vineyard overthrown.

14 Thy pleasant vine, thy Israel, which thy right hand hath set;
The same which thou didst love so well, O Lord, do not forget.

15 They lop and cut it off apace, they burn it down with fire;
And thro' the frowning of thy face we perish in thine ire.

16 Let thy right hand be with him now, whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the Son of man, whom thou to thee hast made so strong.

17 And so when thou hast set us free, and saved us from shame,
Then will we never fall from thee, but call upon thy Name.

18 O Lord of hosts, thro' thy good grace convert us unto thee;
Behold us with a pleasant face, and then full safe are we.

P S A L. LXXXI. J. H.

BE light and glad, in God rejoice, who is our strength and stay;
Be joyful and lift up your voice to Jacob's God alway.

2 Prepare your instruments most meet some joyful psalm to sing;
Strike up with harp and lute so sweet on ev'ry pleasant string.

3 Blow as it were in the new moon with trumpets of the best;
As it is used to be done at any solemn feast.

4 For this is unto Israel a statute, which was made
By Jacob's God, and must full well be evermore obey'd.

3 This

P S A L M LXXXI, LXXXII.

5 This clause with Joseph was decreed, when he from Egypt came;
That as a witness all his seed should still observe the same.
6 When God himself had so prepar'd to bring him from that land;
Whereas the speech which he had heard he did not understand,
7 I from his shoulder took, saith he, the burden clean away;
And from the furnace set him free from burning brick of clay;
8 When thou in grief didst cry and call, I help'd thee speedily;
And I did answer thee withal, in thunder from on high.
9 Yea, at the waters of discord I did thee tempt and prove;
Where thou the anger of the Lord with murmuring didst move.
10 Hear, O my people Israel, what I do promise thee:
11 Regard, and mark my words full well, if thou wilt cleave to me.

The Second Part.

11 Thou shalt no God in thee reserve of any land abroad;
And in no wise bow to or serve a strange and foreign god.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I from Egypt set thee free:
Then ask of me abundantly, and I will give it thee.
13 But yet my people would not hear my voice, when that I spake,
And Israel would not obey, but did me quite forsake.
14 Then did I leave them to their will, in hardness of their heart;
To walk in their own counsels still; themselves they did pervert.
15 O that my people would have heard the words that I did say:
And Israel with due regard had walked in my way:
16 I should have soon destroy'd their foes, and brought them down
(full low,
And turn'd my hand against all those that sought their overthrow.
17 And they that at the Lord did rage, as liars should be found;
But for his folk, their time and age should with great joys be crown'd.
18 I would have fed them with the crop, and finest of the wheat:
And made the rock with honey drop, that they their fills might eat.

P S A L. LXXXII. J. H.

AMong the princes, men of might, the Lord himself doth stand,
To plead the cause of truth and right, with judges of the land;
2 How long, saith he, will you proceed false judgements to award?
Why have you partially agreed the wicked to regard?
3 Whereas of right you should defend the fatherless and weak;
And when the poor man doth contend, in judgement justly speak,
4 If ye be wise, defend the cause of poor men in the right:
And rid the needy from the claws of tyrants force and might.
5 They will not learn, nor understand, but still in darkness go;
All the foundations of the land are out of course also.
6 I had decreed assuredly, as gods to take you all;
Children also of the most High for love I did you call.
7 But notwithstanding ye shall die as men, and so decay:
O tyrants, you destroy will I, and pluck you quite away.
8 Up, Lord, and let thy strength be known, and judge the world with
For why? all nations are thy own, to take them as thy right. (might;

PSAL. LXXXIII. J. H.

DO not, O God, refrain thy tongue ; in silence do not stay :
Withold not, Lord, thyself so long, and make no more delay.

1 For why ? behold thy foes, and see how they do rage and cry :
And those that bear a hate to thee, hold up their heads on high.

2 Against thy folk they use deceit, and craftily enquire ;

For thine elect to lie in wait, in council they conspire.

3 Come on, say they, let us expel and pluck this folk away ;

So that the name of Israel may utterly decay.

4 They all conspire within their heart, how they may thee withstand ;

Against the Lord to take a part, they are in league and band.

5 The tents of all the Edomites, the Ishm'rites likewise :

The Hagarens and Moabites, their plots do still devise.

6 Gebal and Ammon do likewise with Amalek conspire ;

The Philistines against thee rise, with them that dwell at Tyre :

7 Assur is also join'd to them, in their conspiracy ;

And is become a fence and aid to Lot's posterity.

8 As thou didst to the Midianites, so serve them, Lord, each one :

To Jabin and to Sisera, beside the brook Kison :

The Second Part.

10 Make them now and their Lords appear like Zeb and Oreb then ;

As Zeba and Zalmunna were, the kings of Midian :

11 Who said, Let us throughout the land, in all the coasts abroad,

Possess and take into our hand the fair houses of God.

12 Turn them, O God, with storms so fast as wheels that have no

13 Like as the fire with rage and fume the mighty forest spalls :

And as the flame doth quite consume the mountains and the hills.

14 So let the tempest of thy wrath upon their necks be laid ;

And of thy wind and stormy breath, Lord, make them all afraid.

15 Lord, bring them all, I thee desire, to such rebuke and shame,

That it may cause them to enquire, and learn to seek thy Name.

16 And let them daily more and more to shame and slander fall ;

And in rebuke and obloquy confound and sink them all :

17 That they may know and understand, thou art the God most high ;

And that thou dost, with mighty hand, the world rule constantly.

PSAL. LXXXIV. J. H.

HOW pleasant is thy dwelling-place, O Lord of hosts, to me !

The tabernacles of thy grace, how pleasant, Lord, they be !

1 My soul doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad ;

My heart and flesh cry out also for thee the living God.

2 The sparrows find a room to rest, and save themselves from wrong ;

The swallow also hath a nest wherein to keep her young.

3 These birds full nigh thy altar may have place to sit and sing ;

O Lord of hosts, thou art alway my only God and King.

4 O ! they be blessed that may dwell within thy house always :

For they all times thy facts do tell, and ever give thee praise.

PSALM LXXXIV, LXXXV, LXXXVI.

- 6 Yea, happy sure likewise are they whose stay and strength thou art;
Who to thy house do mind the way, and seek it in their heart.
- 7 As they go thro' the vale of tears, they dig up fountains still:
That as a spring it all appears, and thou their pits dost fill.
- 8 From strength to strength they go full fast, no faintness there shall be;
And so the God of gods at last in Sion they do see.
- 9 O Lord of hosts, to me give heed, and hearken to my cry;
And let it through thine ears proceed, O Jacob's God most high.
- 10 O God, our shield, of thy good grace, regard, and so draw near;
Regard, O Lord, behold the face of thy Anointed dear.
- 11 For why? within thy courts one day is better to abide,
Than other where to keep or stay a thousand days beside.
- 12 Much rather had I keep a door within the house of God,
Than in the tents of wickedness to settle my abode.
- 13 For God the Lord, light, and defence will grace and worship give;
And no good thing will he withhold from them that purely live.
- 13 O Lord of hosts, that man is blest, and happy sure is he,
That is persuaded in his breast to trust all times in thee.

PSALM LXXXV. J. H.

- THOU hast been merciful indeed, O Lord, unto thy land:
For thou restoredst Jacob's seed, from thralldom by strong hand.
- 2 The wicked ways that they were in; thou didst them clean remit,
And thou didst hide thy peoples sin, full close thou cover'dst it.
- 3 And thou thy anger didst assuage, that all thy wrath was gone;
And so didst turn thee from thy rage, with them to be at one.
- 4 O God, our health, do thou convert thy people unto thee:
Put all thy wrath from us apart, and angry cease to be.
- 5 Shall thy fierce anger never end, but still be pour'd on us?
And shall thy wrath itself extend unto all ages thus?
- 6 Wilt thou not rather turn again, and quicken us, that we,
And all thy folk that yet remain may glad and joyful be.
- 7 O Lord, on us do thou declare thy goodness to our wealth:
Shew forth to us, and do not spare thy aid and saving health.
- 8 I'll hear what God the Lord doth say, to his he speaketh peace;
And to his saints, that never they return to foolishness.
- 9 For why? his help is still at hand to such as do him fear:
Whereby great glory in our land shall dwell and flourish there.
- 10 For truth and mercy there shall meet in one to take their place;
And peace shall justice with kiss greet, and there they shall embrace.
- 11 Truth from the earth shall spring apace, and flourish pleasantly:
So righteousness shall shew her face, and look from heav'n most high.
- 12 Yea, God himself doth take in hand to give us each good thing;
And thro' the coasts of all the land the earth her fruit shall bring.
- 13 Before his face shall justice go, much like a guide or stay:
He shall direct his steps also, and keep them in the way.

P S A L M LXXXVI, LXXXVII.

- 2 Preserve my soul, because my ways and doings holy be:
And save thy servant, O my God, that puts his trust in thee.
- 3 Thy mercy upon me express, and me defend alway;
For thro' the day I do not cease to thee, O Lord, to pray.
- 4 Comfort thy servant's soul, I pray, that now with pain is pin'd;
For unto thee I do alway lift up my soul and mind.
- 5 For thou art good and bountiful, thy gifts of grace are free:
Also thy mercy plentiful, to all that call on thee.
- 6 O Lord, likewise, when I do pray, regard, and give an ear;
Mark well the words that I do say, all my petitions hear.
- 7 In time when trouble doth me move, to thee I do complain;
For why, I know, and well can prove, thou answer'st me again.
- 8 Among the gods, O Lord, is none with thee to be compar'd:
And none can do as thou hast done, the like has not been heard.

The Second Part.

- 9 The Gentiles, and the people all, whom thou didst make and frame;
Before thy face on knees shall fall, and glorify thy Name.
- 10 For why? thou art so much of might, all power is thy own;
Thou workest wonders still in fight, for thou art God alone.
- 11 O teach me, Lord, thy way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:
O join my heart to thee so nigh, that I thy Name may dread.
- 12 To thee will I give thanks and praise, O Lord, with all my heart;
And glorify thy Name always, because my God Thou art.
- 13 For why? thy mercy shew'd to me is great and doth excel:
Thou sett'st my soul at liberty from out the lowest hell.
- 14 O Lord, the proud against me rise, and heaps of men of might;
They seek my soul, and in no wise, will have thee in their sight.
- 15 Thou, Lord, art merciful and kind, and very slow to wrath;
Thy goodness is full great I find, thy truth no measure hath.
- 16 O turn to me, and mercy shew, thy strength to me apply:
O help and save thy servant now, thy hand-maid's son am I.
- 17 On me some sign of favour show, that all my foes may see
And be aham'd, because that thou dost help and comfort me.

THAT city shall full well endure, her ground-work still doth stay,
Upon the holy hills full sure, it can no time decay.

2 God loves the gates of Sion best, his grace doth there abide:
He loves them more than all the rest of Jacob's tents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion, and abroad:
Great things, I say, are said of thee, thou city of our God.

4 On Rahab I will cast an eye, and bear in mind the same:
To Babylon also apply, and them that know my Name.

5 Lo! Palestine, and Tyre also, with Ethiopie likewise,
A People old, full long ago, were born, and there did rise.

6 Of Sion, they shall say abroad, that divers men of fame
Have there sprung up, and the high God hath founded fast the same.

My life and breath doth almost yield, and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am esteem'd as one of them that in the pit do fall,
And made as one among those men that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free from things that here remain:
It were more ease for me to be with them the which are slain.

6 As those that lie in grave, I say, whom thou hast clean forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away, and thou regard'st them not.

7 Yea, like to one shut up full sure, within the lowest pit:
In darksome place, and all obscure, and in the depth of it.

8 Thy anger and thy wrath likewise, full fore on me do lie:
And all thy storms against me rise, my soul to vex and try.

9 Thou putt'st my friends far off from me, and mak'st them hate me
I am shut up in prison fast, and can come forth no more. (fore:

10 My sight doth fail thro' grief and wo, I call to thee, O God:
Thro'out the day my hands also to thee I stretch abroad.

The Second Part.

11 Dost thou unto the dead declare thy wond'rous works of fame?
Shall th' dead to life again repair, and praise thee for the same?

12 Or shall thy loving kindness, Lord, be shewed in the grave?
Or shall with them that are destroy'd, thy truth her honour have?

13 Shall they that lie in dark full low, see all thy wonders great?
Or there shall they thy justice know, where men all things forget?

14 But I, O Lord, to thee alway, do cry and call apace;
My pray'r also, e'er it be day, shall come before thy face.

15 Why dost thou, Lord, abhor my soul in grief that seeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why dost thou hide thy face away from me?

16 I am afflicted, dying still, from youth many a year:
Thy terrors which do work me ill, with troubled mind I bear.

17 The furies of thy wrathful rage, full fore upon me lie:
Thy terrors they do not assuage, but press me heavily.

18 All day they compass me about, as water at the tide:
And all at once with streams full great beset me on each side.

19 Thou settest far from me my friends and lovers ev'ry one;
Yea, and my old acquaintance all out of my sight are gone.

P S A L. LXXXIX. J. H.

TO sing the mercies of the Lord, my tongue shall never spare:
My mouth from age to age accord, thy truth for to declare.

2 For I have said that mercy shall for evermore endure;
Thy faithfulness in the heav'ns all is 'stablish'd firm and sure.

3 With mine elect, saith God, have I, a faithful cov'nant made:
And sworn to David solemnly, having to him thus said:

P S A L M LXXXIX.

- 4 Thy seed for ever I will stay, and 'stablish it full fast;
And still uphold thy throne alway, from age to age to last.
- 5 The heav'ns do shew with joy and mirth, thy wond'rous works, O
(Lord;
Thy saints within the church on earth, thy faith and truth record.
- 6 Who with the Lord is equal then, in all the clouds abroad?
Among the sons of gods or men, what one is like our God?
- 7 God in th' assembly of the saints is greatly to be dread;
And over all that dwell about in rev'rence to be had.
- 8 Lord God of hosts, in all the world, what one is like to thee?
On ev'ry side, most mighty Lord, thy truth is seen to be.
- 9 The rage and fury of the sea thou rulest at thy will;
And when the waves thereof arise, thou mak'st them calm and still.
- 10 And Egypt, Lord, thou hast subdu'd, thou hast destroy'd it quite;
Thy foes thou closely hast pursu'd and scatter'd thro' thy might.

The Second Part.

- 11 The heav'ns are thine, and still have been, likewise the earth and
The world and all that is therein, thou foundest with thy hand. (land;
12 Both north and south, with east and west, thyself didst make and (frame;
Both Tabor mount and Hermon hill, rejoice and praise thy Name.
- 13 Thy arm is strong, and full of pow'r, all might therein doth lie:
The strength of thy right hand each hour thou liftest up on high.
- 14 In righteousness and equity thou hast thy seat and place:
Mercy and truth are still with thee, and go before thy face.
- 15 That folk is blest that knowest right the joyful sound, O God:
For in the favour of thy sight they walk full safe abroad:
- 16 And in thy Name thro' out the day they greatly do rejoice,
And thro' thy righteousness have they a pleasant fame and noise.
- 17 For why? their glory, strength, and aid, in thee only doth lie:
And thy goodness which hath us staid, shall lift our horn on high.
- 18 Our strength that doth defend us well, the Lord to us doth bring:
The Holy one of Israel, he is our Guide and King.
- 19 Sometimes thy will to holy men in visions thou dost show:
And thus didst say unto them then thy mind to make them know.
- 20 A man of might I have erect, your king and guide to be:
And set him up whom I elect, among the folk to me.

The Third Part.

- 21 My servant David I appoint to rule my people well:
And with my holy oil anoint him king of Israel.
- 22 For why? my hand is ready still with him for to remain:
And with my arm also I will him strengthen and sustain.
- 23 The enemies shall not oppress, they shall not him devour:
Nor shall the sons of wickedness on him have any pow'r.
- 24 His foes likewise I will destroy before his face in sight:
Those that him hate I will annoy, and strike them with my might.
- 25 My truth and mercy shall likewise upon him ever lie:
And in my Name his horn shall rise, and be exalted high.
- 26 His kingdom I will set to be upon the sea and land:
Also the running floods shall he embrace with his right hand.

P S A L M LXXXIX.

- 27 He shall depend with all his heart, on me, and thus shall say,
My Father, and my God thou art, my rock, my health, and stay.
28 As my first-born I will him take of all on earth that springs:
His might and honour shall surmount above all earthly kings.
29 My mercy shall be with him still, as I myself have told:
My faithful cov'nant to fulfil, my promise I will hold.
30 Also his seed I will sustain for ever strong and sure:
So that his seat shall still remain while heav'n and earth endure.

The Fourth Part.

- 31 If that his sons forsake my law, and so begin to swerve,
And of my judgements have no awe, and will not them observe:
32 Or if they do not use aright my laws for them prepar'd,
But set all my commandments light, and will not them regard:
33 Then with the rod will I begin their doings to amend:
And so will scourge them for their sin, whenever they offend.
34 But yet my mercy and goodness I will not take away,
From him, nor let my faithfulness in any wise decay.
35 But sure my cov'nant I will hold, with all that I have spoke;
No word, the which my lips have told, shall alter or be broke.
36 Once sware I by my holiness, and that perform will I:
With David I shall keep promise, to him I will not lie.
37 His seed for evermore shall reign, also his throne of might:
As doth the sun, it shall remain for ever in my sight.
38 And as the moon within the sky for ever standeth fast,
A faithful witness from on high, so shall his kingdom last.
39 But, Lord, thou dost him now reject, and put him in great fear:
Yea, thou art wroth with thine elect, thy own Anointed dear.
40 Thy cov'nant with thy servant made, thou hast quite overthrown;
And down upon the ground hast laid, and cast his royal crown.

The Fifth Part.

- 41 His hedges thou hast overthrown, his walls destroy'd quite round;
All his strong holds hast beaten down, and levell'd with the ground.
42 That he is sore destroy'd and torn of corners by thro'out;
And so is made a mock and scorn to all that dwell about.
43 Thou their right hand hast arm'd with pow'r, that him so sore
And all his foes that him devour, lo, thou hast made to joy. (annoy;
44 His sword's edge thou dost take away, that should his foes with-
To him in war no victory, thou giv'st, nor upper hand. (stand;
45 His glory thou dost always waste, his throne, his joy, his mirth
By thee is overthrown and cast full low upon the earth.
46 Thou hast cut off, and made full short his youth and joyful days;
And rais'd of him an ill report, to his shame and dispraise.
47 How long away from me therefore, for ever wilt thou turn?
And shall thy anger evermore like fire consume and burn?
48 O call to mind, remember then, my time consumeth fast:
Why hast thou made the sons of men as things in vain to waste?
49 What man is he that liveth, and death never thinks to see?
Or from the grave's devouring hand shall he his soul set free.
50 Where is, O Lord, thy great goodness so oft declar'd before;
Which by thy truth and uprightness to David thou hast swore?

P S A L M LXXXIX, XC, XCI.

51 The great rebukes to mind I call, that on thy servants lie;
The railings of the people all, borne in my breast have I.
52 Wherewith, O Lord, thy enemies blasphemed have thy Name;
The steps of thy Anointed one, they cease not to defame.
53 All praise be given unto thee, O God, the Lord most high:
From this time forth for evermore Amen, Amen, say I.

P S A L. XC. J. H.

THOU, Lord, hast been our sure defence, our place of ease and
In all times past, yea, so long since as cannot be exprest. (rest.)
2 Before was made mountain or hill, the earth and world abroad:
From age to age, and always still, for ever thou art God.
3 Thou grindest men thro' grief and pain, to dust or clay, and then
Thou unto them dost say again, Return, ye sons of men.
4 The lasting of a thousand years, what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appear, or as a watch by night.
5 So soon as thou dost scatter them, then is their life and trade,
E'en as a sleep, or like the grass, whose beauty soon doth fade;
6 Which in the morning shines full bright, but fadeth suddenly:
And is cut down before the night, all wither'd, dead and dry.
7 For thro' thine anger we consume, our might is much decay'd:
And of thy fervent wrath, O Lord, we are full fore afraid.
8 The wicked works that we have wrought thou sett'st before thine
Our privy faults, yea, all our thoughts, thy countenance doth'spy. (eye)
9 For thro' thy wrath our days do waste, thereof doth nought remain:
Our years consume as doth a blast, and are not call'd again.
10 The time of our abode on earth is threescore years and ten:
But if we come to fourscore years, our life is grievous then.

The Second Part.

11 For of this time, the strength and chief, we dote so much upon,
Is nothing else but pain and grief, and we as blatts are gone.
12 What man doth know what power, and what might thy anger
Or in his heart, who doth thee fear, according to thy wrath? (hath?)
13 Instruct us, Lord, to know and try how long our days remain;
That so we may our hearts apply, true wisdom to attain.
14 Return, O Lord; how long wilt thou in thy great wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy servants now, and help them in their need.
15 Refresh us with thy mercy soon, then shall we joyful be;
All times so long as life doth last, in heart rejoice will we.
16 As thou hast plagued us before, now also make us glad;
And for the years, wherein full fore affliction we have had.
17 O let thy work and pow'r appear, and on thy servants light;
And shew unto thy children dear, thy glory and thy might.
18 Lord, let thy grace and glory stand on us thy servants thus;
Confirm the works we take in hand, and prosper them to us.

P S A L. XCI. J. H.

HE that within the secret place of God most high doth dwell:
Under the shadow of his grace he shall be safe and well.
2 Thou art my hope, and my strong hold, I to the Lord will say:
My God he is, in him will I my whole affiance stay.

P S A L M XCI, XCII.

3 He shall defend thee from the snare the which the hunter laid:
 And from the deadly plague and care whereof thou art afraid.
 4 And with his wings shall cover thee, and keep thee safely there:
 His faith and truth thy fence shall be, as sure as shield and spear:
 5 So that thou never shalt have cause to fear, or be affright,
 For all the shafts that fly by day, or terrors of the night:
 6 Nor of the plague that privily doth walk in darkness fast:
 Nor yet of that which doth destroy, and at noon-day doth waste.
 7 Yea, at thy side as thou dost stand, a thousand dead shall be:
 Ten thousands more at thy right hand, and yet shalt thou be free.
 8 But thou shalt see it for thy part, thy eyes shall well regard:
 According unto their desert, the wicked have reward.
 9 For why? O Lord, I only rest, and fix my hope on thee:
 In the most High I put my trust, my sure defence is He.
 10 No evil shalt thou need to fear, with thee it shall go well;
 No plague shall ever once come near the house where thou dost dwell.
 11 For why? unto his Angels all with charge command doth he,
 That still in all thy ways they shall preserve and prosper thee.
 12 And in their hands shall bear thee up, still waiting thee upon:
 Lest that thy foot should happen for to dash against a stone.
 13 Upon the lion thou shalt go, the adder fell and long:
 On the young lion tread also, with dragons stout and strong.
 14 Because he sets his love on me, I'll save him by my might:
 And him advance, because that he doth know my Name aright.
 15 When he for help to me doth cry, an answer I will give;
 And from his grief take him will I, in glory for to live.
 16 With length of days and years I will him fully satisfy:
 And also my salvation still shew him assuredly.

P S A L. XCII. J. H.

IT is a thing both good and meet, to praise the highest Lord:
 And to thy Name, O thou most High, to sing with one accord.
 2 To shew the kindness of the Lord before the day be light:
 And to declare his truth abroad, when it doth draw to night.
 3 Upon ten-stringed instruments, on lute and harp so sweet:
 With all the mirth you can invent, of instruments most meet.
 4 For thou hast made me to rejoice in things so wrought by thee:
 That I have joy in heart and voice thy handy-works to see.
 5 O Lord, how glorious, and how great are thy works round about!
 So deeply are thy counsels set, that none can find them out.
 6 The man unwise cannot tell how this work to pass to bring:
 And fools also are most unfit to understand this thing.
 7 When as the wicked at their will like grass do spring full fast:
 And when they flourish in their ill they suddenly shall waste.
 8 But thou art mighty, Lord, most high; yea, thou dost reign therefore,
 In glory, and great Majesty, both now and evermore.
 9 Behold, O Lord, thy enemies shall be destroy'd alway:
 And all that work iniquity shall perish and decay.
 10 But thou, like as an unicorn shalt lift my horn on high:
 With fresh and new-prepared oil, anointed king am I.

P S A L M XCII, XCIII, XCIV.

- 11 And of my foes before mine eyes, shall see the fall and shame ;
 Of all that do against me rise my ears shall hear the same.
 12 The righteous flourish shall on high ; as palm-trees bud and blow :
 And as the cedars multiply, in Libanus that grow.
 13 For they are planted in the place and dwelling of our God ;
 Within his courts they spring apace, and flourish all abroad.
 14 And in their age much fruit shall bring, most pleasant to be seen :
 And also shall both bud and spring with boughs and branches green.
 15 To shew that God is good and just, and upright in his will :
 He is my rock, my hope and trust, in him there is no ill.

P S A L XCIII. J. H.

- THE Lord doth reign, and clothed is with majesty most bright :
 And to declare his strength likewise hath girt himself with might.
 2 The Lord also the earth hath made, and shaped it most sure :
 No might can make it move or fade, at stay it doth endure.
 3 Before the world was made or wrought, thy seat was set before :
 Beyond all time that can be thought, thou hast been evermore.
 4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rise ; they rore and make a noise :
 The floods, I say, did enterprize, and lifted up their voice.
 5 Yea, tho' the storms arise in sight, tho' seas do rage and swell :
 The Lord is strong and more of might ; for he on high doth dwell.
 6 O Lord, thy testimonies great are very sure, therefore
 Doth holiness become thy seat and house for evermore.

P S A L XCIV. J. H.

- O Lord, thou dost revenge all wrong, vengeance belongs to thee :
 Since then it doth to thee belong, declare that all may see.
 2 Set forth thyself, for thou of right the earth doth judge and guide :
 Reward the proud and men of might, according to their pride.
 3 How long shall wicked men bear sway, with lifting up their voice :
 Shall proud and wicked men alway, thus triumph and rejoice ?
 4 How long shall they with brags burst out, and proudly talk their fill ?
 Shall they rejoice that be so stout, whose works are ever ill ?
 5 Thy flock, O Lord, thy heritage, they vex and spoil full sore :
 Against the people they do rage, still daily more and more.
 6 The widows which are comfortless, and strangers they destroy ;
 They slay the children fatherless, and none doth put them by.
 7 And when they take these things in hand this talk they have of thee :
 Can Jacob's God this understand ? tush, no, he cannot see.
 8 O folk unwise, and people rude, some knowledge now discern :
 Ye fools among the multitude, at length begin to learn.
 9 The Lord who made the ear of man, he needs of right must hear :
 He made the eye, all things must then before his sight appear.
 10 The Lord doth all the world correct, and make them understand :
 Shall he not then your deeds detect, how can ye 'scape his hand ?

The Second Part.

- 11 The Lord doth know the heart of man and sees the same full plain :
 And he his very thoughts doth scan, and findeth them but vain.
 12 But, Lord, that man is happy sure, whom thou dost keep in awe ;
 And thro' correction dost procure to teach him in thy law.

13 Whereby

P S A L M XCIV, XCV, XCVI.

- 13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest, in time of trouble sit;
When wicked men shall be suppressed, and fall into the pit.
14 For sure the Lord will not refuse, his people for to take:
His heritage whom he did chuse, he will no time forsake.
15 Until that judgement be decreed to justice to convert:
That all may follow her with speed, that are of upright heart.
16 But who upon my part will stand against the cursed train?
Or who shall rid me from their hand that wicked works maintain?
17 Except the Lord had been my aid, my enemies to quell,
My soul and life had now been laid almost as low as hell.
18 When I did say, My foot doth slide, before that I could call,
Thy mercy, Lord, most ready was to save me from the fall.
19 When with myself I mused much, and could no comfort find:
Then, Lord, thy goodness did me touch, and that did ease my mind.
20 Wilt thou accustom, Lord, thyself, with wicked men to sit,
Who with pretence, instead of law, much mischief do commit?
21 For they consult against the life of righteous men and good:
And in their counsels they are rife to shed the guiltless blood.
22 But yet the Lord is unto me a strong and sure defence:
To him I flee, because he is my strength and confidence.
23 And he shall cause their mischiefs all themselves for to annoy;
And in their malice they shall fall, our God shall them destroy.

P S A L. XCV. J. H.

- O Come, let us lift up our voice, and sing unto the Lord:
In him our rock of health rejoice, let us with one accord.
2 Yea, let us come before his face to give him thanks and praise;
In singing psalms unto his grace, let us be glad always.
3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt, a great and mighty God,
A king above all gods thro'out, in all the world abroad.
4 The secrets of the earth so deep, and corners of the land:
The tops of hills that are most steep, he hath them in his hand.
5 The sea and waters all are his, for he the same hath wrought:
The earth and all that therein is, his hand hath made of nought.
6 Come, let us bow, and praise the Lord, before him let us fall;
And kneel to him with one accord, the which hath made us all.
7 For why? he is the Lord our God, for us he doth provide;
We are his flock, he doth us feed, his sheep, and he our guide.
8 To day if ye his voice will hear, then harden not your heart,
As ye with grudging many a year, provok'd him in desert.
9 Whereas your fathers tempted me, my power for to prove:
My wond'rous works when they did see, yet still they would me move.
10 Twice twenty years they did me grieve, which caused me to say,
They err in heart, and not believe; they have not known my way.
11 Wherefore I swear when that my wrath was kindled in my breast,
That they should never tread the path to enter in my rest.

P S A L. XCVI. J. H.

- Sing ye with praise unto the Lord, new songs with joy and mirth;
Sing unto him with one accord, all people of the earth:

P S A L M XCVI, XCVII.

- 1 Yea, sing unto the Lord alway, praise ye his holy Name;
Declare and shew from day to day, salvation by the same.
- 2 Among the heathen all declare his honour round about:
To shew his wonders do not spare, in all the world thro'out.
- 3 For why? the Lord is much of might, and worthy of all praise;
And he is to be dread of right, above all gods always.
- 4 For all the gods of heathen folk are idols that will fade;
Whereas our God he is the Lord that heav'n and earth hath made.
- 5 All praise and honour also dwell ever before his face;
Both pow'r and might likewise excel within his holy place.
- 6 Ascribe unto the Lord, therefore, all men with one accord,
All might and worship evermore, ascribe unto the Lord,
- 7 Ascribe unto the Lord also, the glory of his Name;
Into his courts with presents go, and offer there the same.

The Second Part.

- 8 Fall down, and worship ye the Lord, within his temple bright;
Let all the people of the world, be fearful at his sight.
- 9 Tell all the world, Be not afraid, the Lord doth reign above:
Yea, he the earth so fast hath staid, that it can never move.
- 10 And that it is the Lord alone who rules with princely might,
To judge the nations ev'ry one with equity and right.
- 11 The heav'ns shall joyfully begin, the earth likewise rejoice:
The sea with all that is therein, shall shout and make a noise.
- 12 The fields shall joy, and ev'ry thing that springeth on the earth;
The woods, and ev'ry tree shall sing with gladness and with mirth,
- 13 Before the presence of the Lord, and coming of his might:
When he shall justly judge the world, and rule his folk with right.

P S A L XCVII. J. H.

- THE Lord doth reign, for which the earth may sing with pleasant
Also the isles with joyful mirth may triumph and rejoice: (voice:
2 Both clouds and darkness likewise swell, and round about him beat;
Yea, right and justice ever dwell, and 'bide about his seat.
- 3 Yea, fire and heat at once do run, and go before his face,
Which all his enemies shall burn abroad in ev'ry place.
 - 4 His lightnings great full bright shall blaze, and to the world appear:
Whereat the earth did look and gaze with dread and deadly fear.
 - 5 The hills like wax did melt in sight and presence of the Lord;
They fled before that ruler's might, who guideth all the world.
 - 6 The heav'ns likewise declare and show his justice forth abroad:
That all the world may see and know the glory of our God.
 - 7 Confusion sure shall come to such as worship idols vain:
Also to those that glory much dumb pictures to maintain.
 - 8 For all the idols of the world, which they their gods do call,
Shall feel the power of the Lord, and down to him shall fall.
 - 9 With joy shall Sion hear this thing, and Judah shall rejoice:
For at thy judgements they shall sing with a most chearful voice,
 - 10 For thou, O Lord, art set on high in all the earth abroad:
And art exalted wond'rously above each other god.
 - 11 All ye that love the Lord, do this, hate all things that are ill:
For he doth keep the souls of his from such as would them spill.

12 And

P S A L M XCVII, XCVIII, XCIX, C.

12 And light doth spring up to the just, with pleasure for his part ;
Gladness and joy likewise to them : that are of upright heart.

13 Ye righteous, in the Lord rejoice, his holiness proclaim :
And thankfully with heart and voice be mindful of the same.

P S A L. XCVIII. J. H.

O Sing ye now unto the Lord a new and pleasant song :
For he hath wrought thro'out the world his wonders great and
2 With his right-hand full worthily he doth his foes devour ; (strong :
And gets himself the victory with his own arm and pow'r.

3 The Lord doth make the people know his saving health and might :
And also doth his justice show in all the heathens sight.

4 His grace and truth to Israel in mind he doth record :
And all the earth hath seen right well the goodness of the Lord.

5 Beglad in him with joyful voice, all people on the earth :
Give thanks to God, sing and rejoice to him with joy and mirth.

6 Upon the harp unto him sing, give thanks to him always :
Rejoice before the Lord our King, with trumpets sound his praise.

7 Yea, let the sea with all therein, for joy both rore and swell,
The earth likewise let it begin, with all that therein dwell.

8 And let the floods rejoice their fills, and clap their hands apace :
Yea, let the mountains and the hills triumph before his face.

9 For he shall come to judge and try the world and ev'ry wight :
And rule the people mightily, with justice and with right.

P S A L. XCIX. J. H.

THE Lord doth reign, altho' at it the people rage full fore :
Yea, he on Cherubins doth sit, tho' all the world doth rore.

2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell, is high and wond'rous great :
Above all folk he doth excel, and he aloft is set.

3 Let all men praise thy mighty Name, for it is fearful sure :
And let them magnify the same, that holy is and pure.

4 The princely power of our King, doth love judgement and right ;
Thou rightly rulest ev'ry thing in Jacob thro' thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our God devise, and honour to him shew :
And at his foot-stool worship him, that holy is and true.

6 Moses, Aaron, and Samuel, as priests on him did call :
When they did pray, he heard them well, and gave them answer all.

7 Within the cloud to them he spake, then did they labour still,
To keep such laws as he did make, according to his will.

8 O Lord, our God, thou didst them hear, and answer'dst them again ;
But their inventions punished, which foolish were and vain.

9 O praise our God and Lord therefore upon his holy hill :
For why ? our God, whom we adore, is the most holy still.

P S A L. C. J. H.

ALL people that on earth do dwell sing to the Lord with cheerful
Him serve with fear, his praise forth-tell, come ye before him and re- (voice :

2 The Lord, ye know, is God indeed, without our aid he did us make :
We are his flock, he doth us feed, and for his sheep he doth us take. (joice.

3 O enter

P S A L M C, CI, CII.

3 O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto :
 Praise, laud, and bleſs his Name always, for it is ſeemly ſo to do.
 4 For why? the Lord our God is good, his mercy is for ever ſure :
 His truth at all times firmly ſtood, and ſhall from age to age endure.

Another of the ſame, by J. H.

IN God the Lord be glad and light, praise him thro'out the earth :
 Serve him, and come before his ſight with ſinging and with mirth.
 2 Know, that the Lord our God he is, he did us make and keep :
 Not we ourſelves : for we are his own flock and paſture ſheep.
 3 O go into his gates always, give thanks within the ſame :
 Within his courts ſet forth his praise, and laud his holy Name.
 4 For why? the goodneſs of the Lord for evermore doth reign :
 From age to age thro'out the world his truth doth ſtill remain.

P S A L. CI. N.

IMercy will and judgement ſing, O Lord God, unto thee :
 O let me underſtand the ways, that good and holy be.
 2 Within my houſe I daily will walk with an heart upright :
 And I no kind of wicked thing, will ſet before my ſight.
 3 I hate their works that fall away, they ſhall not cleave to me :
 From me ſhall go the froward heart, no evil will I ſee.
 4 Him I'll deſtroy that ſlandereth his neighbour privily :
 The lofty heart I cannot bear, nor him that looketh high.
 5 My eyes ſhall be on them within the land that faithful be :
 In perfect way who walketh, ſhall be ſervant unto me.
 6 I will no guileful perſon have within my houſe to dwell :
 And in my preſence he ſhall not remain that lies doth tell.
 7 Betimes I will deſtroy e'en all the wicked of the land :
 That I may from God's city cut the wicked worker's hand,

P S A L. CII. N.

HEAR thou my pray'r, O Lord, and let my cry come unto thee :
 In time of trouble do not hide thy face away from me.
 2 Incline thine ear to me, make haſte to hear me when I call :
 For as the ſmoke doth fade, ſo do my days conſume and fall.
 3 And as an hearth my bones are burnt, my heart is ſmitten dead :
 And withers like the graſs, that I forget to eat my bread.
 4 By reaſon of my groning voice, my bones cleave to my ſkin
 As pelican in wilderneſs, ſuch caſe now am I in.
 5 And as an owl in deſert is, lo, I am ſuch an one :
 I watch, and as a ſparrow on the houſe-top am alone.
 6 For daily in reproachful wiſe, my foes they do me ſcorn :
 And them that mad upon me are, againſt me they have ſworn.
 7 Surely with aſhes as with bread, my hunger I have fill'd :
 And mingled have my drink with tears that from my eyes diſtill'd.
 8 Becauſe of thy diſpleaſure, Lord, thy wrath and great diſdain :
 For thou haſt ſet me up on high, and caſt me down again.
 9 The days wherein I paſs my life, are like the fleeting ſhade :
 And I am wither'd like the graſs that ſoon away doth fade.
 10 But thou, O Lord, for ever doſt remain in ſteady place :
 And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

P S A L M CII, CIII.

The Second Part.

- 11 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou to Sion wilt extend;
The time of mercy, now the time forefet is come to end.
12 For in the very stones thereof thy servants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their sight.
13 Then shall the heathen people fear the Lord's most holy Name;
And all the kings on earth shall dread his glory and his fame.
14 Then when the Lord, the mighty God, again shall Sion rear;
And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.
15 To pray'r of the poor destitute when he himself shall bend;
When he shall not disdain unto their suits for to attend.
16 This shall be written for the age that after shall succeed:
The people that are yet unborn, the Lord's renown shall spread.
17 From his high sanctuary he hath looked down below;
And out of heav'n most high he hath beheld the earth also.
18 That of the mourning captive he might hear the woful cry;
And that he might deliver those that were condemn'd to die.
19 That they in Sion may declare the Lord's most holy Name;
And in Jerusalem set forth the praises of the same.
20 Then when the people of the land, and kingdoms with accord,
Shall be assembled to perform their service to the Lord.

The Third Part.

- 21 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way;
And shorter he did cut my days, thus I therefore did say;
22 My God, in midst of all my days, now take me not away:
Thy years endure eternally, and never do decay.
23 Thou the foundations of the earth before all time hast laid;
The heav'ns also, they are the work, which thy own hands have made;
24 They all shall perish and decay, but thou remainest still:
And they shall all in time wax old, e'en as a garment will.
25 Thou as a garment shalt them change, and changed shall they be;
But thou dost still abide the same, thy years do never flee.
26 The children of thy servants shall continue and endure:
And in thy sight their happy seed for ever shall stand sure.

P S A L CIII. T.S.

- MY soul, give laud unto the Lord, my spirit do the same;
And all the secrets of my heart, praise ye his holy Name.
2 Praise thou the Lord, my soul, who hath to thee been very kind;
And suffer not his benefits to slip out of thy mind.
3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults, and thee restor'd again,
From all thy weak and frail disease, and heal'd thee of thy pain.
4 That did redeem thy life from death, from which thou could'st not
His mercy and compassion both, he did extend to thee. (flee:
5 That fill'd with goodness thy desire, and did thy youth prolong:
Like as the eagle casts her bill, again becoming young.
6 The Lord with justice doth repay all such as are oppress'd;
So that their sufferings and wrongs are turned to the best.
7 His ways and his commandments all to Moses he did show:
His counsels and his valiant acts the Isra'elites did know.

P S A L M CIII, CIV.

- 8 The Lord is kind and merciful, when sinners do him grieve;
 'The slowest to conceive his wrath, and readiest to forgive.
 9 He will not always chiding be, tho' we be full of strife;
 Nor keep our faults in memory, for all our sinful life.
 10 According to our sins also he doth us not regard;
 And after our iniquities he doth us not reward.
 11 But as the space is wond'rous great 'twixt earth and heav'n above;
 So is his goodness much more large to them that do him love.
 12 He doth remove our sins from us, and our offences all,
 As far as the sun-rising is full distant from his fall.

The Second Part.

- 13 And look what pity parents do unto their children bear;
 Like pity beareth God to such as worship him in fear.
 14 The Lord that made us knows our shape, our mould and fashion
 How weak and frail our nature is, and that we are but dust: (just;
 15 And how the time of mortal men is like the with'ring hay:
 Or like the flow'r, right fair in field, that fades full soon away.
 16 Whose gloss and beauty, stormy winds do utterly disgrace;
 And make that after their assaults such blossoms have no place.
 17 But yet the goodness of the Lord, with his shall ever stand:
 Their children's children do receive his righteousness at hand.
 18 I mean, who keep his covenant with all their whole desire;
 And not forget to do the thing that he doth them require.
 19 The heav'n's most high are made the seat and foot-stool of the
 And by his pow'r imperial he governs all the world. (Lord;
 20 Ye angels, which are great in pow'r, praise ye and bless the Lord:
 Who to obey and do his will immediately accord.
 21 Ye noble hosts and ministers, cease not to laud him still,
 Who ready are to execute his pleasure and his will.
 22 Yea, all his works in ev'ry place, praise ye his holy Name:
 My thankful heart, my mind and soul, praise ye also the same,

P S A L CIV. W. K.

MY soul praise the Lord, speak good of his Name,
 O Lord our great God, how dost thou appear!
 So passing in glory that great is thy fame:
 Honour and Majesty, in thee shine most clear.

- 2 With light as a robe thou hast thyself clad,
 Whereby all the earth thy greatness may see:
 The heavens in such sort thou also hast spread
 That they to a curtain compared may be.
 3 His chamber-beams lie in the clouds full sure,
 Which as his chariots are made him to bear.
 And there with much swiftness his course doth endure,
 Upon the wings riding of winds in the air.
 4 He maketh his spirits as heralds to go,
 And lightnings to serve we see also prest:
 His will to accomplish they run to and fro,
 To save or consume things, as seemeth him best,
 5 He groundeth the earth so firmly and fast,
 That it once to move none shall have such pow'r;

The

PSALM CIV.

The deep a fair cov'ring for it made thou hast,
Which by its own nature the hills would devour.

6 But at thy rebuke the waters do flee,
And so give due place thy word to obey:
At thy voice of thunder so fearful they be,
That in their great raging they haste soon away.

7 The mountains full high they then up ascend,
If thou do but speak, thy word they fulfil:
So likewise the valleys most quickly descend:
Where thou them appointest, remain they do still.

8 Their bounds thou hast set how far they should run,
So that in their rage not that pass they can:
For God hath appointed they shall not return
The earth to destroy more, which made was for man.

The Second Part.

9 He sendeth the springs to strong streams or lakes,
Which run so full swift amongst the huge hills;
Where both the wild asses their thirst often slakes,
And beasts of the mountains thereof drink their fills.

10 By these pleasant springs and rivers most clear,
The fowls of the air abide shall and dwell,
Who moved by nature to hop here and there,
Among the green branches their songs shall excel.

11 The mountains to moist, the clouds he doth use;
The earth with his works is wholly replete:
So as the brute cattle he doth not refuse:
But grafs doth provide them, and herb for man's meat.

12 Yea, bread, wine, and oil, he made for man's sake;
His face to refresh, and heart to make strong:
The cedars of Liban, the great Lord did make:
Which trees he doth nourish that grow up so long.

13 In these, many birds build, and all make their nests:
In fir-tree the storks remain and abide:
The high hills are succours for wild goats to rest:
Also the rock stony for conies to hide.

14 The moon then is set her seasons to run,
The days from the night thereby to discern:
And by the descending also of the sun,
The cold from heat alway thereby we do learn.

15 When darkness doth come by God's will and pow'r,
Then creep forth do all the beasts of the wood:
The lions range roring, their prey to devour;
But yet, 'tis thee, Lord, who givest them food.

16 As soon as the sun is up, they retire,
To couch in their dens then are they full fain:
That man to his work may as right doth require,
'Till night come and call him to take rest again.

The Third Part.

17 How sundry, O Lord, are all thy works found!
With wisdom full great, they are indeed wrought;

P S A L M CIV, CV.

So that the whole world of thy praise doth sound;
And as for thy riches, they pass all mens thought.

18 So is the great sea, which is large and broad,
Where creeping things swarm, and beasts of each sort:
There mighty ships sail, and some lie at road;
The whale huge and monst'rous there also doth sport.

19 All things on thee wait, thou dost them relieve;
And thou in due time full well dost them feed;
Now when it doth please thee the same for to give,
They gather full gladly, those things which they need.

20 Thou open'st thy hand, and they find such grace,
That they with good things are filled we see:
But sore they are troubled if thou hide thy face;
For if thou their breath take vile dust then they be.

21 Again, when thy spirit from thee doth proceed,
All things to appoint, and what shall ensue:
Then are they created, as thou hast decreed,
And dost by thy goodness, the dry earth renew.

22 The praise of the Lord for ever shall last:
Who may in his works, by right well rejoice;
His look can the earth make to tremble full fast:
And likewise the mountains to smoke at his voice.

23 To this Lord and God will I sing always,
So long as I live my God will praise I:
Then am I most certain my words shall him please,
I will rejoice in him, to him will I cry.

24 The sinners, O Lord, consume in thine ire,
Also the perverse, them root out with shame:
But as for my soul now, let it still desire,
And say with the faithful, Praise ye the Lord's Name.

P S A L. CV: N.

GIVE praises unto God the Lord, and call upon his Name:
Among the people all declare his works to spread his fame.

2 Sing joyfully unto the Lord, yea, sing unto him praise;
And talk of all his wond'rous works that he hath wrought always.

3 In honour of his holy Name rejoice with one accord:
And let the heart also be glad of them that seek the Lord.

4 Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternal might:
Yea, seek his face incessantly, and presence of his sight.

5 The wond'rous works which he hath done keep still in mind:
Let not the judgements of his mouth out of your mind depart: (heart:

6 Ye, that of faithful Abraham his servant are the seed:
Ye, his elect, the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For why? 'tis he alone that is the mighty Lord our God:
And his most righteous judgements are in all the earth abroad.

8 His promise and his covenant, which he hath made to his,
He hath remember'd evermore to thousands of degrees.

The Second Part.

9 The covenant which he hath made with Abram long ago:
And faithful oath which he hath sworn to Isaac also,

P S A L M. CV.

- 10 And did appoint it for a law, that Jacob should obey:
And for eternal covenant to Israel alway.
- 11 When thus he said, lo, I to you all Canaan land will give;
The lot of your inheritance, wherein your feed shall live.
- 12 Altho' their number at that time did very small appear:
Yea, very small, and in the land they then but strangers were.
- 13 While yet they went from land to land, without a sure abode;
And while from sundry kingdoms they did wander all abroad.
- 14 Yet wrong at no oppressor's hand he suffer'd them to take;
But e'en the great and mighty kings reproved for their sake.
- 15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be:
Nor do the prophets any harm that do pertain to me.
- 16 He call'd a dearth upon the land, of bread destroy'd the store:
But yet against the time of need did send a man before.

The Third Part.

- 17 E'en Joseph who had once been sold to live a slave in wo;
Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose soul the iron pierc'd into.
- 18 Until the time came, when his cause was known apparently:
The mighty word of God the Lord his innocence did try.
- 19 The King sent and deliver'd him from prison where he was:
The ruler of the people then did freely let him pass;
- 20 And over all his house he made him lord, to bear the sway;
And of his substance made him have the rule and all the stay;
- 21 That he might to his will instruct the princes of the land:
And wisdom teach his senators rightly to understand.
- 22 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also:
And Jacob in the land of Ham did sojourn to and fro.
- 23 His people he exceedingly in numbers made to grow,
And stronger than their enemies who fought their overthrow.
- 24 Whose heart he turned, that with hate they did his people treat;
And did his servants wrongfully abuse with base deceit.

The Fourth Part.

- 25 His faithful servant Moses then, and Aaron whom he chose;
He did command to go to them, his message to disclose.
- 26 His wonderful and mighty signs among them he did show:
And wonders in the land of Ham then did they work also.
- 27 Darkness he sent, and made it dark, instead of brighter day:
And his commission and his word they did not disobey.
- 28 He turn'd their waters into blood, their fish also did slay:
Their land brought frogs e'en in the place where their king Phar'oh lay.
- 29 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noisome
And all the quarters of the land were fill'd with crawling lice. (flies)
- 30 He gave them cold and stony hail, instead of milder rain:
And fiery flames within their land he sent unto their pain.
- 31 He smote their vines and all the trees whereon the figs did grow:
And all the trees within their coasts also did overthrow:
- 32 He spake, then caterpillers did and grasshoppers abound;
Eating the grass in all their land, and fruit of all their ground.

P S A L M CV, CVI.

The Fifth Part.

33 The first begotten in their land with dearth did likewise smite :
 Yea, the beginning and first-fruit of all their strength and might.
 34 With gold and silver caused his from Egypt's land to pass :
 And in the number of their tribes no feeble one there was.
 35 Egypt was glad and joyful then, when they did thence depart :
 For terror and the fear of them was fall'n upon their heart.
 36 To shroud them from the parching heat a cloud he did display :
 And fire he sent to give them light, when night had hid the day.
 37 They asked, and he caused quails to rain at their request ;
 And fully with the bread of heav'n their hunger he repress :
 38 He opened the stony rock, and waters gushed out :
 Also the dry and parched ground, like rivers ran about.
 39 For of his holy cov'nant he was mindful evermore ;
 Which to his servant Abraham he plighted long before :
 40 He brought his people forth with mirth, and his elect with joy,
 Out of the cruel land where they had liv'd in great annoy.
 41 And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitful lands :
 The labours of the people did they take into their hands :
 42 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore,
 And faithfully obey his laws. Praise ye the Lord therefore.

P S A L. CVI. N.

PRAISE ye the Lord, for he is good, his mercy lasts alway :
 Who can express his noble acts, or all his praise display ?
 2 They blessed are that judgement keep, and justly do alway :
 With favour of thy people, Lord, remember me I pray.
 3 And with thy saving health, O Lord, vouchsafe to visit me,
 That I the great felicity of thine elect may see.
 4 And with thy people's joy I may a joyful mind possess :
 And may with thine inheritance a chearful heart express.
 5 Both we and our forefathers all, have sinned every one :
 We have committed wickedness, and very lowly done.
 6 The wonders great, which thou, O Lord, hast done in Egypt's
 Our fathers, tho' they saw them all, yet did not understand. (land :
 7 Nor yet thy mercies multitude did keep in memory :
 But at the sea, yea, the Red-sea, rebell'd ungratefully.
 8 Nevertheless he saved them for honour of his Name ;
 That he might make his power known, and spread abroad his fame.
 9 The Red-sea he did then rebuke, and forthwith it was dry'd :
 As in the wilderness, so thro' the deep he did them guide :
 10 He sav'd them from the cruel hand of their most spiteful foe ;
 And from their enemies he did deliver them also.

The Second Part.

11 The waters did them overthrow ; not one was left alive :
 Then they believ'd his word, and praise in song they did him give.
 12 But very soon ungratefully his works they quite forgot :
 And for his counsel and his will they did neglect to wait.
 13 But sinned in the wilderness with fond and greedy lust :
 And in the desert tempted God, their only stay and trust.

P S A L M C VI.

- 14 Who then their wanton minds desire, did suffer them to have:
But waisting leanness therewithal, into their souls he gave.
15 Then when they lodged in their tents, at Moses they did grutch:
Aaron the holy of the Lord, they also envy'd much.
16 Therefore the earth did open wide, and Dathan did devour:
And all Abiram's company did cover in that hour.
17 In their assembly kindled was a hot consuming fire:
And waisting flame did then burn up the wicked in his ire.
18 Upon the hill of Horeb they an idol calf did frame:
And there the molten image they did worship of the same.
19 Thus to the likeness of a calf, which feedeth on the grass,
They turned all their glory, and their honour did deface.
20 And God their only Saviour they unthankfully forgot,
Who many great and mighty things in Egypt land had wrought.

The Third Part.

- 21 And in the land of Ham for them most wond'rous works had done:
And by the Red-sea dreadful things performed long ago.
22 Therefore because they shew'd themselves forgetful and unkind,
To bring destruction on them all he purpos'd in his mind.
23 Had not his chosen Moses stood before him in the way,
To turn away his wrath lest he should them destroy and slay.
24 They did despise the pleasant land that he to them did give:
Yea, and the words that he had spoke they did no whit believe.
25 But in their tents with grudging heart, they wickedly repin'd:
Nor to the voice of God the Lord, did give a heark'ning mind.
26 Therefore against them lifted he his strong revenging hand,
Them to destroy in wilderness, before they saw the land.
27 And to destroy their seed among the nations with his rod;
And thro' the kingdoms of the world to scatter them abroad.
28 To Baal-peor they did join themselves most wickedly:
The sacrifices of the dead, eating most greedily.
29 Thus they with their inventions did his anger much provoke:
And in his sore enkindled wrath the plague upon them broke.
30 But Phineas stood up with zeal the sinner vile to slay:
And judgement he did execute, and then the plague did stay.

The Fourth Part.

- 31 It was imputed unto him for righteousness that day:
And from henceforth so counted is from race to race alway.
32 At waters called Meribah they did him angry make:
Yea, so far forth, that Moses then was punish'd for their sake.
33 Because they vex'd his spirit so that in impatient heat,
His lips spake unadvisedly, his fervour was so great.
34 Nor, as the Lord commanded them, did they the people slay,
But were among the heathen mix'd, and learn'd their wicked way.
35 They did their idols serve, which was their ruin and decay:
To devils sons and daughters did they offer up and slay.
36 Yea, with unkind and murd'ring knife the guiltless blood they spilt:
Yea, their own sons and daughters blood, without all cause of guilt.
37 Whom they to Canaan idols then offer'd with wicked hand:
And so with blood of innocents defiled was the land.

P S A L M CVI, CVII.

38 Thus were they stained with their works of their own filthy way :
 And with their own inventions did a whoring go astray.
 39 Therefore against his people was his anger kindled sore :
 And e'en his own inheritance he did abhor therefore.
 40 Into the hands of heathen men he gave them for a prey,
 And made their foes their lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The Fifth Part.

41 Yea, and their hateful enemies oppress'd them in their land :
 And they were humbly made to stoop as subjects to their hand.
 42 Full often times from thrall had he deliver'd them before :
 But they rebell'd against him, and provok'd him evermore.
 43 Therefore they by their wickedness were brought full low to lie :
 Yet when he saw them in distress, he hearken'd to their cry.
 44 He call'd to mind his covenant which he to them had sworn :
 And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.
 45 And favour he them made to find before the sight of those,
 That led them captive from their land, tho' they had been their foes.
 46 Save us, O Lord, that art our God, we do thee humbly pray :
 And from among the heathen folk, Lord, gather us away :
 47 That we may triumph and rejoice, in thy most holy Name :
 That we may glory in thy praise, and sounding of thy fame.
 48 The Lord the God of Israel, be blessed evermore :
 Let all the people say, Amen, Praise ye the Lord therefore.

P S A L. CVII. W. K.

GIVE thanks unto the Lord our God, for very kind is he :
 And that his mercy hath no end, all mortal men may see.
 2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath, with thanks shall praise his Name,
 And shew how they from foes were freed, and how he wrought the (same.
 3 He gather'd them forth of the lands, that lay so far about ;
 From east to west, from north to south, his hand did find them out.
 4 They wander'd in the wilderness, and strayed from the way :
 Finding no city where to dwell, that serve might for their stay.
 5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great, within those deserts void ;
 That faintness them assaulted, and their souls greatly annoy'd.
 6 Then did they cry in their distress unto the Lord for aid,
 Who did remove their troublous state, according as they pray'd.
 7 And by the way which was most right he led them like a guide ;
 That they might to their city go, and safely there abide.
 8 Let men therefore before the Lord confess his goodness then ;
 And shew the wonders that he doth before the sons of men.
 9 For he their empty souls sustain'd, whom thirst had made to faint :
 Their hungry souls with goodness fed, and heard their sad complaint.
 10 Such as do dwell in darkness deep, where they on death do wait :
 Fast bound to bear such grievous pains, as iron chains do threat.

The Second Part.

11 Because against the words of God they proudly did rebel :
 Esteeming light his counsels high, which do so far excel.

P S A L M CVII.

12 But when he humbled them full low, they then fell down with grief;
And none was found that could them help, or give them some relief.

13 Then did they cry in their distress unto the Lord for aid;
Who did remove their troublous state according as they pray'd.

14 For he from darkness brought them out, and from death's dreadful (shade,
Bursting with force the iron bands which them before did lade.

15 Let men therefore before the Lord, confess his goodness then,
And shew the wonders that he doth before the sons of men:

16 For he threw down the gates of brass with strong and mighty hand:
The iron bars in sunder brake, nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folks great plagues do feel, by reason of their sin;
And for their great transgression which they still continue in.

18 Their souls abhorr'd all sorts of meat, no relish they could have;
By which means they were almost brought unto the very grave.

19 Then did they cry in their distress unto the Lord for aid,
Who did remove their troublous state, according as they pray'd:

20 For then he sent to them his word, which health did soon restore;
And brought them from those dangers deep wherein they were before.

The Third Part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord, confess his goodness then;
And shew the wonders that he doth before the sons of men:

22 And let them offer sacrifice to him most thankfully,
And speak of all his wond'rous works with gladness and with joy.

23 Such as in ships and brittle barks into the seas descend:
Their merchandize thro' fearful floods to compass and to end.

24 These men are forced to behold the Lord's works what they be:
And in the dreadful deep, the same most marvellous they see.

25 For at his word the stormy wind ariseth in a rage,
And stirreth up the surges so, that nought can them assuage.

26 Then are they lifted up so high, the clouds they seem to gain:
And plunging down the depth until their souls consume with pain.

27 And like a drunkard to and fro, now here now there they reel,
As men that had their reason lost, and had no sense to feel;

28 Then did they cry in their distress unto the Lord for aid,
Who did remove their troublous state, according as they pray'd.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make the sturdy storms to cease;
So that the waves from their great rage are brought to rest and peace.

30 Then glad they are that rest is come, which they so much did crave:
And to the hav'n by him are brought, which they so fain would have.

The Fourth Part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord confess his goodness then,
And shew the wonders that he doth before the sons of men.

32 Let them in presence of the folk with praise extol his Name;
And where the elders use to sit, there let them do the same.

33 The wilderness he often makes with water to abound:
And water-springs he often turns to dry and parched ground.

34 A fruitful land with pleasure deck'd, full barren doth he make:
When on their sins that dwell therein he doth just vengeance take.

P S A L M CVII, CVIII, CIX.

- 35 Again the wilderness full rude he maketh fruit to bear :
 With clear and pleasant water-springs, tho' none before were there :
 36 Wherein such hungry souls are set as he hath freely chose,
 That they a city might them build to dwell in safe from foes.
 37 That they may sow their pleasant land, and vineyards also plant ;
 To yield them fruits of such increase, that they may have no want.
 38 They multiply exceedingly, the Lord doth bless them so :
 Who also maketh the brute beasts, in numbers great to grow.
 39 But when the faithful are brought low, by the oppressors stout,
 Diminishing thro' many plagues that compass them about ;
 40 Then doth he princes bring to shame, which did them fore oppress,
 And likewise caused them to err when in the wilderness.
 41 But yet the poor he raiseth up out of his troubles deep,
 And often doth his train augment much like a flock of sheep.
 42 The righteous shall behold this sight, and also much rejoice :
 Whereas the wicked and perverse, with grief shall stop their voice.
 43 But who is wise that now full well he may these things record :
 For certainly such shall perceive the kindness of the Lord.

P S A L. CVIII. J. H.

- O God, my heart prepared is, my tongue is likewise so ;
 I will advance my voice in song, that I thy praise may show,
 2 Awake my viol and my harp, sweet melody to make :
 And in the morning I myself right early will awake.
 3 By me among the people, Lord, still praised shalt thou be ;
 And I among the heathen folk will praises sing to thee ;
 4 Because thy mercy doth ascend above the heav'n most high :
 Also thy truth doth reach the clouds within the lofty sky.
 5 Above the high and starry heav'ns, exalt thyself, O God :
 Display likewise upon the earth, thy glory all abroad ;
 6 That thy beloved also may be set at liberty :
 Help, O my God, with thy right hand, and hear me speedily.
 7 God in his holiness hath spoke, wherefore my joys abound :
 Sichem I will divide, and mete the vale of Succoth's ground.
 8 And Gilead shall be my own, Manasses mine shall be :
 My head-strength Ephraim, and law shall Judah give to me.
 9 Moab my wash-pot is, my shoe o'er Edom I will throw :
 Upon the land of Palestine in triumph will I go.
 10 Who to the city strong shall be, leader and guide to me :
 Also by whom to Edom's land conveyed shall I be.
 11 Is it not thou, O Lord, who late hadst us forsaken quite ?
 And wilt not thou, Lord, also go forth with our hosts to fight ?
 12 Give us, O Lord, thy saving aid when troubles do assail :
 For all the help of man is vain, and can no whit avail.
 13 Thro' God we shall do valiant acts, and worthy of renown :
 He shall subdue our enemies, yea, he shall tread them down.

P S A L. CIX. N.

- IN speechless silence do not hold, O God, thy tongue always :
 E'en thou, O Lord, because thou art the God of all my praise.
 2 The wicked and the guileful mouths on me disclosed be ;
 And they with false and lying tongues have spoken unto me.

P S A L M CIX.

3 They did beset me round about with words of hateful spight :
 Without all cause of my desert against me they did fight.
 4 For my good will they were my foes, then I began to pray :
 My good with ill, my friendliness, with hate they did repay.
 5 Set thou the wicked over him, to have the upper hand :
 At his right hand, Lord, suffer thou his hateful foe to stand.
 6 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein ;
 And let the pray'r that he doth make be turned into sin :
 7 Few be his days, his charge also let thou another take :
 His children let be fatherless, his wife a widow make.
 8 His off-spring let be vagabonds, and ever beg their bread ;
 In places desolate and waste, let them seek to be fed.
 9 Let covetous extortioners get all his goods in store,
 And let the stranger spoil the fruit of all his toil before.
 10 Let there be none to pity him, let there be none at all,
 That on his children fatherless will let their mercy fall.

The Second Part.

11 Let his posterity be quite destroy'd, and never breed :
 Their name out-blotted in the age that after shall succeed.
 12 Let not his father's wickedness from God's remembrance fall ;
 And never let his mother's sin be done away at all.
 13 But in the presence of the Lord let them for ever stay ;
 That from the earth their memory he may cut clean away.
 14 Since mercy he forgot to shew, but did pursue with spight
 The troubled man, and thought to slay the woful-hearted wight,
 15 As he did cursing love, it shall happen unto him so :
 And as he did not blessing love, far from him it shall go.
 16 As he with cursing clad himself, so it like water shall Enter his bowels, and like oyl into his bones shall fall.
 17 As garment let it be to him, to cover him withal ;
 And as a girdle wherewith he always be girded shall.
 18 Let this be a reward from God, of him that is my foe :
 Yea, and of those that evil spake against my soul also.
 19 But thou, O Lord, that art my God, deal graciously with me :
 Deliver me for thy Name's sake, for great thy mercies be.
 20 Because in depth of great distress I needy am, and poor :
 Also within my pained breast, my heart is wounded sore.

The Third Part.

21 E'en so do I depart away, as doth declining shade :
 And as the grasshopper so I am shaken off and fade.
 22 With fasting long from needful food my knees enfeebled are,
 And all the fatness of my flesh is gone with grief and care.
 23 And I also a vile reproach to them am made to be ;
 And they that did upon me look, did shake their heads at me.
 24 Help me therefore, O God, I pray, my aid and succour be :
 According to thy mercies great save and deliver me.
 25 And they shall know thereby that this is thy most mighty hand,
 And that 'tis thou that hast it done, they well shall understand.

P S A L M CIX, CX, CXI.

16 Altho' they curse with spite, yet thou shalt blefs with loving voice;
When they rise up and come to ihame, thy servant shall rejoyce.

27 Let them with shame be clothed all, that are my enemies:
And with confusion as a cloke, be covered likewise.

28 But greatly I will with my mouth give thanks unto the Lord:
And I among the multitude his praises will record.

29 For he with help at his right hand, will stand the poor man by,
To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.

P S A L. CX. N.

THE Lord did say unto my Lord, sit thou on my right hand,
Till I have made my foes a stool whereon thy feet shall stand.

2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the scepter of thy might:
Amidst thy mortal foes be thou the ruler in their fight.

3 And in the day on which thy reign and power they shall see:
Then free-will-offering shall all the people give to thee.

4 Yea, with an holy worshipping, then offer shall they all:
Thy birth-dew is the dew that doth from womb of morning fall.

5 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repent what he doth say:
By th' order, of Melchisedech, thou art a priest alway.

6 The Lord thy God on thy right hand, that standeth for thy stay,
Shall wound for thee the stately kings in that his wrathful day.

7 The heathen he shall judge, and fill the place with bodies dead:
And over divers countries shall in sunder smite the head.

8 And he shall drink out of the brook that runneth in the way:
Wherefore he shall lift up on high his royal head that day.

P S A L. CXI. N.

WITH heart I do accord
In presence of the just:
For great his works are found,
As do him love and trust.

2 His works are glorious,
It ever doth endure:
His wond'rous works he would
His mercy is full sure.

3 Such as to him bear love,
He hath up for them laid:
For this they shall well find,
And keep them as he said.

4 For he did not disdain,
By lightning and by thunders:
When he the heathens land,
Where they beheld his wonders.

5 Of all his works ensu'th
Whereto his statutes tend:
They are decreed sure,
On which we may depend.

It also hath appear'd:
His promise doth not fail,
His holy Name be fear'd.

WHEN Iſrael by God's command from Phar'oh's land was bent,
And Jacob's houſe the ſtrangers left, and in the ſame train

So did the Iſr'elites declare his kingdom, pow'r, and might.

The roling ſtreams of Jordan's flood gave back immediately.
4 As rams afraid the mountains ſkipt, their ſtrength did them forſake:
And as the ſilly trembling lambs, their tops did beat and ſhake.
5 What ailed thee, O ſea, that thou ſo ſuddenly didſt fly?
Ye rolling waves of Jordan's flood, why turn'd ye ſo ſwiftly?

Why did your tops, as trembling lambs, quiver with fear and quake?

Before the face of Jacob's God, fear ye both sea and land.

And from the stony flint doth send fountains of water clear.

P S A L. CXV. N.

NOT unto us, Lord, not to us, but to thy Name give praise;
Both for thy mercy and thy truth that are in thee always.
2 Why shall the heathen scorn us, say, Where is their God become?
Our God he is in heav'n, and what he will'd, that he hath done.
3 Their idols silver are, and gold, work of mens hands they be:
They have a mouth, but do not speak, and eyes but do not see.
4 And they have ears join'd to their heads, but do not hear at all;
Noses also they formed have, but do not smell withal.
5 And hands they have, and handle not, and feet, but cannot walk:
A throat they have, yet thro' the same they do not speak or talk.
6 They and their maker are alike, and those whose trust they be:
O Israel, trust in the Lord, thy help and shield is he.
7 O Aaron's house, trust in the Lord, that still defendeth thee:
Ye that do fear him, trust in him, your sure defence is he.
8 The Lord of us hath mindful been, and will us bless also:
On Israel and Aaron's house his blessings will bestow.
9 Them that be fearers of the Lord, he sure will bless them all;
Yea, he will bless them ev'ry one, e'en both the great and small.
10 To you alway the living Lord, will multiply his grace;
And also to the children that shall follow of your race.
11 Ye are the blessed of the Lord, e'en of the Lord most high:
Who both the heav'n and earth did make, and fix immoveably.
12 The heav'ns above, the highest heav'ns, belong unto the Lord:
The earth unto the sons of men he gave of free accord.
13 They that be dead do not with praise, set forth the Lord's renown:
Nor any that into the place of silence do go down.
14 But we will praise the Lord our God, henceforth for evermore:
He only worthy is of praise, praise ye the Lord therefore.

P S A L. CXVI. N.

I Love the Lord, because the voice of my pray'r heard hath he:
I'll ever call on him, because he bow'd his ear to me.
2 E'en when the snares of cruel death about beset me round:
When pains of hell me caught, and when I wo and sorrow found.
3 Upon the Name of God the Lord then did I call and say,
Deliver thou my soul, O Lord, I do thee humbly pray.
4 The Lord is very merciful, and just he is also:
And in our God compassion doth most plentifully flow.
5 The Lord in safety doth preserve all those that simple be:
I was in woful misery, and he deliver'd me.
6 And now my soul, since thou art safe, return unto thy rest:
For largely unto thee the Lord his bounty hath express'd.
7 Because thou hast delivered my soul from deadly thrall:
My moisten'd eyes from mournful tears, my sliding feet from fall.
8 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walk therefore:
I did believe, therefore I spake, but I was troubled sore.

The Second Part.

- 9 I said in my distress and fear, that all men liars be;
What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?
10 The wholesome cup of saving health I thankfully will take,
And on the Name of God will call when I my pray'rs do make.
11 I to the Lord will pay my vows with joy and great delight,
Now at this very present time, in all his people's sight.
12 Right dear and precious in his sight he always doth esteem
The death of all his holy ones, whatever men do deem.
13 Thy servant, Lord, thy servant lo, I do myself confess,
Son of thy hand-maid, thou hast broke the bonds of my distress.
14 Therefore I'll offer up to thee a sacrifice of praise,
And I will call upon the Name of God the Lord always.
15 I to the Lord will pay my vows with joy and great delight,
Now at this very present time in all his people's sight.
16 Yea, in the courts of God's own house, and in the midst of thee,
O thou Jerusalem. Therefore the Lord our God praise ye.

P S A L. CXVII. N.

- O All ye nations of the world, praise ye the Lord always:
And all ye people ev'ry where set forth his noble praise.
2 For great his kindness is to us, his truth doth not decay:
Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God, praise ye the Lord alway.

P S A L. CXVIII. N.

- O Give ye thanks to God the Lord, for very kind is he;
Because his mercy doth endure unto eternity.
2 Let Israel confess that his mercy doth ever dure;
Let Aaron's house likewise confess his mercy is most sure.
3 Let all that fear the Lord our God e'en now confess and say,
The mercy of the Lord our God endureth still alway.
4 In trouble and in heaviness, unto the Lord I cry'd,
Who lovingly heard me at large, my suit was not deny'd.
5 The Lord himself is on my side, I will not stand in doubt;
Nor fear what man can do to me, when God stands me about.
6 The Lord doth take my part with them that help to succour me:
Therefore I shall see my desire upon my enemy.
7 Better it is to trust in God, than in man's mortal seed:
Or to put confidence in kings or princes in our need.
8 All nations have inclosed me, and compassed me round:
But in the Name of God shall I my enemies confound.
9 They kept me in on ev'ry side, and did me quite surround:
But in the Lord's most mighty Name I cast them to the ground.
10 They came about me all like bees, but in the Lord's great Name,
I quench'd their thorns that were on fire, and did destroy the same.

The Second Part.

- 11 They did with force thrust sore at me, that I indeed might fall:
But through the Lord I found such help, as did them vanquish all.
12 The Lord is my defence and strength, my joy, my mirth, my song,
And is become for me indeed, a Saviour great and strong.

P S A L M CXVIII, CXIX.

- 13 The right hand of the Lord our God doth bring to pass great things:
 He causeth voice of joy and health in righteous mens dwellings.
 14 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mighty things to pass:
 His hand hath the pre-eminence, his force is as it was.
 15 I shall not die, but ever live to utter and declare
 The mighty power of the Lord, his works and what they are.
 16 The Lord himself hath chastened, and hath corrected me:
 But not me given over yet to death, as you may see.
 17 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness:
 That I may enter into them, his praise for to express.
 18 This is the gate of God the Lord, which open shall be set,
 That good and righteous men always may enter into it.

The Third Part.

- 19 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord, and ever will praise thee;
 Who hast me heard, and art become a Saviour unto me.
 20 The stone which formerly among the builders was refus'd,
 Is now become the corner-stone, and chiefly to be us'd.
 21 This was the mighty work of God, it was the Lord's own fact,
 And it is wond'rous to behold that great and noble act.
 22 This is the joyful day indeed, which God himself hath wrought;
 Let us be glad, and joy therein, in heart, in mind, in thought.
 23 Now help us, Lord, and prosper us, we wish with one accord:
 Blessed is he that comes to us, in the Name of the Lord.
 24 God is the Lord that shews us light, bind ye therefore with cord
 Your sacrifice to the altar, and give thanks to the Lord.
 25 Thou art my God, I will confess, and render thanks to thee:
 Thou art my God, and I will praise thy mercy towards me.
 26 O give ye thanks to God the Lord, for very kind is he;
 Because his mercy doth endure unto eternity.

- Bless'd are they that perfect are, and pure in mind and heart;
 Whose lives and conversation do from God's laws never start.
 2 Bless'd are they that give themselves his statutes to observe;
 Seeking the Lord with all their heart, and never from him swerve.
 3 Doubtless such men go not astray, nor do a wicked thing;
 But stedfastly walk in his way without any wand'ring.
 4 'Tis thy commandment and thy will that with attentive heed,
 Thy precepts which are most divine, we learn and keep indeed.
 5 O would to God it might thee please my ways so to direct,
 That I might always keep thy laws, and never them reject.
 6 So shall I not ashamed be whilst I thus set my eyes,
 And bend my mind always to muse on thy decrees most wise.
 7 Then will I praise with upright heart, and magnify thy Name;
 When I shall learn thy judgements just, and also prove the same.
 8 And wholly will I give myself, to keep thy laws most right:
 Forake me not for ever, Lord, but shew thy grace and might.

BETH.

PSALM CXIX.

BETH.

The Second Part.

- 9 By what means may a young man best his life learn to amend?
If that he mark and keep thy word, and therein his time spend:
10 Unfeignedly I have thee sought, and thus seeking abide:
O never suffer me O Lord, from thy commands to slide.
11 Within my heart and secret thoughts thy words I have hid still,
That I might not at any time offend thy holy will.
12 We magnify thy Name, O Lord, and praise thee evermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame, O Lord, teach me therefore.
13 My lips have never ceas'd to preach and publish day and night,
The judgements all which did proceed from thy mouth full of might.
14 Thy testimonies and thy ways much more my heart rejoice,
Than all the treasures of the earth, which worldlings make their choice.
15 Upon thy precepts I will muse, and thereto frame my talk:
As at a mark so will I aim, how I thy ways may walk.
16 My only joy shall be so fix'd, and on thy laws so set,
That nothing shall me so far blind that I thy words forget.

GIMEL.

The Third Part.

- 17 Grant to thy servant now such grace, as may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I keep, both in my heart and tongue.
18 My eyes, which are dim and shut up, so open and make bright,
That of thy law and wond'rous works, I may have the clear sight.
19 I am a stranger on the earth, wand'ring now here, now there;
Thy word therefore to me disclose, my foot-steps for to clear.
20 My soul is ravish'd with desire, and never is at rest. (best;
But seeks to know thy judgements high, and what may please thee
21 The proud and the malicious men thou dost destroy each one;
And curst are such as do not thy laws attend upon.
22 Lord, turn from me rebuke and shame, which wicked men conspire;
For I have kept thy covenants with zeal as hot as fire.
23 The princes great in council sat, and did against me speak:
But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break:
24 For why? thy cov'nants are the joy and solace of my heart:
They are my faithful counsellors, from them I'll not depart.

DALETH.

The Fourth Part.

- 25 Alas, I am as brought to grave, and almost turn'd to dust;
Therefore restore my life again as thy promise is just.
26 My ways when I acknowledged, with mercy thou didst hear:
Hear now also, and me instruct thy laws to love and fear.
27 Make me, O Lord, to understand thy precepts evermore:
Then on thy works I'll meditate, and lay them up in store.
28 My soul I feel so sore oppress, that it doth melt for grief:
According to thy word therefore haste, Lord, to send relief.
29 From lying and deceitful lips let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learn thee to love, thy holy law me send.
30 The way of truth both strait and sure I chosen have and found:
Before me I thy judgements set, which keep me safe and sound.
31 Since then, O Lord, I readily thy covenants embrace:
Let me therefore have no rebuke, nor check in any case.

P S A L M CXIX.

32 Then will I run most joyfully, where thy word doth me call:
When thou enlarged hast my heart, and rid me out of thrall.

HE.

The Fifth Part.

33 Instruct me, Lord, in the right way of thy statutes divine;
And them to keep unto the end my heart I will incline.

34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law, and I shall it obey:
With heart and mind, and all my might, I will it keep alway.

35 In the right paths of thy commands, guide me, Lord, I require:
No other pleasure do I wish, nor greater thing desire.

36 Incline my heart thy laws to keep, and cov'nants to embrace,
And from all filthy avarice, Lord, shield me with thy grace:

37 From vain desires and worldly lust, turn back my eyes and sight;
And with thy spirit strengthen me, to walk thy ways aright.

38 Confirm thy gracious promise, Lord, which thou hast made to me,
Who am thy servant, and do love, and nothing fear but thee.

39 Reproach and shame which I do fear, from me, O Lord, expel:
For thou dost judge with equity, and therein dost excel.

40 Behold my heart's desire is bent, thy laws to keep alway;
O strengthen me so with thy grace that it perform I may.

VAU.

The Sixth Part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold, let me obtain, O Lord;
Thy saving health let me enjoy, according to thy word.

42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouths of lewd men and unjust;
For in thy faithful word is all my confidence and trust.

43 The word of truth within my mouth let evermore be prest;
For in thy judgements wonderful my hope doth always rest.

44 And whilst that breath within me doth this mortal life preserve;
Yea, still this world shall be dissolv'd, thy law will I observe.

45 So walk will I set as at large from dread and danger free,
Because I study how to keep thy precepts faithfully.

46 Thy noble acts I will describe, as things of most great fame;
E'en before kings I will them blaze, and shrink no whit for shame.

47 I will rejoice then to obey thy just commands and will;
Which evermore I have lov'd best, and so will love them still.

48 My hands I will lift to thy laws, which I have dearly fought;
And practise thy commandments all in word, in deed, and thought.

ZAIN.

The Seventh Part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me, remember, Lord, I pray;
For therein have I put my trust and confidence alway.

50 It is my comfort and my joy; when troubles me assail;
For were my life not by thy word, it suddenly would fail.

51 The proud, and such as God contemn, still make of me a scorn;
Yet I will not thy law forsake, as if I were forlorn.

52 But call to mind, Lord, thy great work shew'd to our fathers old;
Whereby I feel my joys surmount my grief a hundred-fold.

53 Horror hath taken hold on me, because the wicked do
Forsake thy righteous law, and will have no regard thereto.

54 But as for me I fram'd my songs, thy statutes to exalt,
When I among the strangers dwell, and grief did me assault.

P S A L M CXIX.

55 I thought upon thy Name, O Lord, by night when others sleep;
Thy law also I kept always, and ever will it keep.
56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants most dear,
I did embrace; and also keep with reverence and fear.

CHETH.

The Eighth Part.

57 O God, which art my part and lot, my comfort and my stay;
I have decreed and promised, thy laws to keep alway.
58 With my whole heart I humbly su'd in presence of thy face:
As thou therefore hast promised, Lord, grant to me thy grace.
59 My life I have examined, and try'd my secret heart:
Which to thy statutes caused me my feet straight to convert.
60 I did not stay, nor linger long, as they that slothful are;
But hastily thy laws to keep, I did myself prepare.
61 The cruel bands of wicked men, have made of me their prey;
Yet would I not thy law forget, nor from thee go astray.
62 Thy righteous laws and judgements are so very great and high,
That e'en at midnight I will rise thy Name to magnify.
63 I am companion of all them who fear thee in their heart;
O therefore grant I never may from thy commandments start.
64 Thy mercies, Lord, most plenteously, the earth thro'out do fill;
O teach me how I may obey thy statutes and thy will.

TETH.

The Ninth Part.

65 According to thy promise, Lord, so hast thou with me dealt:
For of thy grace in sundry sorts have I thy servant felt.
66 Teach me to judge always aright, and give me knowledge sure;
For stedfastly I do believe thy precepts are most pure.
67 Before that I afflicted was, I err'd and went astray;
But now I keep thy holy word, and make it all my stay.
68 Thou art both good and gracious, Lord, and in thy gifts most free;
Thine ordinances how to keep therefore, O Lord, teach me.
69 The proud and the ungodly have against me forg'd a lie;
Yet thy commandments still observe with all my heart will I.
70 Their hearts are even like to brawn, which is exceeding fat:
But in thy law do I delight, and nothing seek but that.
71 O happy time, may I well say, when thou didst me correct;
That I thereby might learn thy laws, and never them reject.
72 So that thy word and law to me is dearer manifold,
Than gold and silver in great sums, or ought that can be told.

JOD.

The Tenth Part.

73 Thy hands have made and fashion'd me; thy creature, Lord, am I;
Make me to understand thy law, and keep it faithfully.
74 So they that fear thee shall rejoice whenever they me see;
Because I have learn'd by thy word, to put my trust in thee.
75 I know, O Lord, thy judgements all most just and righteous be;
And that in very faithfulness thou hast afflicted me.
76 Now of thy goodness, I thee pray, some comfort to me send,
And as thou hast me hitherto, O Lord, still me defend.
77 Thy tender mercies pour on me, then shall I surely live;
For joy and consolation both thy law to me doth give.

78 Confound

P S A L M CXIX.

78 Confound the proud, who do me seek perversly to destroy;
But as for me, thy laws to know I will myself employ.

79 Whoso with rev'rence do thee fear, to me let them retire;
And such as know thy covenants, and them alone desire.

80 My heart without all wavering, let on thy laws be bent;
That no confusion come to me, nor any discontent.

C A P H. The Eleventh Part.

81 My soul doth faint, and ceaseth not thy saving health to crave;
And for thy word's sake still I trust my heart's desire to have.

82 My eyes do fail with looking for thy word; and thus I say;
O when wilt thou me comfort, Lord? why dost thou thus delay?

83 Like as a bottle in the smoke, so am I parch'd and dry'd;
Yet will I not out of my heart let thy commandments slide.

84 How long, O Lord, shall I yet live before I see the hour;
That on my foes which me torment thy vengeance thou wilt pour?

85 Presumptuous men have digged pits, thinking to make me sure;
Thus quite contrary to thy law, my hurt they do procure.

86 But thy commandments are all true, and causeless they me grieve;
To thee therefore I do complain, that thou may'st me relieve.

87 Almost they had me clean destroy'd, and brought me quite to Yet by thy statutes I abode, and therein succour found. (ground;

88 Restore me, Lord, again to life, thy mercies do excel;
And so shall I thy statutes keep till death my life expel.

L A M E D. The Twelfth Part.

89 In heav'n, O Lord, where thou dost dwell, thy word is 'stablish'd
And shall to all eternity fast settled there endure. (sure;

90 From age to age thy truth abides, as doth the earth witness;
Whose ground-work thou hast laid so sure, as no tongue can express.

91 E'en to this day, we may well see how thou dost them preserve,
According to thy ordinance, for all things do thee serve.

92 Had it not been that in thy law my soul had comfort sought;
Long time e'er now in my distress, I had been brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts keep in memory full fast;
Because that thou by them, O Lord, my life restored hast.

94 No man to me can title make, for I am only thine;

Save me therefore, for to thy laws my ears and heart incline.

95 The wicked men that seek my bane, for me do lie in wait;
But I will meditate upon thy testimonies great:

96 For nothing in this world I see, which hath at length no end;
But thy commandments and thy word, beyond all time extend.

M E M. The Thirteenth Part.

97 What great desire and fervent love unto thy law I bear!
On it my daily study is, that so I may thee fear.

98 Thy word hath taught me to exceed in wisdom all my foes;
For they are ever with me, and do give me sweet repose.

99 My teachers which did me instruct, in knowledge I excel;
Because I do thy statutes keep, and them to others tell:

100 In wisdom I do far surpass the ancient men also;
And that because I keep thy laws, and so resolve to do.

PSALM CXIX.

101 My feet I have refrain'd likewise from ev'ry evil way,
That so I might thy word observe, and keep without delay.
102 I have not from thy judgements swerv'd, nor shrunk as thou

(can'st tell;
Because thou hast me taught thereby to live godly and well.

103 O Lord, how sweet unto my taste I find thy words alway;
Doubtless no honey in my mouth doth taste so sweet as they:

104 Thy laws have me such wisdom learn'd, that I do hate therefore
All wicked and ungodly ways, and will do evermore.

N U N. The Fourteenth Part.

105 E'en as a lantern to my feet, so doth thy word shine bright;
And to my paths where I do go, it is a flaming light.

106 I have both sworn, and will perform in truth and faithfulness,
That I will keep thy judgements just, and them in life express.

107 Affliction hath me sore oppress'd, and brought me to death's
O Lord, as thou hast promised, so me to life restore. (door;

108 The free-will-off'rings of my mouth, which I to thee do give;
Accept, and teach me how I may after thy judgements live.

109 My soul is ever in my hand, great dangers me assail;
Yet I do not thy law forget, nor it to keep will fail.

110 Altho' the wicked laid their nets to make of me a prey;
Yet from thy precepts did I not once swerve or go astray.

111 Thy law, O Lord, I taken have my heritage to be,
Because such great delight and joy it doth afford to me.

112 For evermore I have been bent thy statutes to fulfil;
E'en so likewise unto the end I will continue still.

S A M E C H. The Fifteenth Part.

113 All thoughts that vain and wicked are I do always detest,
But for thy precepts, and thy law, I ever lov'd them best.

114 Thou art my hid and secret place, my shield and strong defence;
Therefore have I thy promises look'd for with confidence.

115 Therefore ye evil doers all away from me begone,
For the commandments will I keep of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou hast promis'd, so perform that I may live and be,
Never ashamed of the hope which thou hast given me.

117 Uphold me, and I shall be safe, for ought they do or say,
And in thy statutes pleasure take I will both night and day.

118 Under thy feet thou hast trod such as do thy statutes break,
For nought avails their subtilty, their counsels are too weak.

119 Like dross thou cast st the wicked out where ever they do dwell;
Therefore can I as thy commands love nothing half so well.

120 My flesh doth quake for fear of thee, my soul is much dismay'd;
By reason of thy judgements great, my heart is sore afraid.

A I N. The Sixteenth Part.

121 I do the thing that lawful is, and give to all men right;
Resign me not to them that would oppress me with their might:

122 But for thy servants surety be in that thing which is right;
And never let the proud oppress me with their rage and spite.

123 My eyes do fail with waiting for thy health, which I do crave;
And for thy righteous promise, Lord, whereby thou wilt me save.

P S A L M CXIX.

124 Entreat thy servant lovingly, and favour to him show;
And thy commands most excellent, teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble servant, Lord, I am, grant me to understand,
How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.

126 It is now time, Lord, to begin, for truth doth quite decay;
Thy law likewise they have made void, and none do it obey.

127 This is the cause wherefore I love thy laws much more than gold,
Or jewels fine, which are esteem'd most costly to be sold.

128 I thought thy precepts all most just, and so them keep in store:
All crafty and malicious ways I greatly do abhor.

P E.

The Seventeenth Part.

129 Thy covenants are wonderful, and full of things profound;
My soul therefore doth keep them sure when they are try'd and found.

130 The entrance of thy word doth give to men a light most clear;
The simple likewise understand, when they it read or hear.

131 My mouth I open'd, and did pant, because my soul did long
For thy commandments, which always do guide my heart and tongue.

132 With mercy and compassion look upon me from above;
As thou wert wont such to behold, as thy Name fear and love.

133 Direct my footsteps by thy word, that I thy will may know,
And never let iniquity thy servant overthrow.

134 From slanderous tongues and deadly harms preserve and keep me
Thy precepts then will I observe with heart upright and pure. (sure,

135 Thy countenance which doth surpass the sun in his bright hue,
Let shine on me, and by thy law teach me what to eschew;

136 Rivers of waters from mine eyes incessantly do fall,
Because I see how wicked men, thy laws keep not at all.

Z A D E.

The Eighteenth Part.

137 In ev'ry thing, Lord, thou art just; altho' the wicked grudge;
And when thou dost sentence pronounce, thou art a righteous judge:

138 To render right, and flee from guile, are two chief points most
And such as thou hast in thy law commanded us strictly. (high;

139 My zeal hath e'en consumed me, and I am pin'd away,
Because my foes thy word forget, and will it not obey.

140 Thy word is very pure, and doth greatly my heart rejoice;
Therefore thy servant nothing more can love, or make my choice.

141 And tho' I be nothing set by, as one of base degree,
Yet do I not thy laws forget, nor shrink away from thee.

142 Thy truth and righteousness, O Lord, for ever shall endure;
Also thy law is truth itself, most constant and most pure.

143 Anguish and grief have seiz'd on me, and brought me wond'rous
Yet of thy precepts do I still delight to hear and know. (low;

144 The righteousness of thy commands doth last for evermore;
Then teach them me, because in them my life lies up in store.

K O P H.

The Nineteenth Part.

145 With fervent heart I call'd and cry'd, now answer me, O Lord,
That thy commandments to observe, I fully may accord:

146 To thee, my God, I make my suit, save me, I humbly pray,
Thy testimonies then will I always keep and obey.

P S A L M CXIX.

147 To thee do I cry in the morn, before the day appear;
For in thy word I put my trust, and thee alone do fear.

148 My eyes prevent the night-watches, before they call, I wake,
That meditating on thy word, I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine ears to hear my voice, and pity on me take;
As thou wast wont, so quicken me, lest life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw near, and greedily do after mischief run;
Far from thy law they are gone back, and wickedly it shun.

151 Therefore, O Lord, approach thou near, since need doth so re-
For all thy precepts are most true, then help I thee desire. (quire;

152 Concerning thy commandments, I have learned long ago,
That they remain for evermore, thou hast them grounded so.

R E S H.

The Twentieth Part.

153 My trouble and affliction, Lord, consider and behold;
Deliver me, for of thy law, I ever take fast hold.

154 Defend my good and righteous cause, with speed some succour
From death, as thou has promised, Lord, ever me defend. (send;

155 As for the wicked, they are far from saving health and grace;
Because the way thy laws to know they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies, Lord, I grant, what tongue can them ex-
According to thy judgements good, let me my life obtain. (plain?

157 Tho' many men did trouble me, and persecute me fore;
Yet from thy laws I never shrunk, nor went aside therefore.

158 The great transgressors I behold, which is a grief to me;
Because they did not keep thy word, nor ever sought to thee.

159 Behold, how I do love thy laws, with a most upright heart;
Then quicken me, O Lord, for thou most good and gracious art.

160 Thy word from the beginning hath been ever true and just;
Thy righteous judgements ev'ry one, always continue must.

S C H I N.

The Twenty First Part.

161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause, but saw
It was in vain, for of thy word my heart did stand in awe.

162 And surely of thy word I was more joyful and more glad,
Than he that of rich-spoils and prey, great store of plenty had.

163 But as for lies and falsities, them I hate and detest,
Because thy holy law I do above all things love best.

164 Seven times a day I praise thee, Lord, singing with heart and Because thy righteous judgements do greatly my heart rejoice. (voice,

165 Great peace and rest shall all such have as do thy statutes love;
No danger shall their quiet state impair, or once remove.

166 My only health and comfort, Lord, I look for at thy hand;
And therefore have I done those things which thou didst me command.

167 Thy laws have been my exercise, which my soul most desir'd;
So much to them my love was bent, that nought else I requir'd:

168 Thy statutes and commandments I have kept with heart upright;
For all my doings and my ways are present in thy sight.

T A U.

The Twenty Second Part.

169 O Lord, let my complaint and cry, before thy face appear;
And as thou hast me promise made, so teach me thee to fear.

170 O let

P S A L M CXIX, CXX, CXXI.

170 O let my supplication, Lord, have free access to thee,
And let me be delivered, as thou hast promis'd me.
171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak, after most ample sort;
When thou thy statutes hast me taught, wherein stands my comfort.
172 My tongue shall freely preach thy word, and evermore confess,
Thy famous acts and noble laws, are truth and righteousness.
173 Stretch out thy hand, I thee beseech, and speedily me save;
For thy commandments to observe, chosen, O Lord, I have.
174 Of thee alone, Lord, I crave health, for other I know none;
And in thy law to meditate I do delight alone.
175 Grant me therefore long days to live, thy Name to magnify;
And of thy judgements wonderful, let me the favour try.
176 For I was lost, and went astray, much like a wand'ring sheep;
O seek me, for I have not fail'd, thy statutes for to keep.

P S A L. CXX. T. S.

I N trouble and in thrall, And he doth me comfort; Deliver me, I pray, And tongues of false report,	Unto the Lord I call; From lying lips away,
2 What vantage, or what thing Thou false and flatt'ring liar: Thy tongue doth hurt, 'tis seen, Or hot consuming fire.	Gett'st thou thus sort to sting, No less than arrows keen,
3 Alas! that I am fain, Which Kedar are by name: By whom the flock elect, Are put to open shame.	In those tents to remain, And all of Isaac's sect,
4 With them that peace do hate, And lead a quiet life; But when my mind was told, By them that loved strife.	I came to meditate, Causeless I was control'd,

P S A L. CXXI. W. W.

I Lift my eyes to Sion hill, From whence I do attend, The mighty God me succour will, Which heav'n and earth did frame,	'Till succour God me send. And all things therein name.
2 Thy foot from slip he will preserve, And will thee safely keep, Lo! he that Israel doth conserve, Sleep never can surprize,	For he doth never sleep: Nor slumber close his eyes,
3 The Lord thy keeper is alway, On thy right-hand is he. The sun shall not thee parch by day, Nor moon scarce half so bright,	A shade to cover thee. With cold thee hurt by night.
4 The Lord will keep thee from distress, And will thy life sure save; In all thy business good success; When thou go'st in or out,	Yea, thou shalt also have He'll compass thee about.

PSALM CXXII, CXXIII, CXXIV.

PSAL. CXXII. W. K.

I Did in heart rejoice
In offering so willingly;
For, let us up, said they,
Thus spake the folk with amity.
2 Our feet that wander wide,
O thou Jerusalem full fair,
Which art so seemly set,
Whither the people do repair,
3 The tribes with one accord,
Are thither bent their way to take,
So God before did tell,
Their prayers should together make,
4 For there are thrones erect,
To set forth justice orderly;
Which thrones right to maintain,
His folk to judge with equity.
5 To pray let us not cease,
Thy friends God keep in amity:
Peace be thy walls about,
Thy palaces continually.
6 For my friends sake will I,
May evermore abide in thee:
God's house doth me allure,
So much as lies in me.

To hear the peoples voice,
And in the Lord's house pray;
Shall in thy gates abide,
Much like a city neat;
To give thanks to the Lord,
That there his Israel,
And that for this respect,
To David's house remain,
For Jerusalem's peace;
And prosper thee throughout
With that prosperity
Thy wealth for to procure,

PSAL. CXXIII. T. S.

O Thou that in the heav'ns dost dwell, I lift my eyes to thee;
E'en as a servant listeth his, his master's hand to see.
2 As handmaids watch their mistress's hand, some grace for to achieve:
So we behold the Lord our God, 'till he do thus forgive.
3 O grant to us compassion, Lord, and mercy in thy sight;
For we are fill'd and overcome, with hatred and despite.
4 Our minds are fill'd with great rebuke, the rich and worldly wise
Do make of us their mocking-stocks, the proud do us despise,

PSAL. CXXIV. W. W.

NOW Israel may say, and that truly,
If that the Lord had not our cause maintain'd;
If that the Lord had not our right sustain'd,
When all the world against us furiously,
Made their uprores, and said we should all die.
2 Then long ago, they had devour'd us all,
And swallow'd quick, for ought that we could deem;
Such was their rage, as we might well esteem:
And as the floods with mighty force do fall,
So had they now our lives e'en brought to thrall.
3 The raging stream's most proud and roaring noise,
Had long ago o'er-whelm'd us in the deep:
Praised be God, which doth us safely keep,
From bloody teeth, and their most cruel voices,
Which as a prey, to eat us would rejoice,

PSALM CXXIV, CXXV, CXXVI.

4 E'en as a bird from fowlers gin or pen
Escapes away, right so it fares with us;
Broke are the nets, and we escaped thus.
God that made heav'n and earth is our help then:
His Name hath sav'd us from these wicked men.

PSALM CXXV. W. K.

SUCH as in God the Lord do trust,
As Sion mount shall firmly stand, And be removed at no hand;
The Lord will count them right and just, For ever to endure:
So that they shall be sure,

2 As many mountains huge and great,
Jerusalem about do close; So will the Lord do unto those,
Who on his godly will do wait; They never need to fear,
Such are to him so dear,

3 For tho' the righteous try doth he,
By making wicked men his rod, Left they through grief for-
It shall not always their lot be, (ake their God;
Give, Lord, to us thy light, Whose hearts are true and right.

4 But as for such as turn aside,
By crooked ways which they out-fought, The Lord will surely bring to
With workers vile they shall abide; (nought;
But peace with Israel, For evermore shall dwell.

Another of the same, by W. W.

THose that do place their confidence upon the Lord our God only;
And flee to him for their defence, in all their need and misery;
Their faith is sure, still to endure, grounded on Christ the corner-stone;
Mov'd with no ill, but standeth still, stedfast like to the mount Sion.

2 And as about Jerusalem, the mighty hills do it compass,
So that no foes can come to them, to hurt that town in any case;
So God indeed, in ev'ry need, his faithful people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly, from this time forth world without end.

3 Right wise and good is our Lord God, and will not suffer certainly
The sinners and ungodly's rod, to rest upon his family:
Left they also from God should stray, falling to sin and wickedness:
O Lord, defend both night and day thy little flock, and them still bless.

4 O Lord, do good to Christians all, that stedfast in thy word abide;
But such as from the Lord do fall, and to false doctrine daily slide,
Them will the Lord scatter abroad, with hypocrites thrown down

God will them send pains without end, but, Lord, grant peace to

PSALM CXXVI. W. W.

WHEN that the Lord again his Sion had forth brought,
From bondage great, and also servitude extream,
His work was such as did surmount man's heart and thought,
So that we were much like to them that use to dream:
Our mouths were all with laughter filled then,
Also our tongues did shew us joyful men.

P. S A L M CXXVII, CXXVIII, CXXIX.

1 The heathen folk were forced then this to confesse,
How that the Lord, for them also great things had done;
But much more we, and therefore can confesse no less:
Wherefore to joy we have good cause, as we begun.
O Lord, go forth, thou canst our bondage end,
Who to deserts, dost flowing rivers send.

3 Full true it is, that they which sow in tears indeed,
A time will come, when they shall reap in mirth and joy.
They went and wept in bearing of their precious seed,
For that their foes full often times did them annoy:
But their return they joyfully shall see,
Their sheaves bring home, and not impaired be.

OFT they now Israel may say, me from my youth assail'd;
Oft they assail'd me from my youth, yet never have prevail'd.
2 Upon my back the plowers plow'd, and furrows long did cast;
The righteous Lord hath cut the cords of wicked men at last.

LORD, unto thee I make my mone, when dangers me oppress;
I call, I sigh, complain, and grone, trusting to find releafe.
2 Hearken, O Lord, to my request, unto my suit incline;
And let thine ears, O Lord, be prest, to hear this pray'r of mine.
3 O Lord our God, if thou survey our sins, and them peruse,
Who shall escape? or who dare say, I can myself excuse?
4 But thou art merciful and free, and boundless in thy grace;
That we might always careful be, to fear before thy face.
5 In God the Lord, I put my trust, my soul waits on his will;
His promise is for ever just, and I hope therein still.
6 My soul to God hath great regard, wishing for him alway;
Much more than they that watch and ward, to see the dawning day.
7 O Israel, trust in the Lord, with him there mercy is;
And he doth plenteously afford redemption unto his.
8 E'en he it is that Isr'el shall, thro' his abundant grace,
Redeem from his offences all, and wholly them deface.

O Lord, I am not puffed in mind, I have no scornful eye;
I do not exercise myself in things that be too high.
2 But as a child that weaned is, e'en from his mother's breast,
So have I, Lord, behav'd myself, in silence and in rest.
3 O Israel, trust in the Lord, let him be all thy stay;
From this time forth for evermore, from age to age alway.

PSAL. CXXXII. N.

Remember David's troubles, Lord, how unto thee he swore;
And vow'd a vow to Jacob's God, to keep for evermore.
2 I will not come within my house, nor climb up to my bed;
Nor let my temples take their rest, nor eyes within my head;
3 Till I have found out for the Lord, a place to sit thereon;
An house for Jacob's God to be an habitation.
4 We heard of it at Ephrata, there did we hear this sound,
And in the fields and forrests there, these voices first we found.
5 We will assay and go into his tabernacle there;
Before his footstool to fall down, and worship him in fear.
6 Arise, O Lord, arise, I pray, into thy resting place;
Thou and the ark of thy great strength, the presence of thy grace.
7 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord, with truth and righteousness;
Let all thy saints with songs of praise, their joyfulness express.
8 And for thy servant David's sake, refuse not, Lord, I pray,
The face of thy Anointed, and turn not from him away.

The Second Part.

9 The Lord to David swore in truth, and will not shrink from it;
The fruit that from thy loins proceed, upon thy seat shall sit.

P S A L M CXXXIII, CXXXIV, CXXXV.

10 And if thy sons my laws will keep, that I shall learn each one;
Then shall their sons for ever sit upon thy princely throne.
11 The Lord himself hath Sion chose, and loves therein to dwell;
Saying, this is my resting place, I love and like it well.
12 And I will bless with great increase, her victuals ev'ry where;
And also satisfy with bread, the needy that be there.
13 With my salvation I will clothe her priests for evermore;
And all her saints likewise shall sing, and shout for joy therefore.
14 There will I surely make the horn of David for to bud;
For there I have ordain'd for him a lantern bright and good.
15 As for his foes, I will them clothe with shame for evermore;
But I will cause his crown to shine more fresh than heretofore.

O What a happy thing it is, and joyful for to see,
Brethren to dwell together in friendship and unity.
1 It's like the precious ointment that was pour'd on Asson's head;
Which from his beard down to the skirts of his rich garments spread,
3 And as the lower ground doth drink the dew of Hermon hill;
And Sion with his silver drops the fields with fruit doth fill.
4 E'en so the Lord doth pour on them his blessings manifold;
Whose hearts and minds sincerely do this knot fast keep and hold.

BEhold, and have regard, ye servants of the Lord,
Who in his house by night do watch, praise him with one accord;
2 Lift up your hands on high unto his holy place;
And give the Lord his praises due, his benefits embrace.
3 For why? the Lord our God, who heav'n and earth did frame,
Doth Sion bless, and will preserve for evermore the same.

P S A L CXXXV. N.

O Praise the Lord, praise ye his Name, praise him with one accord;
O praise him still, all ye that be the servants of the Lord.
2 O praise him, ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord;
Ye of his court and of his house, praise him with one accord.
3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good; sing praises to his Name;
It is a good and pleasant thing, always to do the same.
4 For why? the Lord hath Jacob chose, his very own ye see;
So hath he chosen Israel his treasure for to be.
5 For this I know, and am right sure, the Lord is very great;
He is indeed above all gods, most easy to intreat.
6 For whatsoever pleased him, all that full well he wrought;
In heav'n, in earth, and in the sea, which he hath made of nought.
7 He lifts the clouds above the earth, he lightnings makes, and rain;
He bringeth forth the winds also, and nothing made in vain.
8 He smote the first-born of each thing in Egypt that took rest;
He spared there no living thing, nor man, nor yet the beast.
9 He did likewise shew wonders great on their inhabitants;
Upon king Phar'oh, and also on his severe servants.

P S A L M CXXXV, CXXXVI.

Another of the same, by T. C.

O Laud the Lord benign, whose mercy ne'er decays;
 Give thanks, and praises sing to th' God of gods always,
 For certainly his mercies dure
 Both firm and sure eternally.

2 The Lord of lords praise ye, whose mercies ever dure;
 Great wonders only he doth by his pow'r sure.
 For certainly, &c.

3 Which God omnipotent, by his great wisdom he
 The heav'n and firmament did frame as we may see.
 For certainly, &c.

4 Yea, he the heavy charge of all the earth did lay
 Upon the waters large remaining to this day.
 For certainly, &c.

5 Great lights he made for why? his mercy lasts alway;
 The sun most gloriously, to rule the lightsome day.
 For certainly, &c.

P S A L. CXXXVII. W. W.

WHEN we did sit in Babylon, the rivers round about;
Then in remembrance of Sion, the tears for grief burst out.

2 We hang'd our harps and instruments, the willow trees upon:
For in that place men for their use had planted many one.

3 Then they to whom we prisoners were, said to us tauntingly,
Now let us hear your Hebrew songs, and pleasant melody.

4 Alas! said we, who can once frame, his heavy heart to sing
The praises of our loving God, thus under a strange king?

5 But yet if I Jerusalem out of my heart let slide,
Then let my fingers quite forget, the warbling harp to guide.

6 And let my tongue within my mouth, be ty'd for ever fast,
If I rejoice before I see thy full deliv'rance past.

7 Therefore, O Lord, remember now, the cursed noise and cry,
That Edom's sons against us made when they ras'd our city.

8 Remember, Lord, their cruel words, when with a mighty sound,
They cried, down, yea, down with it unto the very ground.

9 E'en so shalt thou, O Babylon, at length to dust be brought;
And happy shall that man be call'd, that our revenge hath wrought.

10 Yea, blessed shall that man be call'd, that takes thy little ones;
And dasheth them in pieces small against the very stones.

P S A L. CXXXVIII. N.

THee will I praise with my whole heart, my Lord my God always,
E'en in the presence of the gods, I will advance thy praise.

2 Towards thy holy temple I will look and worship thee;
And praised in my thankful mouth, thy holy Name shall be.

3 E'en for thy loving-kindness sake, and for thy truth withal,
For thou thy Name hast by thy word advanced over all.

4 When I did call, thou heardest me, and thou hast made also
The power of increased strength, within my soul to grow.

5 Yea, all the kings on earth shall give praise unto thee, O Lord,
For they of thy most holy mouth, have heard the mighty word;

6 They of the ways of God the Lord, in singing shall repeat,
Because the glory of the Lord is so exceeding great.

7 The Lord is high, but yet he doth the lowly man respect;
The proud he knows far off, and them with scorn he doth reject.

8 Altho' in midst of trouble I do walk, yet shall I stand;
Reviv'd by thee, for thou, O Lord, will stretch out thy right hand

9 Upon the wrath of all my foes, and saved shall I be
By thy right hand; the Lord God will perform his work to me.

10 Thy mercies last for evermore, Lord, do me not forsake;
Forsake me not, who am the work which thy own hand did make.

P S A L M CXXXIX, CXL.

P S A L. CXXXIX. N.

O Lord, thou hast me try'd and known, my sitting down dost
 My rising up and thoughts far off, thou understand'st also. (know :
 2 My path, yea, and my bed likewise, thou art about always ;
 And by familiar custom art acquainted with my ways.
 3 No word is in my tongue, O Lord, that is not known to thee :
 Thou hast beset me round about, and laid thy hand on me.
 4 Such knowledge is too wonderful, and past my skill to gain ;
 It is so high that I unto the same cannot attain.
 5 From thy all-seeing spirit then, Lord, whither shall I go ?
 Or whither shall I fly away, from thy presence also ?
 6 For if to heav'n do I climb up, lo, thou art present there :
 In hell if I lie down below, e'en there thou dost appear.
 7 Yea let me take the morning wings, and let me go and dwell,
 E'en in the very utmost parts, where th' flowing sea doth swell :
 8 Yet certainly there also shall thy hand me lead and guide ;
 And thy right-hand shall hold me fast, and make me to abide.
 9 Or if I say, the darkness shall shroud me quite from thy sight,
 E'en then the night that is most dark, about me shall be light.
 10 The darkness hideth not from thee, but night doth shine as day :
 To thee the darkness and the light are both alike alway.

The Second Part.

11 For thou possessedst hast my reins, and thou didst cover me,
 Within my mother's womb, when I was there inclos'd by thee.
 12 Thee will I praise ; made fearfully, and wond'rously I am :
 Thy works are marvellous, right well my soul doth know the same.
 13 My bones they are not hid from thee, altho' in secret place
 I have been made, and in the earth beneath I shaped was :
 14 When I was formless, then thy eye saw me ; for in thy book
 Were all my members written, and nought after fashion took.
 15 The thoughts therefore of thee, O God, how dear are they to me !
 And of them all, how very great the endless number be !
 16 If I should count them, lo, their sum more than the sand wou'd
 And whensoever I awake, I present am with thee. (be ;
 17 The wicked and ungodly thou most certainly wilt slay ;
 Therefore now, all ye bloody men, depart from me away.
 18 These are the men, O Lord, who speak most wickedly of thee,
 And take thy Name in vain, because thy enemies they be.
 19 Hate I not them that hate thee, Lord, and that in earnest wise ?
 Am I not grieved with all those that up against thee rise ?
 20 I hate them with a perfect hate, e'en as my utter foes ; (close.
 Try me, O God, and know my heart, my thoughts prove and dis-
 21 Consider, Lord, if wickedness, in me there any be ;
 And in thy way, O God, my guide, for ever lead thou me.

P S A L. CXL. N.

L ORD, save me from the evil man, and from his pride and spight ;
 And from all those also who do in violence delight.
 2 Who evermore on me make war, their tongues, lo, they have Like serpents underneath their lips, is adders poison set, (what ;
 3 Keep

P S A L M CXL, CXLI, CXLII.

- 3 Keep me, O Lord, from wicked hands, preserve me to abide free from the cruel man that means to cause my steps to slide.
- 4 The proud have laid a snare for me, and they have spread a net With cords in my path-way, and gins for me also have set.
- 5 Therefore I said unto the Lord, thou art my God alone; Hear me therefore, O hear the voice, wherewith I pray and mone.
- 6 O Lord, my God, thou only art the strength that saveth me; My head in day of battle hath been cover'd still by thee.
- 7 Let not, O Lord, the wicked have the end of his desire; Perform not his ill thought, lest he with pride be set on fire.
- 8 Of them that compass me about, the chiefest of them all, Lord, let the mischief of their lips, upon their own heads fall.
- 9 Let coals fall on them, let them be cast in consuming flame; And in deep pits, that never they may rise out of the same.
- 10 For no backbiters shall on earth, be set in stable plight; And evil to destruction still, shall hunt the cruel wight.
- 11 I know the Lord th' afflicted will revenge, and judge the poor; The just shall praise thy Name, and shall dwell with thee evermore.

P S A L CXL. N.

- O Lord, upon thee do I call, then haste thee unto me;
And hearken thou unto my voice when I do cry to thee.
- 2 As incense let my prayers be directed in thine eyes;
And the up-lifting of my hands as ev'ning sacrifice.
 - 3 For guiding of my mouth, O Lord, set thou a watch before;
And also of my moving lips, O Lord, keep thou the door.
 - 4 That I should wicked works commit, incline thou not my heart;
With ill men of their delicates, Lord, let me eat no part:
 - 5 But let the righteous smite me, Lord, for that is good for me:
Let him reprove me, and the same a precious oil shall be.
 - 6 Such smiting shall not break my head, the time shall shortly fall,
When I shall in their misery, make prayers for them all.
 - 7 And when in stony places down their judges shall be cast,
Then shall they hear my words, because they have a pleasant taste.
 - 8 Our bones about the pit's mouth are all scattered and found,
As when one breaketh and doth hew the wood upon the ground.
 - 9 But, O my Lord and God, my eyes do look up unto thee;
In thee is all my trust, let not my soul forsaken be.
 - 10 Keep and preserve me from the snare, which they for me have laid;
And from the gins of wicked men, whereof I am afraid.
 - 11 The wicked into their own nets, together let them fall,
While I do by thy help escape the danger of them all.

P S A L CXLII. N.

- U NTO the Lord God with my voice, I did send out my cry;
And with my strained voice unto the Lord God prayed I.
- 2 My meditation in his sight, to poun I did not spare;
And in the presence of the Lord my trouble did declare.
 - 3 Although perplexed was my soul, my path was known to thee:
In way where I did walk, a snare they slyly laid for me.
 - 4 I look'd

P S A L M CXLII, CXLIII, CXLIV.

4 I look'd and view'd on my right-hand, but none there would me
All refuge failed me, and for my soul no care did show. (know;
5 Then cried I to thee, and said, O Lord, my hope thou art;
And in the land of the living, my portion and my part.
6 Hear now my cry, for I am brought full low, deliver me
From them that do me persecute, for me too strong they be.
7 That I may praise thy Name, my soul from prison, Lord, bring out;
When thou art good to me, the just shall compass me about.

P S A L. CXLIII.

Lord, hear my pray'r and my complaint which I do make to thee;
And in thy native truth, and in thy justice answer me.
2 In judgement with thy servant, Lord, O enter not at all;
For justify'd be in thy sight not one that liveth shall.
3 The enemy pursu'd my soul, my life to ground hath thrown;
And laid me in the dark, like them that are to grave gone down.
4 Therefore my spirit in me is in great perplexity;
My heart within me also is afflicted grievously.
5 Yet I record time past, and on thy works I meditate;
Yea, I do muse upon the works that thy hands did create.
6 To thee, O Lord my God, do I stretch forth my craving hands:
My soul desireth after thee, as do the thirsty lands.
7 Hear me with speed, my spirit fails, hide not thy face, lest I
Be like to them that in the pit sink down, and there do lie.
8 Let me thy loving-kindness in the morning hear and know:
For in thee is my trust, shew me the way that I should go.
9 For unto thee I lift my soul, O Lord, deliver me
From all my enemies, for I have hid myself with thee:
10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou, thou art my God alway:
Let thy good spirit to the land of mercy me convey.
11 For thy Name's sake with quick'ning grace, alive do thou me
And out of trouble bring my soul, e'en for thy justice sake. (make;
12 And of thy mercy slay my foes, let them destroyed be,
That do oppress my soul, for I a servant am to thee.

P S A L. CXLIV.

BLeft be the Lord my strength, that doth instruct my hands to fight;
The Lord that doth my fingers frame to battle by his might.
2 He is my hope, my fort and tow'r, deliverer and shield;
In him I trust, my people he subdues to me to yield.
3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him thou dost so highly prize?
Or son of man, that upon him thou thinkest in such wise?
4 Man is but like to vanity, so pass his days to end
As fleeting shade. Bow down, O Lord, the heavens, and descend.
5 The mountains touch, and they shall smoke, cast forth thy lightning
And scatter them, thine arrows shoot, consume them with the same.
6 Send down thy hand from heav'n above, O Lord, deliver me;
Take me from waters great, from hand of strangers set me free.
7 Whole subtle mouth of vanity with flatt'ring words doth treat;
And their right-hand is a right-hand of falshood and deceit.

P S A L M CXLIV, CXLV.

- 8 A new song will I sing to thee, O God, the Lord most high ;
And on a ten string'd lute also, praise thee most joyfully.
9 E'en he it is that only gives deliverance to kings :
Unto his servant David help from th' hurtful sword he brings.
10 From strangers hand me save and shield, whose mouth talks vanity,
And their right-hand is a right-hand of guile and subtilty.
11 That so our sons may be as plants, which growing youth doth rear ;
Our daughters as carv'd corner-stones like to a palace fair.
12 Our garners full, and plenty may of sundry sorts be found ;
Our sheep bring thousands in our streets, ten thousands may abound.
13 Our oxen be to labour strong, that none may us invade ;
No goings out there be, nor cries within our streets be made.
14 The people happy are that with such blessings great are stor'd ;
Yea, blessed all the people are, whose God is God the Lord.

P S A L. CXLV. N.

- THee will I laud, my God and King, and blest thy Name alway ;
For ever will I praise the same, and blest thee day by day.
2 Great is the Lord, most worthy praise, his greatness none can reach :
From race to race they shall thy works praise, and thy power preach.
3 I of thy glorious majesty, the beauty will record ;
And meditate upon thy works most wonderful, O Lord.
4 And they shall of thy pow'r, and of thy fearful acts declare :
And I to publish all abroad, thy greatness will not spare.
5 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodness great ;
And I aloud thy righteousness in singing will repeat :
6 The Lord our God most gracious is, and merciful also ;
Of great abounding mercy, and to anger he is slow.
7 Yea, good to all ; and all his works his mercy doth exceed :
Lo ! all thy works do praise thee, Lord, and honour thee indeed :
8 Thy saints do blest thee, and they do thy kingdom's glory show ;
And blaze thy pow'r, to cause the sons of men the same to know.

The Second Part.

- 9 And of thy kingdom's majesty, do spread the glorious praise :
Thy kingdom, Lord, a kingdom is that doth endure always.
10 And thy dominion thro' each age, endures without decay :
The Lord upholdeth them that fall, their sliding he doth stay.
11 The eyes of all do wait on thee, thou dost them all relieve ;
And thou to each sufficing food, in season due dost give.
12 Thou openest thy plenteous hand, and bounteously dost fill
All things whatever that do live, with gifts of thy good will.
13 The Lord is just in all his ways, his works are holy all ;
And he is near all those that do in truth upon him call.
14 He the well wishes of all them that fear him will fulfil ;
And he will hear them when they cry, and save them all he will.
15 The Lord preserves all those to him that bear a loving heart :
But he all them that wicked are will utterly subvert.
16 My thankful mouth shall gladly speak the praises of the Lord :
All flesh to praise his holy Name for ever shall accord.

P S A L M CXLVI, CXLVII.

P S A L. CXLVI. J. H.

MY soul, praise thou the Lord always, my God I will confesse ;
While breath and life prolong my days my tongue no time shall (cease.

- 2 Trust not in worldly princes then, tho' they abound in wealth ;
Nor in the sons of mortal men, in whom there is no health.
- 3 For why? their breath doth soon depart, to earth anon they fall ;
And then the counsels of their heart decay and perish all.
- 4 Blessed and happy are all they, whom Jacob's God doth aid ;
And he whose hope doth not decay, but on the Lord is staid :
- 5 Who made the earth and waters deep, the heavens high withal ;
Which doth his word and promise keep, in truth, and ever shall.
- 6 Which right always doth he proceed, for such as suffer wrong ;
The poor and hungry he doth feed, and loose their setters strong.
- 7 The Lord doth send the blind their sight, the lame to limbs restore ;
He loveth all that are upright, and just men evermore ;
- 8 He doth defend the fatherless, and strangers sad in heart ;
He frees the widow from distress, and ill mens ways subvert.
- 9 The Lord thy God eternally, O Sion, still shall reign ;
In time of all posterity, for ever to remain.

P S A L. CXLVII. N.

- Praise ye the Lord, for it is good unto our God to sing ;
For it is pleasant, and to praise it is a comely thing.
- 1 The Lord his own Jerusalem, he buildeth up alone ;
And the dispers'd of Israel, doth gather into one.
 - 3 He heals the broken in their heart, their sores up doth he bind ;
He counts the number of the stars, and names them in their kind.
 - 4 Great is the Lord, great is his pow'r, his wisdom infinite ;
The Lord relieves the meek, and throws to ground the wicked wight.
 - 5 Sing unto God the Lord with praise, unto the Lord rejoice ;
And to our God upon the harp advance your singing voice.
 - 6 He covers heav'n with clouds, and for the earth prepareth rain ;
And on the mountains he doth make the gras to grow again.
 - 7 He gives to beasts their food, and to young ravens when they cry :
His pleasure not in strength of horse, nor in man's legs doth lie ;
 - 8 But in all those that do him fear, the Lord hath his delight ;
And such as do attend upon his mercies shining light,

The Second Part.

- 9 O praise the Lord, Jerusalem, thy God, O Sion, praise ;
For he the bars hath forged strong, wherewith thy gates he stays.
- 10 Thy children in thee he hath blest, and in thy borders he Doth settle peace, and with the flour of wheat he filleth thee.
- 11 And his command likewise upon the earth he sendeth out ;
Also his word with speedy course, doth swiftly run about.
- 12 He giveth snow like wooll, and frost like ashes scatters wide ;
Like morsels casts his ice, the cold thereof who can abide ?
- 13 He sendeth forth his mighty word, and melteth them again :
His wind he makes to blow, and then the waters flow again.

P S A L M CXLVII, CXLVIII, CXLIX.

14 The doctrine of his holy word to Jacob he doth show :
 His statutes and his judgements he gives Israel to know.
 15 With any nation hath he not so dealt, nor have they known
 His secret judgements ; ye, therefore, praise ye the Lord alone.

P S A L M CXLVIII. J. H.

Give laud unto the Lord, Praise him in deed and word, And also ye His angels all, Praise joyfully. 2 Praise him both moon and sun, The same of you be done, And you no less, Ye heavens fair, His laud express. 3 For at his word they were At his voice did appear Which he set fast ; To them he made Always to last. 4 Extol and praise God's Name All deeps, do ye the same, The same do ye, Fire, hail, ice, snow, At his decree. 5 The hills and mountains all, The cedars great and tall, Beasts and cattel, Yea, birds of wing, That on earth dwell. 6 All kings, both great and small, Princes and judges all, Exalt his Name : Young men and maids, Do ye the same. 7 For his Name shall we prove Whose praise is far above For sure he shall Exalt with blisse And help them all. 8 His saints all shall forth tell The sons of Israel, And also they That with good will And him obey.	From heav'n that is so high : Above the starry sky. Armies royal, Which are so clear and bright : Ye glitt'ring stars of light, Clouds of the air, All formed as we see : All things in their degree, A law and trade, On earth, ye dragons fell : For it becomes you well ; And storms that blow, And trees that fruitful are, His worthy praise declare. And worms creeping, With all their pompous train ; That in the world remain, Old men and babes, To be most excellent, The earth and firmament ; The horn of his, His praise and worthiness, Each one both more and less : His words fulfil,

P S A L M CXLIX. N.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God a new rejoicing song ;
 And let the praise of him be heard his holy saints among.
 2 Let Israel rejoice in God, and praises to him sing ;
 And let the seed of Sion be most joyful in their king.

PSALM CXLIX, CL.

- 3 Let them sound praise with voice of lute unto his holy Name ;
And with the timbrel, and the harp, sing praises to the same.
- 4 For why ? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set ;
And by deliv'rance he will raise the meek to glory great.
- 5 With glory and with honour now let all his saints rejoice ;
Aloud upon their beds also, advance their singing voice :
- 6 And in their mouths let be the high praises of God the Lord ;
And in their hands likewise a sharp and a two-edged sword.
- 7 To plague the heathen, and correct the people with their hands ;
To bind their stately kings in chains, their lords in iron bands.
- 8 To execute on them the doom that written was before ;
This honour all his saints shall have, praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. CL. N.

- Yield unto God, the mighty Lord, praise in his holiness ;
And in the firmament of his great pow'r praise him no less.
- 2 Advance his Name, and praise him in his mighty acts always ;
According to his excellence and greatness, give him praise.
 - 3 His praises with the princely noise of sounding trumpets blow ;
Praise him upon the viol, and upon the harp also.
 - 4 Praise him with timbrel and with flute, organs and virginals ;
With sounding cymbals praise ye him, praise him with loud cymbals.
 - 5 Whatever hath the benefit of breathing, praise the Lord :
To praise his great and holy Name, agree with one accord.

The End of the PSALMS.

VENI.

VENI, CREATOR.

COME, Holy Ghost, eternal God, proceeding from above,
Both from the Father and the Son, the God of peace and love,
Visit our minds, and into us thy heav'nly grace inspire,
That for all truth and godliness, we may have true desire.

- 1 Thou art the very Comforter, in all grief and distress;
The heav'nly gift of God most high, which no tongue can express.
- 2 The fountain and the living spring of joy celestial;
The fire so bright, the love so sweet, and unction spiritual.
- 3 Thou in thy gifts art manifold, whereby Christ's church doth stand;
In faithful hearts writing thy law, the finger of God's hand.
- 4 According to thy promise made, thou givest speech with grace;
That thro' thy help the praise of God may sound in ev'ry place.
- 5 O Holy Ghost, into our souls send down thy heav'nly light;
Inflame our hearts with fervent love, to serve God day and night.
- 6 Our weakness strengthen and confirm, which feeble is and frail,
That neither devil, world, nor flesh, against us may prevail.
- 7 Our enemies put far from us, and grant us to obtain
Peace in our hearts with God and man, the best and truest gain.
- 8 And grant, O Lord, that thou being our leader and our guide,
We may eschew the snares of sin, and never from thee slide.
- 9 To us such plenty of thy grace, good Lord, grant, we thee pray,
That thou may'st be our Comforter at the last dreadful day.
- 10 Of strife and all dissension, Lord, do thou dissolve the bands:
Tie fast the knots of peace and love, thro'out all Christian lands.
- 11 Grant us, O Lord, thro' thee to know the Father most of might;
That of his dear beloved Son we may attain the sight:
- 12 And that, with perfect faith, also we may acknowledge thee
The Spirit of them both alway, one God in Persons three.

The Song of S. Ambrose, called Te Deum.

- WE praise thee, God, and thee confess the only Lord to be;
And as eternal Father all, the earth doth worship thee.
- 1 To thee all angels cry, the heav'ns, and all the pow'rs therein,
To thee incessantly do cry Cherub and Seraphin,
 - 2 O holy, holy, holy Lord, of Sabaoth Lord the God;
Thro' heav'n and earth thy praise is spread, and glory all abroad.
 - 3 The Apostles glorious company yield praises unto thee;
The Prophets goodly fellowship praise thee incessantly.
 - 4 The noble and victorious host of Martyrs sound thy praise;
The holy Church thro'out the world acknowledge thee always.

The Song of Zacharias, &c.

- 6 Father of endless Majesty, they do acknowledge thee;
And Christ thy honourable, true, and only Son to be.
- 7 The Holy Ghost the Comforter, of glory thou art King,
O Christ, and of the Father art, the Son everlasting.
- 8 When sinful man's decay in hand, thou tookest to restore,
To be inclos'd in virgin's womb thou didst not then abhor.
- 9 When thou of death hadst overcome the sharpness thro' thy Heav'n's kingdom thou didst open set to each believing wight. (might,
- 10 In glory of the Father thou dost sit on God's right-hand;
We trust that thou shalt come our Judge, our cause to understand.
- 11 Lord, help thy servants whom thou hast bought with thy pre(cious blood;
And in eternal glory set them with thy saints most good.
- 12 O Lord, do thou thy people save, bless thine inheritance;
Lord, govern them, and also do, for ever them advance.
- 13 We magnify thee day by day, always world without end;
And do adore thy holy Name: vouchsafe us to defend.
- 14 From sin this day, Have mercy, Lord, have mercy on us all;
And on us, as we trust in thee, Lord, let thy mercy fall.
- 15 O Lord, I have reposed all my confidence in thee;
Therefore let no confounding shame, my portion ever be.

The Song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

- THE only Lord of Israel be praised evermore;
For thro' his visitation and his mercy kept in store,
- 2 His people now he hath redeem'd, that long have been in thrall;
And spread abroad his saving health upon his servants all.
- 3 In David's house, his servant true, according to his mind;
And also his anointed King, as we in Scripture find:
- 4 As by his holy prophets all he often did declare,
The which were since the world began, his way for to prepare.
- 5 That we might be delivered from those that make debate,
E'en from the hands of enemies, and all that do us hate,
- 6 The mercy which he promised our fathers to fulfil;
And think upon his cov'nant made according to his will.
- 7 And also to perform the oath, which he before had sworn
To Abraham our father dear, for us that were forlorn;
- 8 That he would give himself for us, and us from bondage bring,
Out of the hands of all our foes to serve our heav'nly King.
- 9 And that without all kind of fear also in righteousness;
And likewise for to lead our lives in stedfast holiness:
- 10 And thou, O child, who now art born, and of the Lord elect,
Shalt Prophet of the Highest be, his way for to direct.
- 11 For thou shalt go before his face, for to prepare his ways;
And also for to teach his will and pleasure all thy days;
- 12 To give them knowledge how that their salvation now is near;
And that remission of their sins is thro' his mercy dear.
- 13 Whereby the day-spring from on high descended from his seat,
To give light unto them that sat in darkness very great.

The Song of the Blessed Virgin Mary, &c.

14 To lighten those that shadow'd be with death, and are oppress'd;
And also for to guide our feet the way to peace and rest.

The Song of the Blessed Virgin Mary, called Magnificat.

MY soul doth magnify the Lord, my spirit evermore
Rejoiceth in the Lord my God, who is my Saviour;
2 And that because he did regard, and had respect unto
The low estate of his handmaid, and let the mighty go.
3 For now behold, all nations and the generations all,
From this time forth for evermore, shall me right blessed call,
4 Because he hath me magnify'd, who is the Lord of might;
Whose Name be ever sanctify'd, and praised day and night.
5 For with his mercy and his grace, all men he doth inflame,
Thro' out the generations all, that fear his holy Name.
6 He shew'd strength with his mighty arm, and made the proud to
With all imaginations that were in their wicked heart. (start,
7 He hath put down the mighty ones from their supernal state,
And did exalt the meek in heart, e'en from their low estate.
8 The hungry he replenish'd with all things that were good;
And thro' his pow'r he made the rich oft-times to want their food.
9 And calling to remembrance his great mercy very well,
Hath holpen up most graciously, his servant Israel,
10 According to his promise made to Abraham before,
And to his seed successively, to stand for evermore.

The Song of Simeon, called Nunc dimittis.

O Lord my God, because my heart hath longed earnestly
My Lord and Saviour to behold, and see before I die:
2 The joy and health of all mankind, desired long before;
Who now is come into the world, lost man for to restore.
3 Then suffer, Lord, thy servant now in peace for to depart,
According to thy holy word, which doth rejoice my heart;
4 Because mine eyes, which thou hast made to give my body light,
Have now beheld thy saving health, which is the Lord of might.
5 Whom thou hast mercifully set, of thy abundant grace,
In open sight and visible, before all peoples face.
6 The Gentiles to illuminate, who do in darkness dwell;
Also to be the glory of thy people Israel.

The Lord's Prayer, or Pater Noster.

OUR Father, which in heav'n art, Lord, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, e'en as the same
2 In heaven is. Give us, O Lord, our daily bread this day.
As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts, we pray.
3 Into temptation lead us not, from evil keep us free;
For th' kingdom, pow'r, and glory is thine to eternity.

The Articles of the Christian Faith, &c.

The Twelue Articles of the Christian Faith.

- ALL my belief and confidence is in the Lord of might;
The Father who all things hath made, the day and also night.
2 The heav'ns and firmament likewise, and also ev'ry star;
The earth, and all that is therein, which pass man's reason far.
3 And in like manner I believe in Christ our Lord, his Son,
Co-equal with the Deity, and man in flesh and bone;
4 Conceived by the Holy Ghost, his word doth me assure;
And of his mother Mary born, yet she a Virgin pure.
5 Because mankind to Satan was for sin in bond and thrall,
He came and offer'd up himself to death, to save us all.
6 And suffering most grievous pain, then Pilate being judge,
Was crucify'd upon the cross, and thereat did not grudge.
7 And so he died in the flesh, but quicken'd by the Spirit;
His body then was buried, that we might life inherit.
8 His soul did after this descend into the lower parts;
A dread to wicked spirits, but joy unto faithful hearts.
9 And on the third day of his death he rose to life again,
That so he might be glorify'd, and freed from grief and pain.
10 Ascending up above the heav'ns, to sit in glory still
On God's right-hand, his Father dear, according to his will.
11 Until the day of judgement, when he shall return again
With angels pow'r, tho' of that day we ignorant remain,
12 To judge all people righteously, whom he hath dearly bought;
The living and the dead also, whom he hath made of nought.
13 And in the Holy Ghost also, author of purity,
In Trinity the third person, believe I stedfastly.
14 The Catholick and holy Church, that God's word doth maintain,
And holy Scripture doth allow, which Satan doth disdain:
15 And also I do trust to have, by Jesus Christ his death,
Release and pardon of my sins, and that only by faith.
16 What time all flesh shall rise again before the Lord of might:
And see him with their outward eyes, which now do give them (light.
17 Then shall our Saviour Jesus Christ the sheep and goats divide,
That he may give eternal life to those whom he hath try'd:
18 Within his realm-celestial, in glory for to rest;
With all the holy company of Saints and Angels blest:
19 Who serve the Lord omnipotent, and him always adore:
To whom be all dominion, and all praise for evermore.

A Prayer to the Holy Ghost, to be sung before Sermon.

- COME, Holy Spirit, God of might, the Comforter of all,
Teach us to know thy word aright, that we may never fall.
2 O Holy Ghost, visit our land, defend us with thy shield;
Against all sin and wickedness, Lord, help to win the field.
3 O Lord, preserve our King, and bleis his council, that they may
Be stedfast in the Gospel of our Saviour Christ alway.

4 O Lord,

A Thanksgiving, &c.

- 4 O Lord, that giv'st thy holy word, send preachers plenteously;
That in the same we may accord, and therein live and die.
- 5 O Holy Spirit, guide aright the preachers of thy word;
That thou by them may'st cut down sin, as it were with a sword.
- 6 Depart not from thy pastors pure, but aid them at their need;
Who break to us the bread of life, whereon our souls do feed.
- 7 O Blessed Sp'rit of truth, keep us in peace and unity:
Keep us from sects and errors all, and from all heresy.
- 8 Convert all those that are our foes, and bring them to thy light;
That they and we may well agree, and praise thee day and night.
- 9 True faith in us, O Lord, increase, and let love so abound,
That man and wife may live in peace, and all about us round.
- 10 In our time give thy peace, O Lord, to nations far and nigh;
And teach them all thy word, that they may sing to thee, most High.

A Thanksgiving after the Receiving of the Lord's Supper.

- THE Lord be thanked for his gifts, and mercies evermore,
That he doth shew unto his saints, to him be laud therefore;
- 2 Our tongues cannot so praise the Lord, as he doth right deserve;
Our hearts cannot of him so think, as he doth us preserve.
 - 3 His benefits they be so great to us, who are but sin,
That at our hands a recompence he cannot hope to win.
 - 4 O sinful man, that thou should'st have such mercies of the Lord!
Who dost deserve most worthily of him to be abhorr'd.
 - 5 Nought else but sin and wickedness, doth rest within our hearts;
And stubbornly against the Lord, we daily act our parts.
 - 6 The sun that in the firmament is set for us a light,
Doth shew itself more clear and pure, than we be in his sight.
 - 7 The heav'ns above, and all therein, more holy are than we;
They serve the Lord in their estate, each one in his degree.
 - 8 They do not strive for mastership, nor light their office set;
But serve the Lord, and do his will, there's nothing can them let.
 - 9 Also the earth and all therein, of God doth stand in awe,
Observing the Creator's will, by skilful nature's law.
 - 10 The sea, and all that is therein, doth bend when God doth beck;
Spirits beneath do tremble all, and fear his wrathful check.
 - 11 But we, alas! for whom all these were made them for to rule,
Do not so know or love the Lord, as doth the ox and mule.
 - 12 A law he gave for us to know what was his holy will;
He would our good, but we would not avoid the thing that's ill.
 - 13 Not one of us that seeketh out the Lord of life to please;
Nor doth the thing that might us lead, to Christ and quiet ease.
 - 14 Thus are we all his enemies, we can it not deny;
And he again of his good will would not that we should die.
 - 15 Therefore when remedy was none, to bring us unto life,
The Son of God our flesh did take to end our mortal strife.
 - 16 And all the law of God the Lord, he fully did obey;
And for our sins upon the cross, his blood our debts did pay.
 - 17 And that we never should forget, what good for us he wrought,
A sign he left our eyes to tell, that he our bodies bought.

The humble Suit of a Sinner.

- 18 In bread and wine were visible, unto thy eyes and taste;
His mercies great thou may'st record, if that his grace thou hast.
- 19 As once the corn did live and grow, and was cut down with scythe,
And threshed out with many stripes, out of his husk to drive;
- 20 And as the mill with violence did tear it out so small,
And made it like to earthly dust, not sparing it at all:
- 21 And as the oven, with fire hot; doth close it up with heat,
And all this done, as I have said, that it should be our meat:
- 22 So was the Lord in his ripe age cut down by cruel death;
His soul he gave in torments great, and yielded up his breath:
- 23 Because that he to us might be an everlasting bread;
With much reproach and troubles great, on earth his life he led.
- 24 And as the grapes in pleasant time, are pressed very fore,
And plucked down when they be ripe, and let to grow no more:
- 25 Because the juice that in them is as comfortable drink,
We might receive, and joyful be, when sorrows make us shrink.
- 26 So was the blood of Christ press'd out also with nails and spear;
The juice thereof doth save all those that rightly do him fear.
- 27 And as the corns by unity into one loaf are knit;
So is the Lord and his whole Church, tho' he in heav'n doth sit.
- 28 As many grapes make but one wine, so should we be but one,
In faith and love in Christ above, and unto Christ alone.
- 29 Leading a life without all strife, in quiet, rest, and peace;
From envy and from malice both our hearts and tongues should cease.
- 30 Which if we do, then shall we shew, that we his chosen be;
By faith in him to lead a life, as always willed he.
- 31 And that we may so do indeed, God send us all his grace;
Then after death we shall be sure with him to have a place.

The humble Suit of a Sinner.

- O Lord, on whom I do depend, behold my careful heart;
And when thy will and pleasure is, release me of my smart.
- 2 Thou see'st my sorrows what they are, my grief is known to thee;
And there is none that can remove, or take the same from me.
- 3 But only thou, whose aid I crave, whose mercy still is prest,
To ease all those who come to thee for succour and for rest.
- 4 And since thou see'st my restless eyes, my tears, and grievous grone;
Attend unto my suit, O Lord, mark my complaint and mone.
- 5 For sin hath so inclosed me, and compass'd me about,
That I am now remediless, if mercy help not out.
- 6 For mortal man cannot release, or mitigate my pain;
But only Christ, my Lord and God, who for my sins was slain.
- 7 Whose bloody wounds are yet to see, tho' not with mortal eye;
Yet do thy saints behold them, Lord, and so I trust shall I.
- 8 Tho' sin doth hinder me a while, when thou shalt see it good,
I shall enjoy the sight of him, who shed for me his blood.
- 9 And as thy angels and thy saints do now behold the same;
So trust I to possess that place, with them to praise thy Name.
- 10 But whilst I live here in this vale, where sinners do frequent,
Assist me ever with thy grace, my sins still to lament.

The Lamentation of a Sinner.

- 11 Left that I tread the sinners path, and give them my consent,
To dwell with them in wickedness, whereto nature is bent.
12 Only thy grace must be my stay, let that with me remain;
For if I fall, then of myself, I cannot rise again.
13 Wherefore this is yet once again my suit and my request;
To grant me pardon for my sin, that I in thee may rest.
14 Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise;
And in thy Church and house of saints sing psalms to thee always.

The Lamentation of a Sinner.

- O Lord, turn not thy face away from him that lies prostrate,
Lamenting fore his sinful life, before thy mercy gate.
2 Which thou dost open wide to those that do lament their sin;
O shut it not against me, Lord, but let me enter in.
3 Call me not to a strict account how I have lived here;
For then I know right well, O Lord, most vile I shall appear.
4 I need not to confess my life, for surely thou canst tell,
What I have been, and what I am, thou knowest very well.
5 O Lord, thou know'st what things be past, also the things that be;
Thou know'st also what is to come, nothing is hid from thee.
6 Before the heav'ns and earth were made, thou knew'st what things were then,
As all things else that have been done, amongst the sons of men.
7 And can the things that I have done be hidden from thee then?
No, no, thou know'st them all, O Lord, where they were done, and 8 Wherefore with tears I come to thee to beg and to intreat, (when E'en as a child that hath done ill, and feareth to be beat.
9 So come I to the throne of grace, where mercy doth abound;
Desiring mercy for my sin, to heal my deadly wound.
10 O Lord, I need not to repeat what I do beg or crave;
For thou dost know, before I ask, the thing that I would have.
11 Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask, this is the total sum;
For mercy, Lord, is all my suit, O let thy mercy come.

The Lamentation.

- O Lord, in thee is all my trust, give ear unto my woful cry;
Refuse me not that am unjust, but cast on me thy heav'nly eye.
2 Behold how I do still lament my sins wherein I do offend;
Shall I for them have punishment, since thee to please I do intend.
3 No, no, thy will is not so bent to deal with sinners in thine ire;
But when in heart they do repent, with speed thou grantest their (desires)
4 To thee therefore still will I cry, to wash away my sinful crime;
Thy blood, O Lord, is not yet dry, but that it may help me in time.
5 Hasten then, O Lord, therefore, I pray, to pour on me thy gifts of (grace;
That when this life shall pass away, in heav'n with thee I may have (place.
6 Where thou dost reign eternally with God, who once thee down (did send;
Whose angels do incessantly, sing praise to thee world without end.
Venite,

Venite, exultemus.

O Come, and let us now rejoice, and sing unto the Lord,
And to our only Saviour also with one accord.
2 O let us come before his face with inward reverence,
Confessing all our former sins, and that with diligence.
3 To thank him for his benefits always distributing;
Wherefore to him right joyfully in psalms now let us sing.
4 And that because our God alone is Lord magnificent,
And is above all other gods a King omnipotent.
5 His people doth he not forsake at any time or tide;
And in his hands are all the coasts of all the world so wide.
6 And with his loving countenance he looketh every where;
And doth behold the tops of all the mountains far and near.
7 The sea, and all that is therein are his, for he them made;
Also his hand hath fashioned the earth, which doth not fade.
8 O come therefore, and worship him, and down before him fall;
And let us kneel before the Lord, the which hath made us all.
9 He is our God, our Lord and King, and we his people are,
His flock, and sheep of his pasture, of whom he taketh care.
10 This day if you will hear his voice, then harden not your heart;
As in the bitter murmuring, when ye were in desert.
11 Which thing was of their negligence, committed in the time
Of trouble in the wilderness, a great and grievous crime.
12 Whereas your fathers tempted me, and try'd me ev'ry way;
That proved me, and saw my works, what I could do or lay.
13 These forty years have I been griev'd with this generation;
And evermore, I said, they err'd in their imagination.
14 Wherewith their hearts were cumbered long time and many days;
Wherefore I said, assuredly they have not known my ways.
15 To whom I in my anger swore, that they should not be blest;
Nor see my joy celestial, nor enter in my rest.

Preserve us, Lord, by thy dear word,
From Turk and Pope defend us, Lord;
Both which would thrust out of his throne
Our Lord Christ Jesus, thy dear Son.
Lord Jesus Christ, shew us thy might,
That thou art Lord of lords by right;
Thy poor afflicted flock defend,
That we may praise thee without end,
God, Holy Ghost, the Comforter,
Be our patron, help, and succour;
Give us one mind, and perfect peace;
All gifts of grace in us increase.
Thou living God, in Persons Three,
Thy Name be prais'd in unity;
In all our need for us defend;
That we may praise thee without end.
